CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR CHAMPIONS

It takes many qualities to be a winner, a national champion. Most of all, it takes a single-minded focus, courage, hard work, a winning spirit and an all-out dedicated team. At the TOSTITOS® Fiesta Bowl™, we're here to salute the best of the best – the Tennessee Volunteers, the Florida State Seminoles and the family members, friends and fans who have supported the players and coaches along the way.

Frito-Lay is also proud to recognize its own champions: a distinguished group of men and women who set their sights on challenging targets and, in the end, achieved greatness. We're honoring our top Frito-Lay sales performers at this year's big game – the most fitting place to meet and recognize champions. Please join all of us in celebrating the outstanding performances of all these champions!

President's WELCOME

On behalf of the Fiesta Bowl's Board of Directors and 2,500 volunteers, it is my pleasure to welcome you here tonight to the 28th Annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

All year, we have billed this game as "College Football's First Unified National Championship" because, for the first time in the 128-year history of college football, every team from every conference had the opportunity to play for the national championship on the field.

There can only be one first. That is why the Fiesta Bowl's Board of Directors decided to select the first year of the Bowl Championship Series to host the national championship game.

And what a match-up we have. No. 1 Tennessee against No. 2 Florida State. Prime time. ABC. The entire world watching. Phillip Fulmer. Bobby Bowden. The Volunteers. The Seminoles.

Wow!

As the 1998-99 Fiesta Bowl President, I need to tip my hat to the Fiesta Bowl Family for working so diligently through the years to allow us the opportunity to host this historic game. It is because of their efforts that the Fiesta Bowl Festival has become a community treasure.

I hope you've enjoyed your stay in the Valley of the Sun and been able to enjoy some of the renowned Fiesta Bowl hospitality. Enjoy the game.

Sincerely,

Herman R. Frazier

By Jack Magruder, Arizona Daily Star

Tennessee and Florida State took different roads to reach the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, but the inaugural Bowl Championship Series couldn't ask for a better game to determine this year's national champion.

16 SCOUTING REPORTS

By Mike Strange, Knoxville News-Sentinel and Bob Thomas, Florida Times-Union

If 1998 was supposed to be a rebuilding year in Knoxville, someone forgot to tell Tennessee, as Phillip Fulmer's Volunteers exceeded all expectations to capture the SEC title and ascend to the No. 1 spot in the BCS. Mike Strange gives us an inside look into UT's personnel in year 1 A.P. (after Peyton). Meanwhile, Bob Thomas has Florida State covered, which is more than the 'Noles' opponents could say after Bobby Bowden's Tribe passed and ran over all comers to grab the second spot in the BCS title game.

Rulebook Headaches

YOU BE THE REF!

The rare play, quirky bounce or bizarre situation can give college football referees instant headaches, especially since they are expected to make immediate decisions during the heat of battle. Under the gun, could you make the right call? Touchdown Illustrated gives you the whistle. Below are rulebook headaches designed to test your knowledge of the game. YOU BE THE REF!

Headache #1

Nebraska vs. Kansas State. Nebraska punter Bill Lafleur kicks the ball to the Wildcats' David Allen, who signals for the fair catch. In the process of signaling, Allen steps out of bounds before catching the ball with both feet on the field of play.

You're the ref: What happens next?

Answer:

In this case, there is no call to be made. According to Rule 6, Section 5, Article 1, it is not illegal for a receiver to go out of bounds during a kick. Because of the signal, the play is legal and the ball is dead.

Headache #2

Georgia Tech at North Carolina. The Yellow Jackets' Dez White drops back for the kickoff, but he fumbles Josh McGee's kick at the seven-yard line and the ball bounces backward where it strikes the pylon of North Carolina's end-zone at the intersection of the goal line and sideline.

You're the ref: What happens next?

Answer:

According to approved ruling 8-6-1-1 under Rule 8, Section 6, Article 1, the ball is not a touchback, but a turnover. North Carolina regains possession of the ball at the spot of White's fumble, which is the seven-yard line in this case.

Headache #3

Tennessee vs. Georgia. Volunteers' kicker Jeff Hall prepares for the kickoff, but he cannot find the kicking tee so he uses his foot to build up a small pile of dirt and sod to prop up the ball. He then makes the kick.

You're the ref: What happens next?

Answer:

According to the approved ruling under Rule 2, Article 4, build-up of a tee with a mound of dirt or sod or using the toe of a tee mate as a tee is illegal. The penalty is five yards from the succeeding kickoff. The ball is legal if it is kicked from the toe of a tee mate as a tee is legal.

Headache #4

Texas A&M vs. Texas. After scoring a touchdown, Texas goes for the extra point, but Kris Stockton's kick is blocked. One of Stockton's teammates, however, picks up the ball, which never crossed the neutral zone, and runs it into the end zone.

You're the ref: What happens next?

Answer:

Based on an approved ruling for Rule 8, Section 3, Article 2, since the ball never crossed the neutral zone, the score counts and Team A is awarded two points, not one, for running it in.

Tennessee and Florida State took different roads to reach the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, but the inaugural Bowl Championship Series couldn't ask for a better game to determine this year's national champion

BY JACK MAGRUDER

COLLEGE FOOTBALL deserves this game. Perennial powers Tennessee and Florida State. Mythmakers such as Gen. Robert Neyland and Bobby Bowden. Johnny Majors and Charlie Ward. Reggie White and Warrick Dunn. You could fill a wing in the college football Hall of Fame with the lore and the legends associated with these resident Southern dynasties.

On a historical level, it is altogether fitting that 12-0 and No. 1-ranked Tennessee and 11-1 and No. 2-ranked Florida State should meet in the first national championship game of the United Bowl Championship Series in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl at Sun Devil Stadium tonight. The Volunteers and Seminoles belong on centerstage. Heck, they bring the stage with them when they play:

- Florida State has won 97 games in the 1990s, posting the most victories and the highest winning percentage (.886) of the decade. Tennessee's 89 victories ranks fourth, and its dozen this season are a school record.

- Volunteers Head Coach Phillip Fulmer is 66-11 in his 6 1/3 seasons since replacing an ailing Majors for the first three games of the 1992 season, giving him the highest winning percentage (.857) of any active NCAA Division I-A coach who has been on the job at least five years. Florida State's Bowden (.774) ranks third in a 23-year career.

- Tennessee has won 13 Southeastern Conference titles, five since 1985. Florida State has run off seven consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference championships since joining the league in 1992. The Seminoles have lost exactly two of their 56 conference games in that time.

- Under Bowden, Florida State has an NCAA Division I-A record 12 straight 10-victory seasons, starting with an 11-1 1987 team that lost its only game — to rival Miami — by one point.

- The Seminoles have a streak of 11 consecutive top-four finishes in the AP postseason poll on the line.

All that aside, the national championship Fiesta Bowl will provide an opportunity for a reconciliation, perhaps even serving to kindle a nonexistent rivalry. Although it is only 538 highway miles between Knoxville and Tallahassee, the schools cannot seem to find each other. They have met only once in Florida State's 52-year football history, in 1958, when the Seminoles shut out Tennessee, 10-0, in Neyland Stadium. The Seminoles were never invited back, and it has been only in the past 20 years that Tennessee would even consider a road game against such an upstart.

We deserve this game.

"We're excited," said Bowden, who, with 16 bowl victories, has more than any other coach except Penn State's Joe Paterno, who entered the postseason with 18. "I like playing teams you don't play very often. Tennessee has a big name with great tradition, excellent players and an excellent coach."

"This has been an exciting time for our program," said Fulmer, making his seventh straight bowl appearance. "We have been a resilient team all season and we've found a way to get it done. We've been on the edge of playing in a national championship game, and now we have a chance to do it."

The big time is nothing new for the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, which has become arguably the bowl game, certainly this season. The teams ranked No. 1 and No. 2 have met in a bowl game 12 times before, most recently in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl, when top-ranked Nebraska won its second straight national championship with a 62-24 victory over Florida.

Florida State has played in four No. 1 vs. No. 2 matchups, once in a bowl, when it beat Nebraska for its lone national title in the 1994 Orange Bowl. Tennessee won its lone AP national championship in legendary coach Neyland's second stint in 1951, although it ended the season No. 2 in 1938-39, 1956 and 1967. Neyland's team gave up 16 points in the 1938 season; zero in the 1939 regular season before losing the Rose Bowl, 14-0, to Southern California.

Tennessee will make its second Fiesta Bowl appearance. While the Seminoles are in their fourth Fiesta, their trip was not a done deal until both unbeaten UCLA and Kansas State lost on December 5, show-down Saturday.

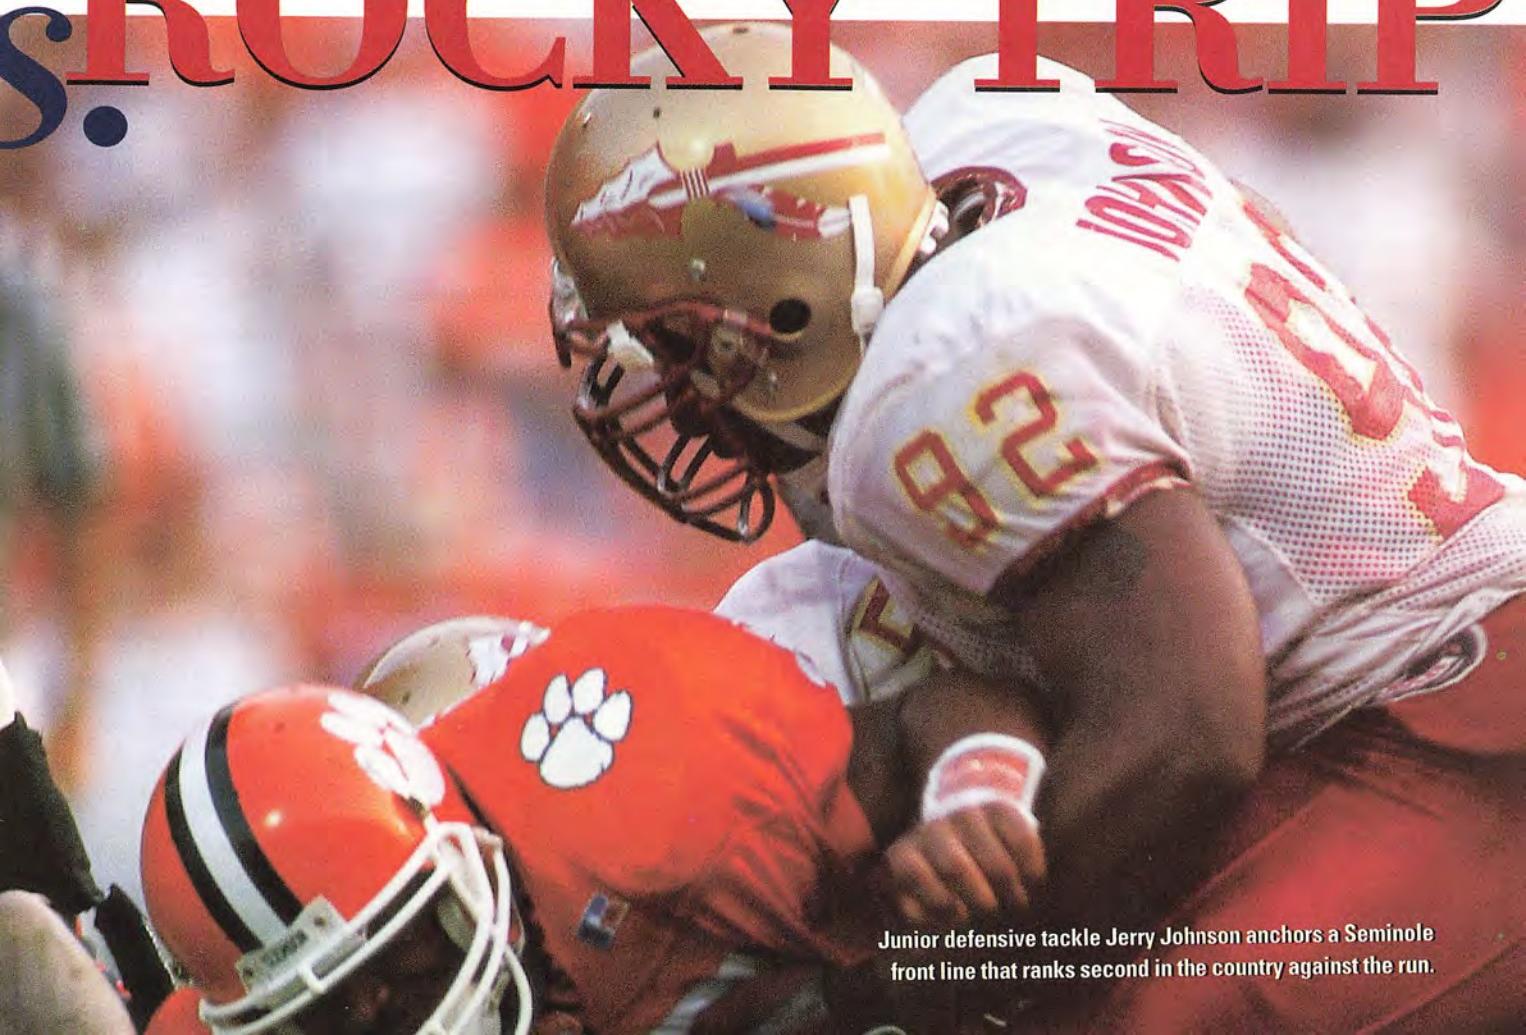

"It looks like a situation where Tennessee came in through the front door and we kind of came in through the back door," Bowden said. "But now we're going to face off in the middle of the room, and it's gonna be a heck of a shootout."

Actually, both title contenders overcame obstacles to get here. Nine months ago, Tennessee lost three players in the first round of the National Football League Draft, including the professional scouts' choice as the best player in college football in 1997, quarterback Peyton Manning. Cornerback and Phoenix native Terry Fair and wide receiver Marcus Nash also were among the top 30 players selected. At least the Volunteers had time to groom junior quarterback Tee Martin. Top rusher Jamal Lewis played in only four games before suffering a knee injury that cost him the rest of the regular season, although Travis Henry filled in admirably.

S. ROCKY TRIP

Junior defensive tackle Jerry Johnson anchors a Seminole front line that ranks second in the country against the run.

Senior wideout Peerless Price was ahead of his peers when it came to receptions, leading the Vols with 61 grabs and 10 touchdowns during the season. He ranks third in receptions, yards and touchdowns all-time at Tennessee.

Tennessee had three narrow escapes along the way — a last-second victory at Syracuse in the season-opener, an overtime victory over nemesis Florida, a team Manning never beat, and a 28-24 triumph over then-unbeaten Arkansas on November 14. The Volunteers forced four fumbles to beat the Gators and turned a fortuitous fumble in the final two minutes into the winning touchdown against the Razorbacks. Of course, good things seem to happen to good teams. Nebraska got to No. 1 last season thanks to a fourth-down touchdown pass that bounced off a teammate's foot. Colorado got a fifth-down touchdown — also against Missouri — in its 1990 national championship run.

Florida State, meanwhile, survived the loss of its top two quarterbacks during the course of the calendar year, first after junior starter Dan Kendra suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee in the spring game and was forced to miss the entire season. New starter Chris Weinke, a 26-year-old sophomore who returned to school in 1997 after six years in professional baseball, went down with a sea-

two. We've won with both of them," said wide receiver Peerless Price, who had 10 catches against South Carolina and is No. 3 in receptions in Tennessee history.

"It's going how we dreamed of it going," Martin said. "We may not have expected it to be like this, but we dreamed of it. One of our goals was to be where we are right now."

Florida State won with two quarterbacks this season — neither of whom was expected to carry the load this year. But Kendra, the nation's top high school recruit in 1995 from the same state that produced fellow Pennsylvanians Joe Namath, Joe Montana and Dan Marino, went down in the third quarter of the spring game. Weinke, who had thrown 13 passes in seven years, got the job.

son-ending neck injury on the first Saturday of November. Even Quarterback U. — Steve Tensi, Gary Huff, Danny McManus, Peter Tom Willis, Casey Weldon, Heisman Trophy winner Ward and Danny Kanell to name a few — could not have been expected to fill that important a role without some bumps along the way.

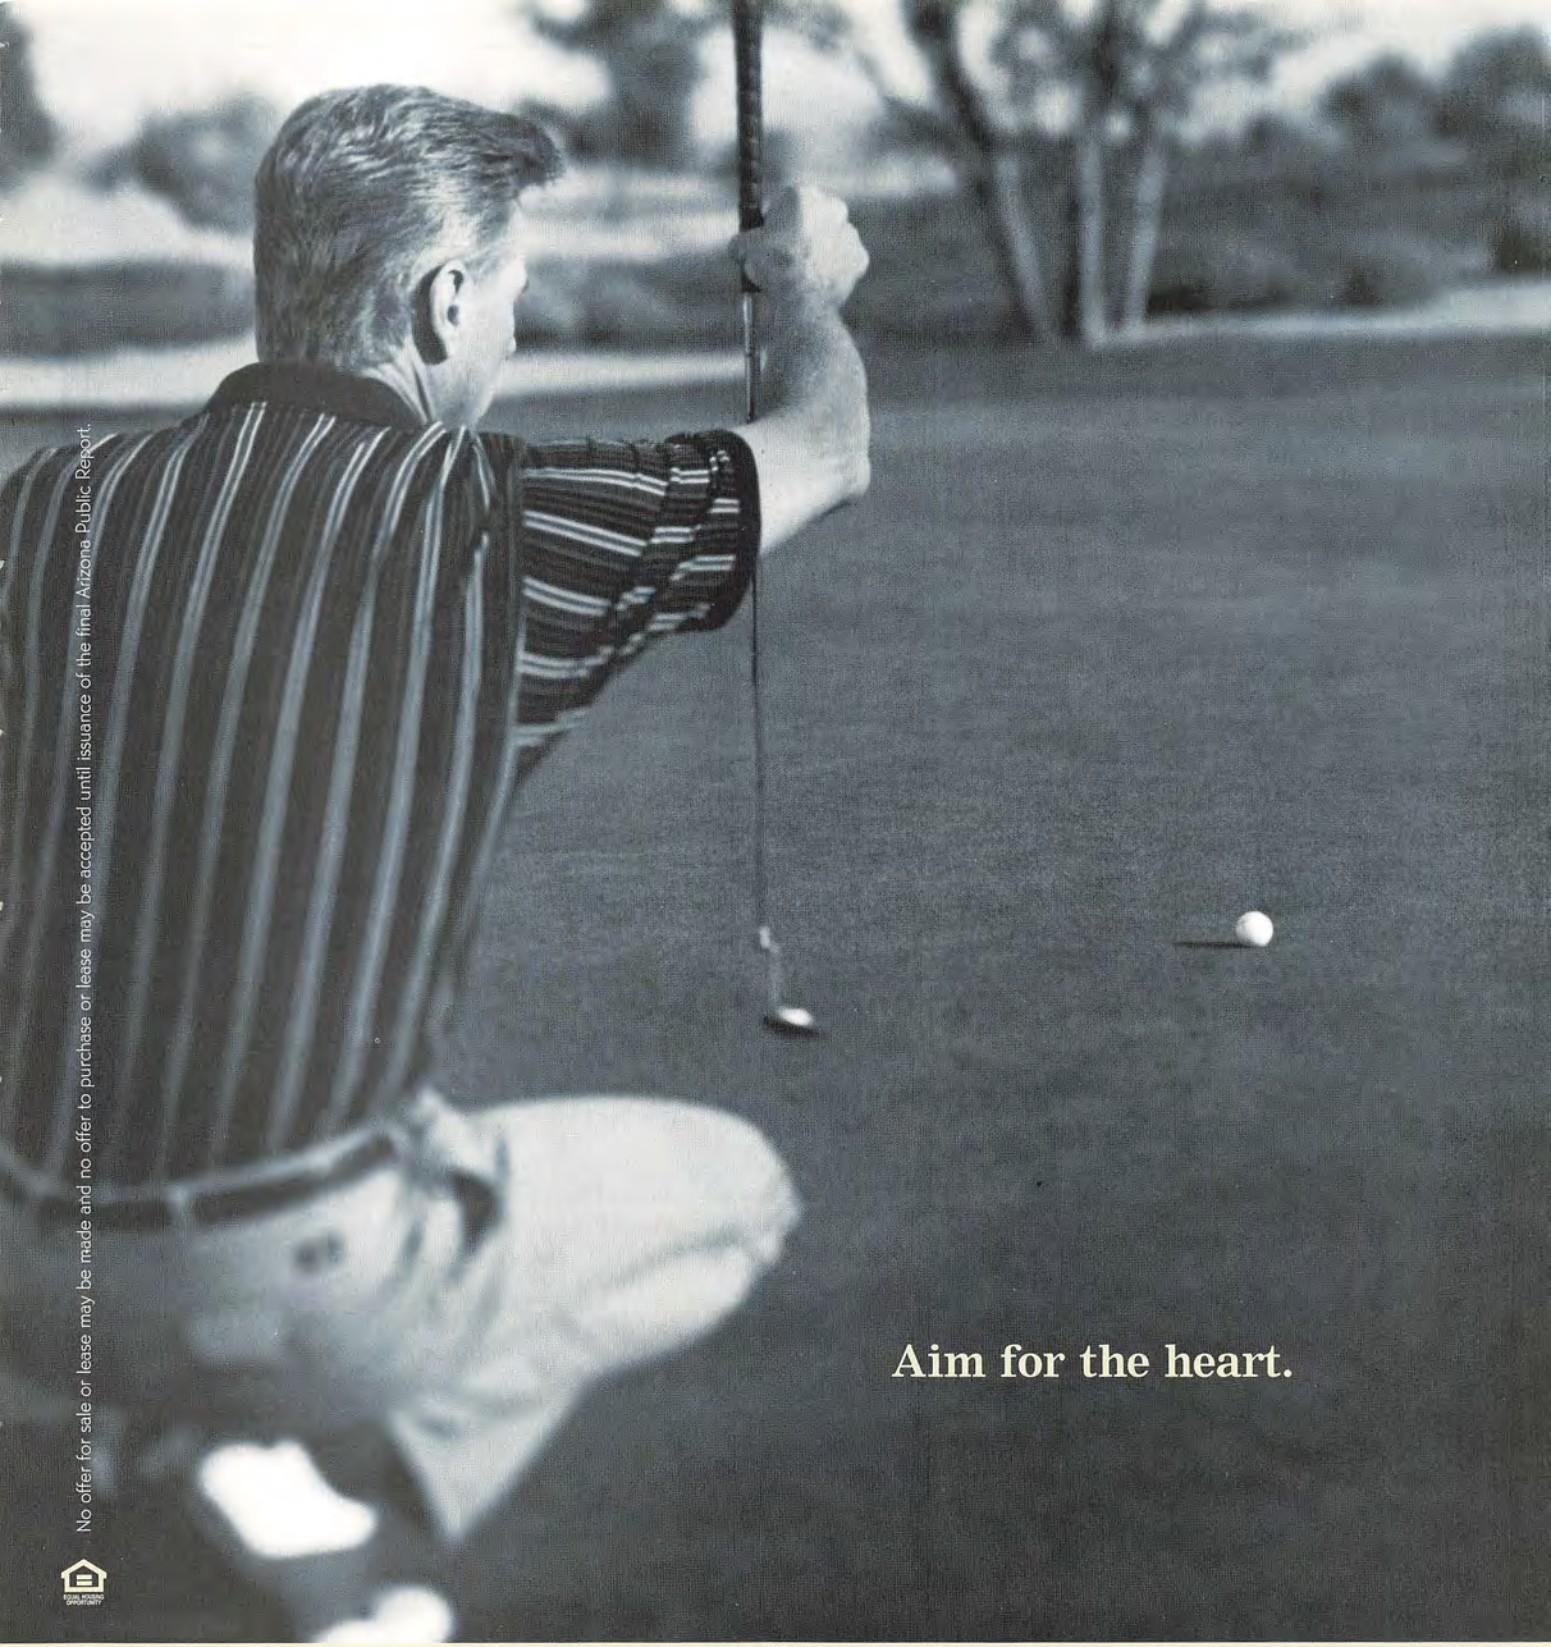

Yet here they are, Rocky Top vs. Rocky Trip.

"It's gratifying as a coach to achieve this after losing so many people, so many players who are on NFL rosters," said Fulmer, a Tennessee guard from 1969 to 1971 who returned home as an assistant in 1980.

Martin needed five weeks to turn Peyton's Place into Tee Time, but since being entrusted with the full playbook, he has blossomed. Martin set three NCAA records in a 49-14 victory at South Carolina on Halloween — consecutive passes completed in a game (23), in a season (24) and one-game completion percentage (.958). His only incompletion came on his last pass attempt of the game. He had a career-high 315 yards and threw for four touchdowns while also rushing for 37 yards. UCLA's Rick Neuheisel had the old record for percentage, when he completed 25 of 27 in 1983.

Martin completed almost two-thirds of his passes over the final seven games, clinching the SEC championship game victory over Mississippi State on December 5 with two touchdown passes in a 28-second span of the fourth quarter. He has thrown 10 touchdowns and only two interceptions during his current hot streak.

Weinke threw six interceptions in a 24-7 loss to North Carolina State, a defeat that appeared to take Florida State out of the national championship picture inasmuch as Tennessee, UCLA and Kansas State rolled on. But two good things came out of that game: First, it happened early, so the Seminoles were able to work their way back up the national ladder as their victories mounted. Second, the offense was simplified to take advantage of Weinke's strengths. Weinke had a streak of 218 pass attempts without an interception and threw for 2,037 yards and 17 touchdowns during that stretch before being injured against Virginia on November 7.

Enter Marcus Outzen, who attended the same Florida high school as former University of Florida Heisman Trophy winner Danny Wuerffel. Outzen, a sophomore, was the holder for placekicks last season and was so underused he considered transferring last spring. Now, he is the starter in a national championship game.

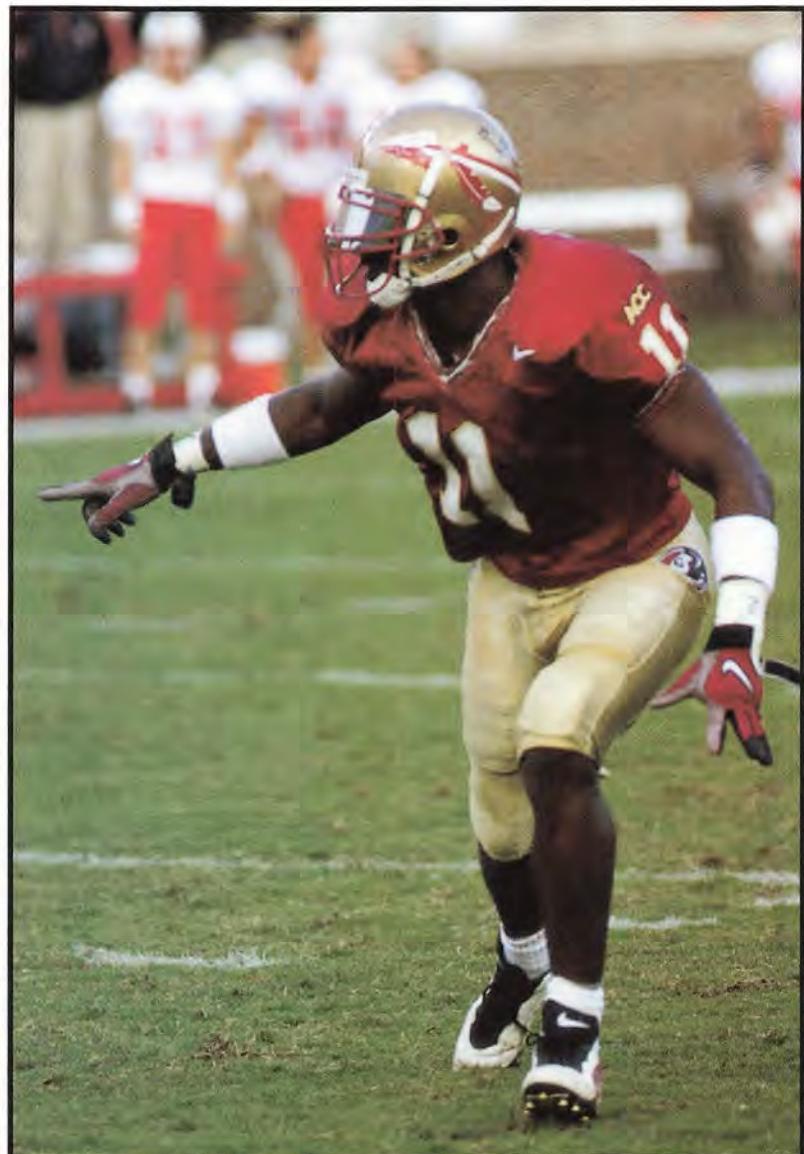

Yet Martin and Outzen do have one important notch on their belts. Each beat Florida in his second college start. Outzen threw for 167 yards and rushed for 61 more as the Seminoles' concluded their 10-game winning streak with a 23-12 victory over the Gators on Nov. 21. "I just take what I can and make the most of it," Outzen said.

Outzen benefits from FSU's usual all-star assemblage — sophomore half-back Travis Minor, junior wide receiver Peter Warrick and a defense that will hit you at all times, even during the pregame coin toss, as Florida discovered after tensions flared up in Tallahassee's Doak Campbell Stadium. Minor has a team-high 857 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, one on a reception. He opened the year with 146 yards rushing against Texas A&M. Warrick's 1,232 receiving yards is the third-best in Florida State season history, and he is on pace to break Ron Sellers' long-time school record.

And then there is that defense. The school that has given us cornerback "Neon" Deion "Prime Time" Sanders and linebacker Marvin "Shade Tree" Jones has given up only 214 yards a game, far and away the best figure in Division I-A. Florida State has not allowed more than 14 points since the North Carolina State loss, holding Miami to 14, Georgia Tech to 7, Virginia to 14 and Florida to 12. Southern California had only 23 yards passing in a Sept. 26 loss, the fewest passing yards permitted by the 'Noles since East Carolina had seven in 1980. Five of 12 opponents have failed to gain even 100 yards through the air.

Nor is Tennessee averse to a good hit. Linebacker Al Wilson, a Butkus Award nominee, was named a first-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America and the American Football Coaches Association, and fellow linebacker Raynoch

Thompson was a consensus All-SEC selection. With Wilson leading the way, Tennessee allowed fewer than 100 rushing yards per game. Eight opponents finished with less than 100, four with less than 60. The Vols completely eliminated the run from Fun 'n' Gun Florida, holding the Gators to -13 yards. And that game went into overtime. Opponents have just five rushing touchdowns.

If the defenses live up to their fancy statistics, the kicking game may be the difference. There is precious little difference between Tennessee's Jeff Hall and Florida State's Sebastian Janikowski, who won the Lou Groza Award after making 27 of 32 field-goal attempts to set school and ACC records for both field goals and kick scoring.

Janikowski, a 6-2, 255-pound sophomore, made five field goals against Maryland and also has driven 47 of his 80 kickoffs into the end zone for touchbacks. Hall, meanwhile, set the school career scoring record this season and has become the No. 6 career kick scorer in Division I-A history. # VOLUNTEER OFFENSE

With the departure of Peyton Manning, Tennessee returned to an offensive philosophy in 1998 more suited to the nature of Coach Phillip Fulmer, an old offensive lineman.

The Vols far and away led the SEC in rushing, averaging 211 yards a game, despite losing All-America candidate Jamal Lewis after four games to injury. Tennessee had a 100-yard rusher in nine of 12 games. Lewis had 497 yards by the time he tore a knee ligament in a 17-9 win at Auburn on Oct. 3. The next week, Travis Stephens, a quick darter, got 107 in a 22-3 win at Georgia, then Travis Henry took over.

A punishing fireplug on wheels, Henry had five 100-yard games, including 197 against Arkansas. The Vols think they have one of the best fullbacks in the nation, even though he doesn't get many touches in UT's system.

Senior Shawn Bryson spends most of his time blocking, but he's one of the fastest players on the team. He had touchdown runs of 57 and 58 yards and won't be caught once he gets through the traffic jam. He's also Tennessee's best receiver out of the backfield. Quarterback Tee Martin is also a factor to be considered in defending the run. He had a net 287 yards rushing, and before sack yardage is deducted, Martin accounted for 483 yards on the ground. Most of it came when he scrambled away from a pass rush. He's always a threat to break containment and set sail. As a passer, Martin made an amazing transformation from an early liability to a confident weapon. Because he got so few snaps as Manning's understudy, the junior from Mobile, Ala., had to grow into his role in the heat of battle. That the Vols opened at Syracuse, played Florida and then had road trips to Auburn and Georgia didn't help. Through the first month, the staff asked Martin to manage the game, avoid turnovers and don't try to be a hero. From the second half of the Georgia game, Martin's passing has been superb. He completed at least 60 percent of his throws in six of the last eight games and was ranked 20th nationally in pass efficiency.

Peerless Price, to no one's surprise, was his favorite target, catching 61 passes. Price has the speed and moves to turn a short pass into a long gainer. Cedrick Wilson and Jerome Copeland combined for 62 more catches. The offensive line finished the season playing as well as any in memory. Spencer Riley's offseason move from guard to center was a success. So was Cosey Coleman's shift inside from right tackle to guard. Jarvis Reado came back from injuries to enjoy a strong season at right tackle. Veterans Chad Clifton and Mercedes Hamilton worked the left side for the second consecutive year. ■

SEMINOLE DEFENSE

TONY BRYANT • DE

With the NFL drafting Andre Wadsworth and Greg Spires, Bryant has stepped in admirably.

LAMONT GREEN • LB

MARIO EDWARDS • CB

Seminole sack leader Tony Bryant got up close and personal with opposing quarterbacks seven times in 1998.

Compliments for public consumption are about as rare as smiles with Florida State defensive coordinator Mickey Andrews, but outside the locker room after the Seminoles' stunning 23-12 throttling of Florida, Andrews was beaming.

"I don't know if we have ever played this good a defensive game," Andrews said, after his team held the Gators to 204 total yards and 64 in the second half.

"You win games, not with game plans, but give them enough that they can go out and play football with their ability, see how hard they can play and see how many plays they can make."

If the Seminoles' season-ending win over Florida was indeed one of the greatest performances in the school's history, then the season-long effort by the defensive unit must also rate among the best all-time.

Overcoming the absence of a bona fide star — the likes of recent All-Americans Andre Wadsworth, Peter Boulware and Reinard Wilson — Andrews has constructed the nation's top-rated defense from a deep collection of athletes.

Deploying 24 different defenders in all 12 games, the Seminoles have simply overwhelmed the opposition. FSU ranks No. 1 nationally in total (214.8 yards per game) and pass efficiency (79.9 rating) defense and No. 2 against the run (79.8 yards per game) and scoring (11.5 points per game). And they did it against a schedule that included eight bowl-bound opponents, including four of the top 15 teams in the final Bowl Championship Series rankings.

"This bunch has accomplished an awful lot," Andrews said. "I think they would be lying if they said they haven't exceeded expectations. To accomplish what they've done and against the schedule they've played is pretty amazing."

No more amazing, perhaps than defensive tackle Corey Simon (16 tackles for losses, 5 sacks) and linebacker Lamont Green (73 tackles) were the Seminoles' lone first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selections.

Depth, specifically in the secondary, accounts for a great deal of FSU's success. Despite the absence of a dominant pass-rusher, the Seminoles' secondary has been nothing short of suffocating.

"If somebody said, 'What's the biggest difference in your defense this year and the year before and the year before?' I think you'd say your secondary is playing better," said FSU Coach Bobby Bowden.

Led by sticky cornerbacks Mario Edwards and Tay Cody, and backed by safeties Dexter Jackson, Sean Key and Derrick Gibson, FSU's pass defense unit has been nearly impenetrable since its week two loss at North Carolina State. In fact, it may just be the best secondary in school history.

Andrews suggested as much at the start of the season, when he welcomed back Edwards (team-leading six interceptions) and Key after one-year suspensions.

"Before that [first] game, he told us, 'Guys, I think this is the best secondary I've ever coached or had at Florida State,'" Edwards said. "That meant a lot for him to say that. Now we look back 12 games into the season and we're the No. 1 secondary in the country; the No. 1 defense in the country."

But the 'Noles aren't only built for stopping the pass. The interior line, led by Simon and fellow defensive tackles Jerry Johnson and Larry Smith, has been pitching shutouts against the run. Defensive end Tony Bryant, who replaced Wadsworth in the starting lineup, leads the team with seven sacks. And linebackers Green, Tommy Polley and Brian Allen may be the swiftest collection yet.

In addition to forcing 32 turnovers — 14 fumbles and 18 interceptions — the Seminoles have been particularly dominant when it matters most, on third down. Opponents have converted just 33-of-173 third-down attempts this season, a paltry 19-percent success, err, failure rate. ■

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

VOLUNTEER DEFENSE

As Coach Phillip Fulmer put it, 1998 was a season when most of the "ifs" worked out. This was especially true on defense.

In August, the coaching staff had all sorts of medical worries. Tackles Billy Ratliff and Ron Green were playing on such fragile knees, they were virtually excused from practice. End Shaun Ellis was recovering from a March car wreck that required hip surgery and threatened to end his career. By December, all three were still standing. Neither Ratliff nor Green started, but both provided invaluable depth that allows defensive coordinator John Chavis to keep fresh linemen on the field. Darwin Walker had a monster year starting at one tackle, notching a team-high six quarterback sacks. Ellis stayed healthy and made one of the biggest plays of the season, returning an interception 90 yards for a touchdown at Auburn. Corey Terry, Jeff Coleman, Fred Weary and freshman Will Overstreet were among the others that played pivotal roles up front in holding opponents to an average of 94 yards a game rushing.

The Vols set every game plan to stop the run first and ended up No. 6 in the nation in that category. Against Auburn, they held four downs from the six-inch line after a fumble. The linebacking corps was superb and could match any in the nation in a footrace. Al Wilson, the senior co-captain, moved from outside to middle backer and was the inspirational leader. Despite missing three games with shoulder and groin injuries, he was third on the team in tackles. Raynoch Thompson was a disruptive force on one side, leading the Vols with "big plays" and big hits. Eric Westmoreland, on the other side, is excellent in pass coverage. As a group, their speed and ability to be physical allow Chavis to change strategy without changing personnel.

The secondary was another big "if" going in. The only returning starter was corner Dwayne Goodrich. Senior Steve Johnson stepped up at the other corner. For the most part, the two were able to handle man-to-man coverage. Sophomore Deon Grant was a big hit at free safety, leading the team with five interceptions. Fred White, another senior journeyman, is tough in run support at strong safety. Tennessee held five opponents under 285 yards, but, more importantly, ranked ninth nationally in scoring defense at 14.4 points per game. The Vols also led the SEC in turnover ratio, thanks in part to a league-best 16 fumble recoveries. The occasional Achilles' heel is getting burned on third-and-long. ■

SEMINOLE OFFENSE

MARCUS OUTZEN • QB

His performance against arch-rival Florida in only his second start silenced skeptics.

JASON WHITAKER • OG

He leads an improving young line which faces its toughest test against the Vols' nasty defense.

PETER WARRICK • WR

The Seminoles' primary receiving threat. Very versatile with a knack for busting loose after the catch.

Once a juggernaut, capable of point-a-minute production, Florida State's 1998 offense looks more like a distant cousin to those that Bobby Bowden brought to Sun Devil Stadium for the 1988 and 1990 Fiesta Bowls.

For the first time in Bowden's 23 seasons in Tallahassee, the Seminoles failed to produce a single 500-yard game. By FSU standards, season averages of 401 yards and 32 points are, well, sub-standard.

And while there are tangible reasons for the Seminoles' modest offensive exploits — a starting quarterback who was third-string eight months ago, playing behind and offensive line without a senior starter — there is an ample supply of playmakers capable of changing the course of a game in a hurry.

At its best, Florida State's offense is like a sharp knife: It cuts so quick and cleanly there's hardly any pain.

Then you bleed to death.

Entering tonight's National Championship showdown, the second-ranked Seminoles (11-1) have carved out 10 consecutive victories by gouging opposing defenses with the big play.

"Our offense this year has been most successful when we have made those big plays," said FSU offensive coordinator Mark Richt. "We haven't been a team to drive the field series after series. Our personality has been to make the big plays and we have the big play people."

Receivers Peter Warrick (61 receptions, 1,232 yards, 12 TDs) and Laveranues Coles have combined to produce 29 of FSU's 41 plays — passing, rushing and returns — covering 30 or more yards. Sixteen of the Seminoles' 43 touchdowns this season have covered more than 30 yards.

None may have been bigger than Warrick's 32-yard touchdown reception and his 46-yard scoring toss to Ron Dugans in FSU's 23-12 season-ending win over Florida. The victory enabled the Seminoles to stay in the hunt for a Fiesta Bowl berth.

While Warrick and Coles provided a certain level of comfort for sophomore quarterback Marcus Outzen, who makes just his third career start tonight against top-ranked Tennessee, they are by no means the only weapons in FSU's arsenal.

Outzen, an effective runner with a competitive edge, became the starting quarterback when Chris Weinke suffered a season-ending neck injury against Virginia on Nov. 7. Up until that point, the strong-armed Weinke was on course to set a number of single-season passing marks.

Outzen, however, has been determined to prove he's capable of handling the job. His performance against Florida's highly-touted defense suggests he's got the moxy to match his abundant confidence.

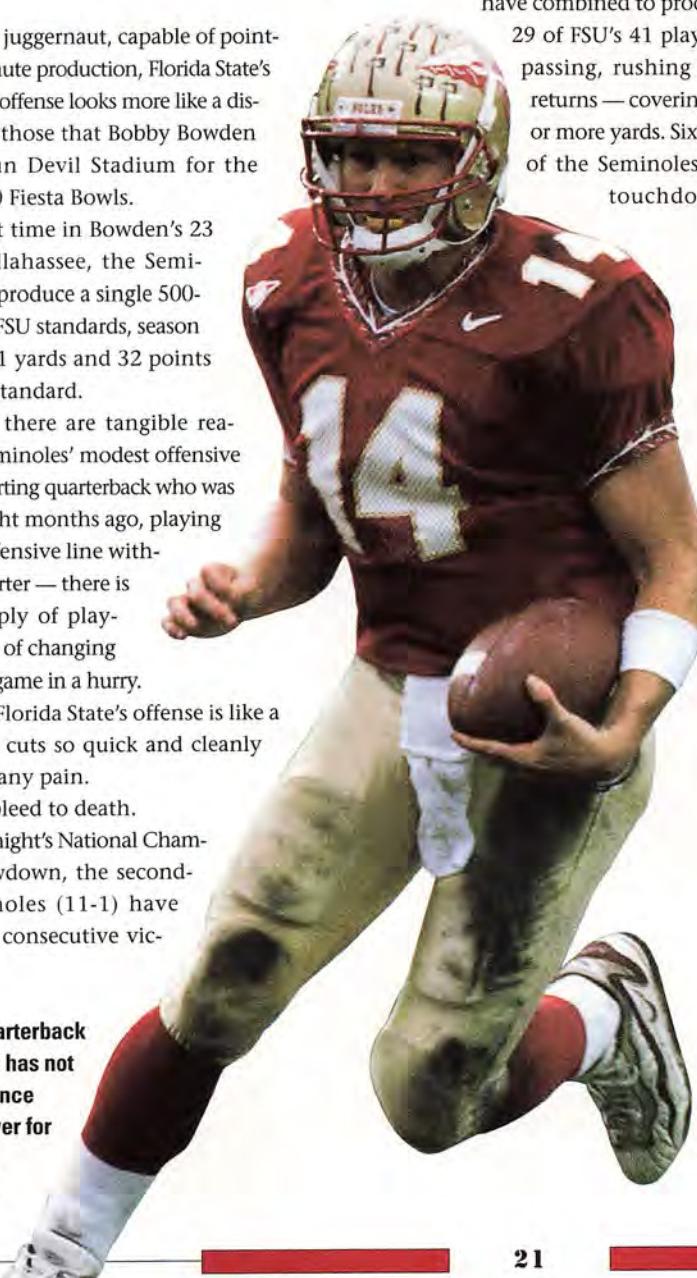

"We've got all the tools," Outzen said. "The only thing different (since Weinke's injury) is me and I feel like I can get the ball to the people."

Sophomore tailback Travis Minor (191 carries, 857 yards, seven TDs), who has a history of playing his best against the best, is one person the 'Noles count on heavily. Five of Minor's six career 100-yard rushing games have come against nationally ranked opponents, including 147 in the season-opener against Texas A&M and 127 in the finale against Florida, both of whom reached Bowl Championship Series games.

The Seminoles' offensive line — despite allowing 38 sacks — has improved steadily throughout the season. Led by junior guard Jason Whitaker and sophomore tackle Ross Brannon, the line has consistently taken control of games in the second half.

To wit: FSU has outscored its opponents 217-45 in second-half play this season. *

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

VOLUNTEER SPECIAL TEAMS

Peerless Price took over kickoff return duties at midseason and made an impact, averaging 27.8 yards per return, including a 100-yarder against Alabama.

If a national championship game boils down to a field-goal attempt, Tennessee is in excellent shape. Senior Jeff Hall is a four-year starter who has tasted last-second pressure more than once. He's the new leading scorer in SEC history, bettering Kevin Butler (1981-84) of Georgia's record. Hall literally won the season-opener at Syracuse with a 27-yard field goal as time expired. His encore wasn't bad — a 41-yard field goal in overtime beat Florida, 20-17. In a key road game at Georgia, Hall's three first-half field goals staked the Vols to a 9-3 lead they eventually expanded into a 22-3 win. His 19 field goals were tops in the SEC this year. One of his five misses bounced off the upright. Hall has been able to frequently boom his kickoffs into the end zone, contributing to a modest 19.4-yard average return for Tennessee's opponents.

The punting game hasn't been as impressive. Sophomore David Leaverton's 38.9 average ranks only seventh in the league. The Vols' net punting figure was a meager 31.9. Leaverton has the leg to change field position, but after his early season mistakes in 1997, this year he seemed to focus on just getting off an adequate kick rather than booming one. Willie Miles, a true freshman defensive back, has been notable on kick coverage.

The return game is a mixed bag. Kickoff returns have improved once Peerless Price took over at midseason. His 100-yard return against Alabama was almost a game-saver. Overall, the Vols averaged a decent 22.9 yards. Price averaged 27.8 once he took over, so that's the figure Florida State has to ponder.

Tennessee never got much going on punt returns. Eric Parker was the best threat but suffered a midseason shoulder injury. Jeremaine Copeland averages only 4.3 yards per run back. ♦

SEMINOLE SPECIAL TEAMS

With apologies to junior wide receiver Peter Warrick, if Florida State coach Bobby Bowden held the decisive vote on the Seminoles' Most Valuable Player, there's a good chance he'd cast his lot on a 255-pound sophomore who average only about 12 plays a game.

On impact alone, kicker Sebastian Janikowski may have made the greatest contributions towards the Seminoles' bid for the 1998 national championship.

"He's probably our most valuable player," Bowden said of Janikowski.

A Lou Groza Award winner whose powerful left leg earned him the moniker — "Polish Powder Keg" — Janikowski packs a punch for the Seminoles' offense and defense.

With nearly 70-percent of Janikowski's blasts unreturned, FSU's top-rated defense can go to work with 80 yards of turf to defend.

"When he kicks it through the end zone we don't have to make a tackle and we don't have to get anybody out of their lanes," said FSU defensive coordinator Mickey Andrews. "He's about as much of a Superman as we can have on the kickoff team."

Janikowski isn't too bad offensively, either. With 123 points this season, he set the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference single-season scoring records. And he did it with great accuracy, connecting on 27 of 32 field goals and 42 of 43 point-after attempts.

Though he holds the FSU record with a 56-yard field goal against Wake Forest last season, Janikowski's range — out to 65 yards or better in practice — remains largely untapped.

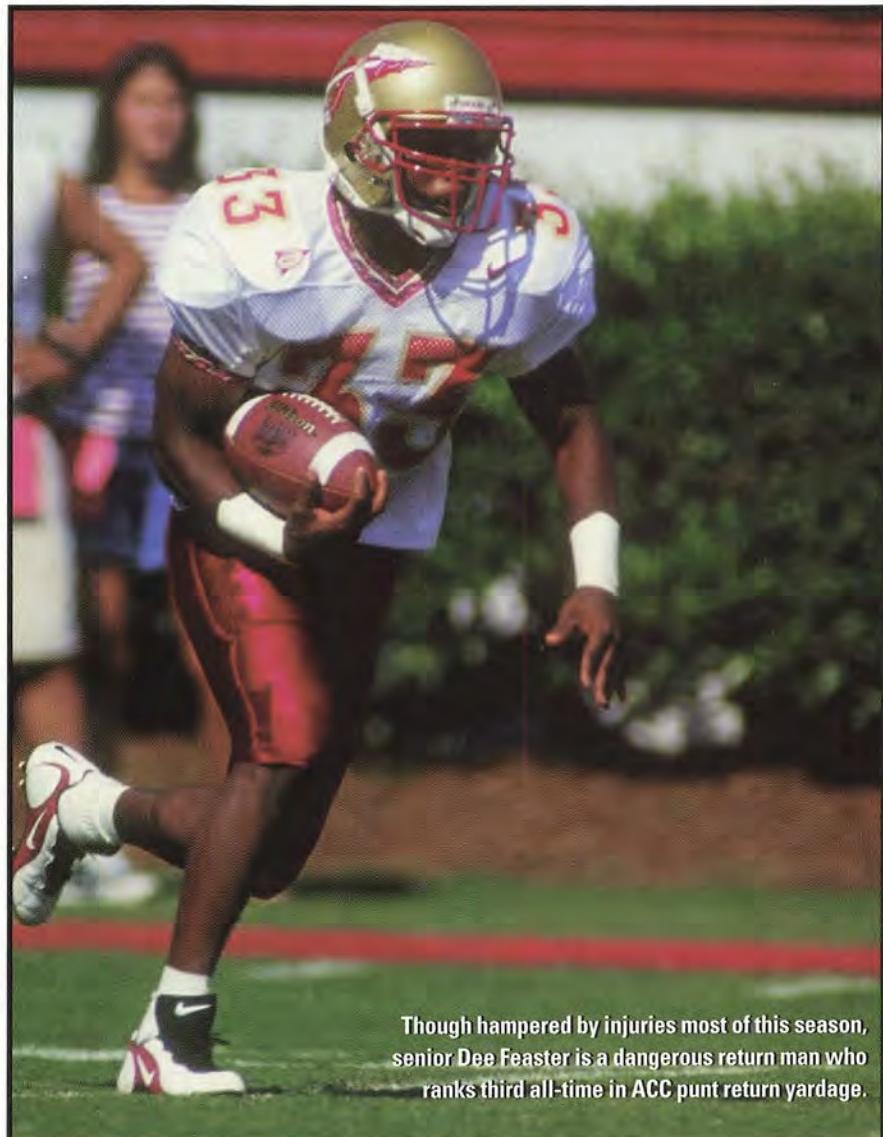

But when it comes to special teams play, the Seminoles have been able to tap into their deep well of speedy athletes for return duty. FSU ranks 15th nationally in kickoff returns (23.5 yards) and 16th in punt returns (12.6).

aging 28.4 yards per kickoff return, with a 97-yarder against Duke to his credit. Peter Warrick (13.9 yards), Reggie Durden (11.2) and Dee Feaster (14.1) are equally adept when it comes to returning punts. Feaster, who has been slowed by injury much of the season, is third all-time in ACC punt return yardage.

FSU also gets its kicks with aggressive block teams, where defensive regulars Dexter Jackson and Brian Allen have helped carry on a long-standing FSU tradition.

Not to be overlooked has been the improved play of sophomore punter Keith Cottrell, whose 41.3 yard average is up nearly three yards over last season.

An often forgotten element of special teams play is the coverage unit, also an area of excellence for the 'Noles. Chris Hope, Todd Frier and Jean Juene are regular head-hunters on the cover teams.

The Seminoles' punt coverage team is yielding just 8.5 yards a return, though it did give up a 68-yard touchdown return to N.C. State's Torry Holt in a 24-7 loss.

HERMAN FRAZIER LEADS FIESTA BOWL IN CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

HERMAN FRAZIER got his first taste of the Fiesta Bowl in 1973. It was on a breezy and cloud evening — December 21, to be exact — that Frazier sold game programs to fans attending the third annual game.

Twenty-five years later, Frazier was named president of the Fiesta Bowl. That is exactly how he lives his life — you begin at the starting blocks and you don't stop until you cross the finish line.

"I never really imagined ever becoming the president of the Fiesta Bowl," Frazier said. "But what made this organization so intriguing was the structure that allowed everyone the opportunity to reach that level."

"I learned early that if you work hard, you can play a key role in all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the Fiesta Bowl. I've never seen another organization like that."

Hard work has always been the key to success for Frazier. A native of Philadelphia, he attended Denison University in Ohio after graduating from high school. After one semester, he transferred to Arizona State University, where he became one of the most prolific track athletes in the school's history.

Three years after selling game programs at the Fiesta Bowl, Frazier put his name in the record books and became a household name at the 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal. He ran the lead leg in the 4x400 relay on the gold medal winning team that recorded the second fastest time in history. He also won a bronze medal in the 400 meters, narrowly missing out on a silver.

Four years later, Frazier was ready for his second Olympiad experience. But then-President Jimmy Carter cancelled the United States' participation in the Olympics because the Games were being held in Moscow, U.S.S.R.

"Now that was tough," Frazier said. "You work so hard, you get mentally prepared and something like that happens that you can't control."

One thing that only Frazier can control is his daily schedule. In addition to his duties as president of the Fiesta Bowl, he serves as a vice president with the United States Olympic Committee, chairman of the Maricopa County Sports Commission, chairman of the Site Selection Committee for the 2007 Pan American Games, and chef de mission for the United States delegation to the Pan American Games to be held in Winnipeg, Canada, in the summer of 1999. All of this is in addition to his "real job" as senior associate athletic director at Arizona State University, where he has held various titles for the past 21 years.

"With all of the accomplishments I've had as an athlete and administrator, to be the president of this prestigious organization, something that I've grown up with, is quite an accomplishment," Frazier said.

Frazier's parents, Nathaniel and Frances, still live in Philadelphia, as do his brother, Irvin, and his sister, Tracey. "My family has also been very instrumental in my career," he said. Frazier lives in Phoenix with Caroline Beal.

"This year has definitely been one of the highlights of my life," Frazier said. "I'd really like to thank Arizona State University, and especially Lattie Coor and Kevin White, for allowing me the opportunity to help so many wonderful organizations."

"The entire Fiesta Bowl experience has been unreal," he said. "The bowl is successful because of the people — the board of directors, the 2,500 volunteers, the capable staff. I'm just very grateful to be a part of something that has meant a lot to me for the past 25 years." ♦

THE 28TH FIESTA PARADE

ON THE MORNING OF JANUARY 2 thousands of people — men, women and children — lined Central Avenue in downtown Phoenix waiting for one of the most spectacular presentations of pageantry that is offered in the Southwest. Around 11 a.m. flags began twirling, bands started to play and floats made their way through an audience of over 400,000 people. It had all the makings of a spectacular parade that has become a gallant tradition in the Valley of the Sun.

A modest beginning characterized the inaugural Fiesta Bowl Parade back in 1972, with a procession of a few leftover balloons from the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. The holiday season tradition in the Southwest reached new heights on Jan. 2 as all the entries saluted "Here's to the Winners" in Arizona's largest single-day spectator event, the 28th Annual MicroAge Fiesta Bowl Parade.

The 1999 version of the parade this past Saturday delighted everyone in attendance. The APS Volunteer Clown Troupe thrilled children of all ages, the march of the Play-it-Again Band had the crowd clapping to the beat, and Spirit, the Fiesta Bowl mascot, brought smiles as he brightened the signature path of the event. Crowd-pleasing entries included the world famous Budweiser Clydesdales, the Southshore Drill Team, 17 spectacular floats, designed by Studio Concepts, Inc., and 20 precision marching bands.

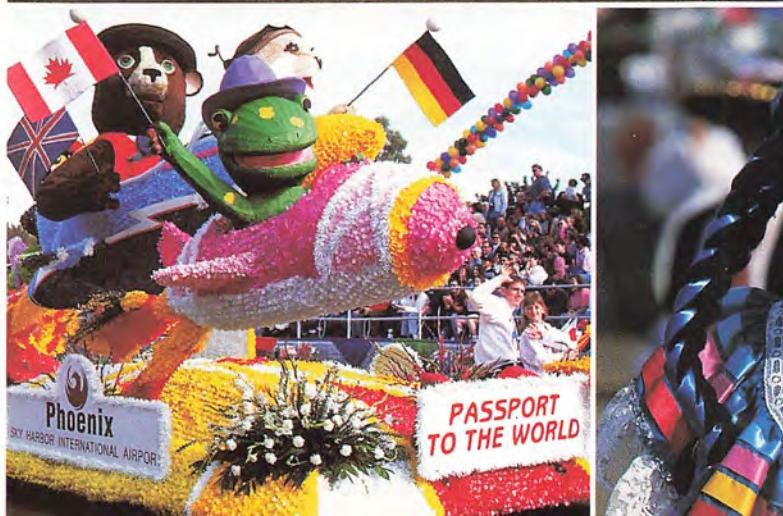

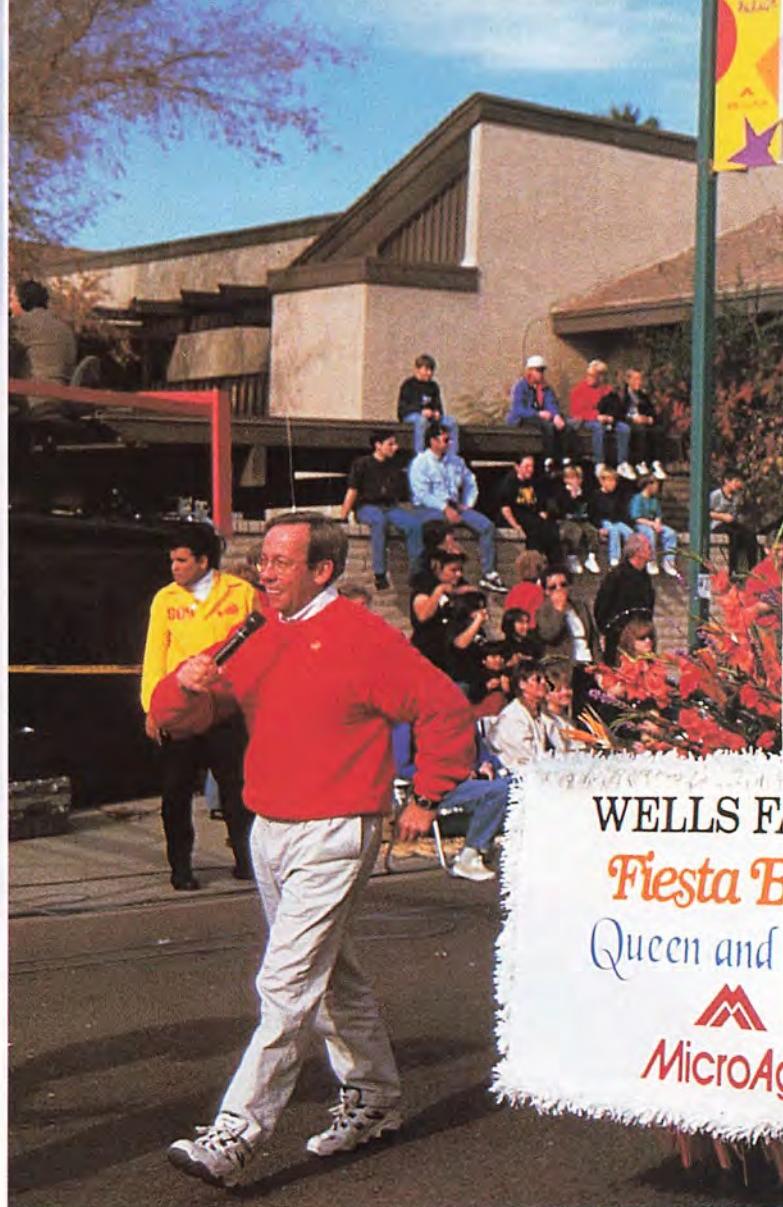

Over 600 volunteers promoted and staged the 28th Annual MicroAge Fiesta Bowl Parade. These dedicated individuals worked round-the-clock to bring this event to the communities of Arizona. As one of only four nationally televised parades, the MicroAge Fiesta Bowl Parade has reached an almost unparalleled level of prestige in little more than a quarter century.

"The most satisfying aspect of the parade is the smiling faces of the children who line the route to watch this special event," Parade Chairman David Watkins said. "The parade has become an annual treasure for families and children to enjoy."

This year's theme, "Here's to the Winners," embodied the spirit of the MicroAge Fiesta Bowl Parade as an event recognizing hard work and dedication the teams participating in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Football Classic endured to participate in college football's first unified national championship game.

An event that has grown into a national exhibition of color and pageantry, the MicroAge Fiesta Bowl Parade, has set its sights on continuing as an Arizona tradition by bringing innovative entries and crowd-pleasing spectacles to the community well into the 21st century. *

SARAH McGRAIN grew up with the Fiesta Bowl — now she will represent the organization as its Queen.

At the annual gala held at The Buttes: A Wyndham Resort, in Tempe, Sarah was crowned the 1998-99 Wells Fargo Fiesta Bowl Queen, becoming the 28th Queen to reign over the Fiesta Bowl calendar of events.

Sarah is a 21-year-old senior at Arizona State University, majoring in justice studies. As a fifth-generation Tempe native, being crowned queen of this year's Fiesta Bowl is even more exciting.

"It is a great honor to serve as Queen and as a representative of the Fiesta Bowl to the nation," said Sarah. "I really don't know how I was chosen over the three other spectacular women who accompany me on the court, but I am honored to serve as their Queen."

Joining Sarah on the 1998-99 court are first runner-up Darcy Winterland and princesses Bridget Kelley and Nicole Severson.

Wells Fargo provides scholarships for the Queen and Court, in addition to Eller Media Company who signed on as Associate Scholarship Sponsor in 1998. JCPenney again provided the wardrobe for the Queen and Court throughout the year.

The Queen and Court were selected from more than 100 applicants through interview sessions that began in March. The field was narrowed down to 40, then 20 and finally four finalists. Judging was based on scholastic achievement, poise, citizenship, community involvement, personality and appearance.

The Queen and her three-member court represented the Fiesta Bowl at many of the Bowl's Festival events, including the MicroAge Fiesta Bowl Parade and tonight's 28th Annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Football Classic. ♦

THE 1998-99 WELLS FARGO FIESTA BOWL QUEEN AND COURT PRESENTED BY JCPENNEY

Sarah McGrain, Queen, 21, is a senior at Arizona State University, studying toward a degree in justice studies. She is active in campus activities such as the Association for Women in Communication and serves as secretary of Devil's Advocates. In her spare time, she participates in the Valley Big Brothers/Big Sisters organization. Sarah is from Tempe.

Darcey Winterland, First Runner-Up, 21, is a senior studying biology at the University of Arizona. She is very involved in campus activities including Alpha Epsilon Delta, a pre-med honorary, the Med Shadow Program and as a Hall Government representative. She is an intern at the Arizona House of Representatives, a second-grade tutor and a Mesa Care Center volunteer. Darcey is from Mesa.

Bridget Kelly, Court Member, 21, is a senior at Northern Arizona University, majoring in advertising with minors in both Spanish and accounting. She is active in her sorority where she has served as philanthropy chairperson and financial vice president. Bridget is from Phoenix.

Nicole Severson, Court Member, 21, is a senior at Arizona State University, majoring in political science. She participates in several organizations, including Devil's Advocates and the Student Alumni Association. She volunteers at the Escalante Community Mentoring program and interned at the American Heart Association. Nicole is from Phoenix.

11TH ANNUAL BANK OF AMERICA Fiesta Bowl Duck Race

PRESENTED BY ABC 15

"Quackin' Along for Another World Record"

FOR MOST PEOPLE, seeing thousands of rubber ducks racing down a canal is about as common as witnessing a winter snow-storm in downtown Phoenix. Such an event would be considered unusual in other parts of the world, but it has become an annual occurrence in the Valley of the Sun.

With a record 80,000 rubber ducks cruising down the Salt River Project canal, the 11th Annual Bank of America Fiesta Bowl Duck Race presented by ABC 15 crushed even its own world record. It was the sixth consecutive year that the Fiesta Bowl Duck Race was the world's largest and most successful.

With more than 100 prizes valued at $100,000, a spirited crowd was on hand at the September 26 event to cheer their ducks to victory. And several of the spectators did not leave empty-handed, especially Carol Kraft of Paradise Valley, who won the grand prize, a 1998 Isuzu Pickup, courtesy of Chapman Isuzu.

Once again, the event benefited the non-profit Scottsdale Prevention Institute and the non-profit Fiesta Bowl. Ducks were adopted for $5 each, while corporate duck adoption packages were also sold. For the first time in the event's history, several Bank of America charities were also beneficiaries of this charitable event.

Ducks were made available to the public by calling the quackin' hotline at 276-DUCK or by stopping by any of the Bank of America branches throughout the state of Arizona.

Arizona Cardinals players Jake Plummer and Pat Tillman kicked off the event by adopting the first two ducks at the Arizona Cardinals practice facility. Plummer and Tillman, who both played for the 1996 Pac-10 champion Arizona State Sun Devils, adopted the ducks after practice before the Cardinals' first game of the season.

Aside from the grand prize Isuzu Pickup, other prizes included a one week vacation in Cabo San Lucas, various vacation packages provided by Delta Airlines, dinners, shopping sprees, certificates, golf outings and tickets to athletic events.

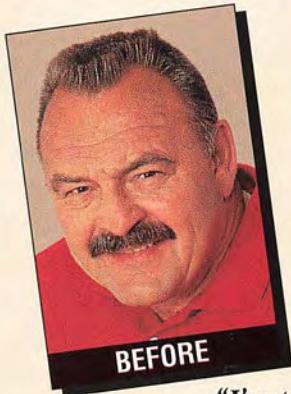

Marc Bailey and Robin Sewell of ABC 15 served as emcees for the event.

The Scottsdale Prevention Institute provides prevention and counseling services for youth in elementary, middle and high schools who are using and abusing chemical substances or who may be at risk. Funds raised from the Duck Race are used toward the continued development, implementation and sponsorship or model programs, involving the entire Phoenix-area community in youth drug and alcohol abuse prevention and intervention.

This year's Top Duck sponsors included the title sponsor Bank of America, presenting sponsor ABC 15 and associate sponsors Fry's Food and Drug Stores, Bill Johnson's Big Apple, AMC Theaters and the Salt River Project. The Fiesta Bowl also thanks grand prize sponsor Chapman Isuzu, major prize sponsor Delta Airlines, and media partners The Tribune, The New Mix 96.9 and KZZP Radio. *

BLUE CROSS AND BLUE SHIELD OF ARIZONA FIESTA BOWL NATIONAL BAND CHAMPIONSHIP

"Competing for the Grand Master's Trophy during primetime at BOB"

THEY ARE SOME of the hardest working, most dedicated high school students in America, and this year they had the opportunity to compete in one of the greatest ballparks in the nation.

On January 1, at 6 p.m., eight of the nation's most talented high school marching bands took to the field at Bank One Ballpark to display their talent, music, and pageantry to an enthusiastic crowd of 10,000 spectators. It was the 21st Annual Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Arizona Fiesta Bowl National Band Championship.

The field show, which has developed into one of the most prestigious high school music events in the nation, features the pageantry corps competing for the coveted Grand Master's Trophy. Each school, armed with everything from trumpets to flags, performed a 10-minute field show.

The competition itself was judged by band directors from across the nation, all of whom have been honored for their involvement with active and competitive marching band programs. Judging criteria are based on musical performance, visual performance and general overall effect.

The high school marching bands performed an intricate field routine in the evening contest and then arrived the next day at the MicroAge Fiesta Bowl Parade to march down Central Avenue in downtown Phoenix. The university bands traveling with the participating teams of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Football Classic are also invited to perform at the band championship.

The idea of staging a national band championship was developed in 1973 by the Fiesta Bowl board of directors. That year, bands from across the nation were asked to perform in the parade and during pregame and halftime festivities at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Football Classic.

As the event grew in popularity, a new version of the championship evolved in 1978. A formal contest would be presented at a local community college where bands would compete for trophies and prizes. The band championship continued to gain national recognition and still maintains this format.

The National Band Championship reached a new level of prominence among national competitors when it was the first to be broadcast to a national audience in 1983.

In its 21 years, the Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Arizona Fiesta Bowl National Band Championship has received an unprecedented amount of national attention and is considered one of the top marching band contests in the United States.

Title sponsor, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Arizona, has been involved with the band championship since 1981. Special thanks to Hometown Buffet and ABC 15. It's the color, pageantry and music that makes this one of the Fiesta Bowl's most exciting events, packed with history and tradition, and honors the future of America for their hard work and dedication. ♦

WELCOME FANS TO GREATER PHOENIX!

Along with taking part in college football's first guaranteed national championship game, we hope you take advantage of the many amenities and rugged beauty that make Greater Phoenix the destination of choice for 12 million travelers annually.

The Phoenix area's evolution into an outstanding place to visit and live mirrors the Fiesta Bowl's meteoric rise to the top.

Greater Phoenix is comprised of two-and-a-half million residents living in 22 incorporated cities — including Phoenix, Tempe, Scottsdale and Mesa — that cover much of the 9,127 square miles of Maricopa County.

Greater Phoenix is known as the world's golf capital with more than 180 courses, as the airline hub of the southwest and as home to more five star/diamond resorts than any other location.

It is also the starting point for day trips to scenic Arizona destinations, including the Grand Canyon and Sedona.

What makes Greater Phoenix so amazing?

Let's start with the weather. The average year-round temperature is a pleasant 72 degrees with more than 300 sunny days each year.

The climate makes outdoor activities a way of life. Biking and hiking on local mountains are popular pastimes, while desert jeep tours and hot-air balloon rides are fantastic ways to experience the surrounding Sonoran Desert.

Outstanding shopping at top area malls and unique boutiques also sets Great Phoenix apart, while great dining and nightlife are abundant throughout the region.

Or, if you prefer, immerse yourself in Native American contributions to the region's rich cultural history by visiting the nationally renowned Heard Museum.

Plus, did you know Splendors of Ancient Egypt — the largest exhibition of ancient Egyptian treasures ever to tour the United States — is on display at The Phoenix Art Museum?

As you can see, there's a great deal to see and do while you're here.

HISTORY OF THE Fiesta Bowl

Valley Business Leaders Help Turn a Dream into Reality

A LONG TIME AGO, the thought of a bowl game and festival of events in Arizona was simply a crazy idea. Could it ever get started? Could it be successful? Would anyone care?

More than 30 years later, the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl will host the first unified national championship game in college football history on January 4, 1999, between No. 1 Tennessee and No. 2 Florida State. The Fiesta Bowl Festival consists of 51-year-round spectator and participatory events. And more than 2,500 volunteers dedicate their time and effort to making the Fiesta Bowl "America's No. 1 Bowl Game."

It was just a dream that has become a reality.

It all started in 1968, when former Arizona State University President G. Homer Durham spoke to an athletic awards banquet and proposed that Phoenix have a football bowl game.

The idea could have died right there, as it had already come to naught several times in the past. But Arizona Republic sports editor Verne Boatner wrote a column supporting the idea, and several Valley of the Sun businessmen banded together to bring a bowl game to Phoenix.

Getting a bowl game anywhere is a long shot. Countless contingents from cities all over the country had paraded before the NCAA's Extra Events Committee, lavish presentations in hand, only to be told, "No, the NCAA doesn't need another bowl game."

And in December 1969, a bowl game for Phoenix was merely an idea, not at all a well thought out plan to place before the NCAA.

But then things started to roll. Prominent Valley sports enthusiast Glenn Hawkins called a meeting of the area's top community leaders, who ultimately put together the package that was to become one of the most phenomenal stories in bowl history.

"There was a lot of interest," Boatner said at the time. "A lot more than I thought there would be. I didn't believe that so many influential people could be brought together in one place."

Jack Stewart, one of the driving forces for bringing the game to Phoenix, was elected to head the effort. He and the original members of the Executive Committee — Hawkins, George Isbell, Jim Meyer, Donald D. Meyers, Karl Eller, Bill Shover and George Taylor, later to be joined by Don Dupont — put together the successful plan that would get an NCAA sanction for the game.

Key to the Fiesta effort was to win over the Western Athletic Conference for a tie-up. Then WAC Commissioner Wiles Hallock provided the direction to achieve that — his immediate past position had been that of director of public relations at the NCAA's headquarters in Kansas City.

With Hallock along, the Phoenix group appeared before the NCAA Extra Events Committee on January 10, 1970, in Washington, D.C. It was at that time that the group proposed making the bowl a charitable venture, with portions of the proceeds committed to the fight against drug abuse. This was to be a key point for the Fiesta Bowl. The NCAA had granted only one new bowl during the 1960s — Atlanta's Peach Bowl, also a charity game.

The Fiesta's effort, however, was thorough. Then Washington State director of athletics and chairman of the NCAA Extra Events Committee Stan Bates said that he never had seen a group as well prepared. A few months later, Bates would become commissioner of the Western Athletic Conference after Hallock moved to the Pacific-8 Conference.

The group stressed vital points in its presentation. They told the NCAA that the Rose Bowl was the only bowl game outside of the South and that Arizona had the population and the climate, the game would be played for a worthy cause and they hastened to add that good WAC teams had been overlooked for bowl appearances in the past.

"Your presentation was so well received that I can think of no important questions to ask," Bates said afterwards.

But victory was not immediate. On April 27, 1970, the NCAA Council, the official policy-making body of the organization, rejected six bowl bids, including one for the Valley of the Sun.

The group could have taken the defeat and moved on in their lives. Instead, they kept fighting. A year later, on April 26, 1971, the NCAA Council approved a bowl game in Arizona, and the Fiesta Bowl was born.

Now, after more than 30 years after the idea was conceived, the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl will host the fourth national championship game in its young history.

JUNE 10, 1971

A contest is co-sponsored by the Arizona Sports Foundation and the Arizona Republic to "Name the Bowl Game." More than 6,500 entries are received, and 73 of the entries choose the name Fiesta. In a blind drawing of the 73 winning entries, Gary Keltner is the lucky winner and walks away with four lifetime tickets to the Fiesta Bowl Football Classic.

DEC. 21, 1971

The First Annual Fiesta Bowl Ice Cream Eating Contest is held at Diamond's Department Store at the Thomas Mall. A team of five girls defeats a team of five boys who each had to eat a bowl of ice cream that consisted of vanilla, raspberry sherbert, almonds and chocolate sprinkles.

DEC. 26, 1971

Arizona State University student Patricia Fierro is crowned the first Fiesta Bowl Queen at an event held in conjunction with the Martha Mitchell Fashion Fiesta and Goldwaters' Style Show at the Mountain Shadows Hotel in Scottsdale.

DEC. 27, 1971

The first Fiesta Bowl Marathon is held and attracts 127 runners. The winners of the race are introduced at halftime during the First Annual Fiesta Bowl Football Classic.

DEC. 27, 1971

The years of hard work finally pay off when Arizona State plays Florida State in the inaugural Fiesta Bowl game. The Sun Devils win a 45-38 shootout over the Seminoles in front of 51,098 fans. A record $168,237 is paid to each team which, at that time, was the highest payout ever for a first-year bowl game.

DEC. 16, 1972

The inaugural Fiesta Bowl Parade is held and begins an era for the Fiesta Bowl that shows a tremendous growth in pageantry-oriented events. The first Parade features 45 balloon-type entries, including a four-story Santa Claus, that are guided down the route by more than 300 Boy Scouts in front of 25,000 street spectators.

DEC. 27, 1973

The Fiesta Bowl begins a National Junior Tennis Tournament that has featured some of the game's best, including Tracy Austin, Michael Chang and Andre Agassi.

as Oklahoma State grinds out a 16-6 victory over Brigham Young. CBS covered Fiesta Bowl games from 1974 through 1977 and returned to televise the Fiesta Bowl during the Bowl Alliance from 1996 through 1998.

DEC. 28, 1975

Arizona State and Nebraska, with respective records of 11-0 and 10-1, combine for the best overall regular-season record of any non-New Year's Day game. The Sun Devils hang on for a thrilling 17-14 victory, and finish second in the final national polls. Many believe this is the game that put the Fiesta Bowl on the map.

DEC. 17, 1977

The Fiesta Bowl Parade is syndicated for television coverage on a national basis, with an estimated viewing audience of 1.2 million people. Syndicated coverage of the parade grows steadily from this point, with Broadcast Communications Inc., of Indianapolis, signing on for a three-year contract.

FEB. 19, 1978

A Tucson Fiesta Bowl Committee is established to help promote the Phoenix-based Fiesta Bowl on a statewide basis.

APRIL 24, 1978

NBC wins the rights to televise the Fiesta Bowl and begins a long relationship that lasts from 1978 through 1995.

DEC. 17, 1978

The Fiesta Bowl National Pageant of Bands is born and features 31 bands in the inaugural event — 16 from Arizona and 15 out-of-state hopefuls. All 31 bands march in the Fiesta Bowl Parade and compete in a field competition at Scottsdale Municipal Stadium.

If you think losing
think again.

Introducing the first and only pill clinically proven to treat hair loss in men.

PROPECIA is a medical breakthrough – the first pill that effectively treats male pattern hair loss on the vertex (at top of head) and anterior mid-scalp area.

By all measures, the clinical results of PROPECIA in men are impressive:*

- 83% maintained their hair based on hair count (vs. 28% with placebo).
- 66% had visible regrowth as rated by independent dermatologists (vs. 7% with placebo).
- 80% were rated as improved by clinical doctors (vs. 47% with placebo).
- Most men reported an increase in the amount of hair, a decrease in hair loss, and improvement in appearance.

*Based on vertex studies at 24 months of men 18 to 41 with mild to moderate hair loss.

Scientists have recently discovered that men with male pattern hair loss have an increased level of DHT in their scalps. PROPECIA blocks the formation of DHT and, in this way, appears to interrupt a key factor in the development of inherited male pattern hair loss in men. Importantly, PROPECIA helps grow natural hair – not just peach fuzz – and is as convenient to take as a vitamin: one pill a day.

Only a doctor can determine if PROPECIA is right for you. PROPECIA is for men only. Further, women who are or may potentially be pregnant must not use PROPECIA and should not handle crushed or broken tablets because of the risk of a specific kind of birth defect. (See accompanying Patient Information for details.) PROPECIA tablets are coated and will prevent contact with the active ingredient during normal handling.

You may need to take PROPECIA daily for three months or more to see visible results. PROPECIA may not regrow all your hair. And if you stop using this product, you will gradually lose the hair you have gained. There is not sufficient evidence that PROPECIA works for recession at the temporal areas. If you haven't seen results after 12 months of using PROPECIA, further treatment is unlikely to be of benefit.

Like all prescription products, PROPECIA may cause side effects. A very small number of men experienced certain side effects, such as: less desire for sex, difficulty in achieving an erection, and a decrease in the amount of semen. Each of these side effects occurred in less than 2% of men. These side effects were reversible and went away in men who stopped taking PROPECIA. They also disappeared in most men (58%) who continued taking PROPECIA.

So start talking to your doctor. And stop thinking further hair loss is inevitable.

Patient Information about PROPECIA®

(Pro-pee-sha)

Generic name: finasteride
(fin-AS-tur-eyed)

PROPECIA** is for use by MEN ONLY.

Please read this leaflet before you start taking PROPECIA. Also, read the information included with PROPECIA each time you renew your prescription, just in case anything has changed. Remember, this leaflet does not take the place of careful discussions with your doctor. You and your doctor should discuss PROPECIA when you start taking your medication and at regular checkups.

What is PROPECIA used for?

PROPECIA is used for the treatment of male pattern hair loss on the vertex and the anterior mid-scalp area.

PROPECIA is for use by MEN ONLY and should NOT be used by women or children.

What is male pattern hair loss?

Male pattern hair loss is a common condition in which men experience thinning of the hair on the scalp. Often, this results in a receding hairline and/or balding on the top of the head. These changes typically begin gradually in men in their 20s.

Doctors believe male pattern hair loss is due to heredity and is dependent on hormonal effects. Doctors refer to this type of hair loss as androgenetic alopecia.

Results of clinical studies:

For 12 months, doctors studied over 1800 men aged 18 to 41 with mild to moderate amounts of ongoing hair loss. All men, whether receiving PROPECIA or placebo (a pill containing no medication) were given a medicated shampoo (Neutrogena T/Gel**** Shampoo). Of these men, approximately 1200 with hair loss at the top of the head were studied for an additional 12 months. In general, men who took PROPECIA maintained or increased the number of visible scalp hairs and noticed improvement in their hair in the first year, with the effect maintained in the second year. Hair counts in men who did not take PROPECIA continued to decrease.

In one study, patients were questioned on the growth of body hair. PROPECIA did not appear to affect hair in places other than the scalp.

Will PROPECIA work for me?

For most men, PROPECIA increases the number of scalp hairs, helping to fill in thin or balding areas of the scalp. Men taking PROPECIA noted a slowing of hair loss during two years of use. Although results will vary, generally you will not be able to grow back all of the hair you have lost. There is not sufficient evidence that PROPECIA works in the treatment of receding hairline in the temporal area on both sides of the head.

Male pattern hair loss occurs gradually over time. On average, healthy hair grows only about half an inch each month. Therefore, it will take time to see any effect.

You may need to take PROPECIA daily for three months or more before you see a benefit from taking PROPECIA. PROPECIA can only work over the long term if you continue taking it. If the drug has not worked for you in twelve months, further treatment is unlikely to be of benefit. If you stop taking PROPECIA, you will likely lose the hair you have gained within 12 months of stopping treatment. You should discuss this with your doctor.

How should I take PROPECIA?

Follow your doctor's instructions.

- Take one tablet by mouth each day.
- You may take PROPECIA with or without food.
- If you forget to take PROPECIA, do not take an extra tablet. Just take the next tablet as usual.

PROPECIA will not work faster or better if you take it more than once a day.

Who should NOT take PROPECIA?

- PROPECIA is for the treatment of male pattern hair loss in MEN ONLY and should not be taken by women or children.
- Anyone allergic to any of the ingredients.

A warning about PROPECIA and pregnancy.

- Women who are or may potentially be pregnant:
  - must not use PROPECIA
  - should not handle crushed or broken tablets of PROPECIA.

If a woman who is pregnant with a male baby absorbs the active ingredient in PROPECIA, either by swallowing or through the skin, it may cause abnormalities of a male baby's sex organs. If a woman who is pregnant comes into contact with the active ingredient in PROPECIA, a doctor should be consulted. PROPECIA tablets are coated and will prevent contact with the active ingredient during normal handling, provided that the tablets are not broken or crushed.

What are the possible side effects of PROPECIA?

Like all prescription products, PROPECIA may cause side effects. In clinical studies, side effects from PROPECIA were uncommon and did not affect most men. A small number of men experienced certain sexual side effects. These men reported one or more of the following: less desire for sex; difficulty in achieving an erection; and, a decrease in the amount of semen. Each of these side effects occurred in less than 2% of men. These side effects went away in men who stopped taking PROPECIA. They also disappeared in most men who continued taking PROPECIA.

The active ingredient in PROPECIA is also used by older men at a five-times higher dose to treat enlargement of the prostate. Some of these men reported other side effects, including problems with ejaculation, breast swelling and/or tenderness and allergic reactions such as lip swelling and rash. In clinical studies with PROPECIA, these side effects occurred as often in men taking placebo as in those taking PROPECIA.

Tell your doctor promptly about these or any other unusual effects.

- PROPECIA can affect a blood test called PSA (Prostate-Specific Antigen) for the screening of prostate cancer. If you have a PSA test done, you should tell your doctor that you are taking PROPECIA.

Storage and handling.

Keep PROPECIA in the original container and keep the container closed. Store it in a dry place at room temperature. PROPECIA tablets are coated and will prevent contact with the active ingredient during normal handling, provided that the tablets are not broken or crushed.

Do not give your PROPECIA tablets to anyone else. It has been prescribed only for you. Keep PROPECIA and all medications out of the reach of children.

THIS LEAFLET PROVIDES A SUMMARY OF INFORMATION ABOUT PROPECIA. IF AFTER READING THIS LEAFLET YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS OR ARE NOT SURE ABOUT ANYTHING, ASK YOUR DOCTOR.

Fiesta Bowl Volunteers

ON BEHALF OF THE VOLUNTEER Fiesta Bowl Committee, welcome! The committee and the volunteers have dedicated themselves to ensuring that you have a terrific experience at this historic event. As you are aware, this is the first-ever, unified national championship game in the history of college football, and we have endeavored to make every aspect of this game — and the experience surrounding the game — outstanding.

As chairman of the committee, I would like to brag about the members of the committee and their efforts in fundraising and volunteer leadership. I would also be remiss to not brag about all the hundreds and thousands of volunteers who work so tirelessly to stage the best events and provide the most gracious hospitality. We collectively do our best with the singular goal of ensuring that you have a wonderful time at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

I have been fortunate to lead our campaign in this national championship year. But we are not an overnight success. Our heritage comes from over 28 years of commitment from sponsors and volunteers alike. We have the most broad-based support of any community event in the country and certainly any Bowl game. We are proud and privileged to count among our ranks volunteers from corporate America to the Boy Scouts of America; from high school band students to world-renowned rock stars; from Fiesta Futures to Life Members of the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors. Our "community of volunteers" makes the difference at the Fiesta Bowl. We have put forth the best in time and resources to host the national championship Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Football Classic and festival events. ♦

ORANGE CRUSHED

TENNESSEE SPORTS INFORMATION

JEFF HALL knocked home a 27-yard field goal at the buzzer to give Tennessee a 34-33 victory over Syracuse in the season opener for both teams. The Vols led 24-13 after three quarters, but saw the Orangemen, directed by the mercurial and highly touted Donovan McNabb, go ahead 33-31 with 2:28 left. Tee Martin led the Vols down the field to the winning score. Jamal Lewis rushed 20 times for 140 yards and one touchdown, while Peerless Price caught six passes for 87 yards and two scores.

On defense, Al Wilson had 13 hits, a caused fumble, a sack and a tackle for loss, while Raynoch Thompson was in on 11 hits. Corey Terry added seven hits including two sacks. Jeff Coleman and Fred White recovered fumbles, bobbles were caused by Darwin Walker and Steve Johnson. ■

GAME NOTES

- The game-winning kick by Hall was the second of his career, the first coming in the 1995 Georgia game.
- Hall moved to No. 3 on the all-time Tennessee scoring list with his 10 points on the day. He moved past Gene McEver (1928-31, 276) with 277.
- The game was one of two the Vols will play on artificial turf this season, the other being the regular season finale at Vanderbilt.
- The Vols played two true freshman in the game: DT Will Overstreet and LB Bernard Jackson. Transfers Judd Granzow (sophomore DE) and Roger Alexander (junior DE) also saw action.
- Tennessee is now 5-1 indoors and 34-6-1 against non-SEC foes since 1989.
- Lewis' 140-yard performance was the eighth of his career in 10 starts.
- The Vols are 6-4-1 in their last 11 road openers.
- The Vols were 7-0 when scoring first in 1997 and are 55-7-2 in the 1990s.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 10/10, SU 17/14.

GAME TWO SEPTEMBER 19, 1998
TENNESSEE 20 FLORIDA 17

IN ONE OF THE

most dramatic finishes of this relatively recent series between the Vols and Gators, Jeff Hall kicked a 41-yard field goal on the first possession of overtime and the Vols won when Florida misfired on a 32-yarder.

Tennessee trailed 3-0 early, but Shawn Bryson scored on a 57-yard run in the first quarter, Hall kicked a 39-yard field goal in the second quarter and Peerless Price caught a 29-yard TD pass from Tee Martin as the Vols never trailed again. A UT record crowd saw the contest, which resulted in the first Vol win over the Gators since 1992.

Al Wilson, named SEC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts, had nine hits and three assists, a tackle for loss, a broken-up pass, a sack and caused a school-record three fumbles. Teammate Raynoch Thompson had eight hits and three assists, a tackle for loss and recovered two fumbles.

GAME NOTES

- The win set off a wild celebration that saw Shields-Watkins Field bathed in Orange and White for at least an hour after the game.
- It was the first overtime game for either the Vols or Gators, and a first at Neyland Stadium.
- Deon Grant had a key fourth-quarter interception.
- The Vols held the Gators to (-13) yards rushing. It was the second consecutive game against an SEC foe in which the Vols allowed minus-yards rushing.
- Tee Martin had a 14-yard run on third-and-23 from the 38 to get Hall into position for the game-winner.
- The Vol defense had five sacks.
- Bryson's run was a career long.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 6/6, UF 2/2.

The Vol defense recorded five sacks en route to pulling off UT's second last-second victory in two games.

GAME THREE SEPTEMBER 26, 1998
TENNESSEE 42 HOUSTON 7

HOUSTON, WE HAVE A PROBLEM

TEE MARTIN threw four touchdown passes and Jamal Lewis had a 59-yard TD run as the Vols took the measure of the visiting Cougars in the first game between the schools since 1965, only the third overall.

Martin's TD passes went to Cedrick Wilson, Lewis, Shawn Bryson and Peerless Price. Rookie quarterback Burney Veazey found fellow rookie tight end John Finlayson for a fourth quarter score.

The Vols had 334 yards rushing, led by Lewis' 135, and added 255 passing. Martin completed 14 of 19 for 234 yards on the night.

Eric Westmoreland, Raynoch Thompson, Chris Ramseur and Deon Grant were each in on seven tackles. The Vols had eight tackles for loss and three sacks. ■

Shawn Bryson's career-long 63-yard touchdown gave the Vols a four-score advantage to put away the Cougars.

GAME NOTES

- It was Lewis' ninth 100-yard rushing game of his career and his third receiving TD.
- Martin's four TD passes were a career high.
- Veazey's TD pass and Finlayson's TD catch were the first for both as Vols.
- Jeremaine Copeland became the 11th Vol to pass the 1000-yard receiving mark, with two catches for 33 yards.
- Tennessee's first three scoring drives each exceeded 70 yards.
- Thompson (-10), Roger Alexander (-2) and Darwin Walker (-5) each had sacks.
- Ramseur and Corey Terry had two tackles for loss (-3 each) and were joined by Al Wilson (-1), Thompson (-1), Grant (-2) and Shaun Ellis (-9).
- Judd Granzow and Terry each caused a fumble.
- The Vols are now 2-1 against Houston, losing in 1953 and winning tonight and in 1965.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 4/4, UH NR/NR.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

GAME FOUR OCTOBER 3, 1998
TENNESSEE 17 AUBURN 9

EARLY BLITZ CRITICAL

TENNESSEE scored 17 points in the first quarter on big plays from defensive end Shaun Ellis and running back Jamal Lewis and turned things over to the defense from that point on to take a 17-9 win on the Plains at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

That was the good news. The bad news was that Lewis was lost for the season after a fourth-quarter knee injury.

Ellis, named SEC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts, grabbed an errant pitch and rambled 90 yards for the game's first score on the game's first series, and Lewis ran 67 yards for another score on his first carry of the day.

Jeff Hall added a 46-yard field goal. Vol defenders stopped Auburn four times inside the 1-yardline in the second quarter at a critical juncture in the game, led by a key fourth-down stop by Raynoch Thompson. Auburn could muster but three field goals against a Vol defense that repulsed all tries for TDs, including one on the last play of the game. ■

A fourth-down stop by linebacker Raynoch Thompson turned away the Tigers as the Vols made 17 first-quarter points stand.

GAME NOTES

- Ellis' run for a score for the Vols was the first since Dwayne Goodrich did likewise Oct. 4, 1997, against Ole Miss.
- Eric Westmoreland added an interception.
- The Vols' 17-point blitz came in 12:09 of the first quarter.
- Jeremaine Copeland caught two passes for 55 yards, including a 29-yarder.
- Ron Green (-10) and DeAngelo Lloyd (-6) had sacks.
- The Vols had seven lost-yardage tackles, led by Deon Grant (2, -6) and Thompson (2, -5). Other Vols with lost yardage tackles were Darwin Walker (-3), Ellis (-1) and Steve Johnson (-2).
- Derrick Edmonds found a fumble and Westmoreland caused a fumble.
- It was the Vols' first appearance at Jordan-Hare since 1990 and first win since a 42-0 verdict in 1980.
- Al Wilson missed the game with a shoulder injury.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 3/3, AU NR/NR.

GAME FIVE OCTOBER 10, 1998
TENNESSEE 22 GEORGIA 3

ROOKIE RUNNERS EMERGE

TEE MARTIN threw touch-down passes to Cedrick Wilson and Peerless Price, sophomore tailback Travis Stephens rushed 20 times for 107 yards and the Vol defense continued its strong play by forcing four Georgia turnovers as the Vols dominated the proceedings on both sides of the line of scrimmage to take a 22-3 victory in the mid-October battle of SEC unbeatens. The other tailback Travis, fellow sophomore Travis Henry, added 53 yards on 10 carries.

Martin's TD tosses each covered three yards and highlighted a 13-point third quarter that saw the Vols stretch a 9-3 halftime lead to the eventual 22-3 margin. Jeff Hall kicked three field goals to give the Vols their first half scores.

Deon Grant was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week, with a performance which included six tackles, an interception, a recovered fumble and a pass broken up. Derrick Edmonds, filling in for the injured Fred White, had eight tackles and an interception. Al Wilson had six tackles, a tackle for loss and a sack. ■

- Tennessee is now 16-10-2 against Georgia, 8-5-1 at Athens.
- Price's TD was his fifth of the season and 14th of his career.
- T. Martin had a 30-yard run before his TD toss to C. Wilson.
- Hall became the ninth player in SEC history to pass 300 career points.
- Stephens' 107 yards rushing were a career high.
- Corey Terry (-6) and Darwin Walker (-7) had sacks. Walker's led to an intentional grounding penalty.
- Shaun Ellis (-5) had a lost yardage tackle.
- Dwayne Goodrich and Derrick Edmonds had interceptions.
- Ellis had two tipped passes.
- The 9-3 halftime score was the same as the last Vol appearance in Sanford Stadium in 1996.
- Tennessee's third field goal of the first half, 43 yards by Hall, came seven seconds before the half after starting at the Vol 34 with 1:31 left.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 4/5, UG 7/7.

Deon Grant's defensive performance helped keep the Dawgs out of the end zone, while earning him SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

GAME SIX OCTOBER 24, 1998
TENNESSEE 35 ALABAMA 18

ROLL(OVER) TIDE

TEE MARTIN and Travis Henry each scored twice on short runs and Peerless Price had a 100-yard kickoff return to pace the Vols to a 35-18 victory over Alabama before the third-largest crowd in Neyland Stadium history.

The Vols took the opening kickoff of the game in for a score, with T. Martin scoring on a one-yard run. T. Martin added a five-yard run to give the Vols a 14-3 halftime lead. Price's TD run came after Alabama had cut the Vol lead to 14-11 in the third quarter. Henry, who gained 113 yards on 22 carries, scored twice on short runs in the fourth quarter.

Raynoch Thompson led the way for the Vols defensively with 11 tackles and two assists. Al Wilson added six tackles and two assists. Defensive end DeAngelo Lloyd had five tackles, with two for lost yardage and a sack. ♦

Led by Corey Terry's constant pressure, the Vols extended their win streak over 'Bama to four games.

GAME NOTES

- Price's kickoff return was the first for the Vols since Dale Carter went 91 yards against Florida in 1990. Price is the third Vol to go 100 yards with a kickoff, joining Pete Panuska (vs. Maryland, 1984) and Willie Gault (vs. Pittsburgh 1980).
- The Vols moved to 6-0 for the first time since 1969.
- The Vols are now 17-4 against the SEC West and have won 12 straight.
- C. Wilson had a career-high six catches for 76 yards.
- The Vols have had a 100-yard rusher in five of the six games so far this season.
- The Vols are now 43-2-2 when the team rushes for more than 200 yards.
- Steve Johnson had an interception on the game's final play.
- Darwin Walker and Corey Terry each batted down passes.
- Andre Lott broke up a pass in the fourth quarter.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 3/4, UA NR/NR.

GAME SEVEN OCTOBER 31, 1998

TENNESSEE 49
SOUTH CAROLINA 14

RECORD AERIAL DISPLAY

ON A RECORD-SETTING

day for Vol quarterback Tee Martin, Tennessee jumped to a 21-0 halftime lead and coasted from there to a 49-14 victory. Martin completed 23 of 24 passes for 315 yards and four scores, 23 in a row at one point.

Martin's TD passes went to Jeremaine Copeland and Cedrick Wilson and twice to Peerless Price. Shawn Bryson, Phillip Crosby and Travis Henry had rushing touchdowns.

Defensively, Al Wilson had eight tackles, caused a fumble and recovered a fumble. Gerald Griffin had five tackles and two pass breakups. Eric Westmoreland and Chris Ramseur each had five tackles and a lost yardage tackle. ■

Tee Martin set three NCAA records against the Gamecocks, as well as a season-long 71-yard scoring strike to Peerless Price.

GAME NOTES

- T. Martin set an NCAA season record with 24 consecutive pass completions (one vs. Alabama and 23 vs. South Carolina) and an NCAA single-game record with 23 straight today. He also broke SEC records for season and single-game marks.
- Tennessee also set an NCAA completion percentage mark (24 for 25 passing, .960 percent).
- Tennessee now leads the series 13-2-2, 4-2-2 at Columbia, including the last three.
- Copeland's TD catch was his first of the season.
- C. Wilson's fumble recovery set up the Vols' first touchdown.
- Billy Ratliff blocked a second-quarter Gamecock field goal, the first for the Vols since the 1996 Alabama game.
- Dwayne Goodrich had an interception for the Vols just before half-time.
- Deon Grant added a fumble recovery.
- DeAngelo Lloyd also caused a fumble.
- Ron Green had a sack (-9).
- Goodrich (-1), Dominique Stevenson (-6), Eric Westmoreland (-1), Judd Granzow (-1), Corey Terry (-2), Will Overstreet (-2) and Darwin Walker (-2) added lost yardage tackles.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 3/4, USC NR/NR.

GAME EIGHT NOVEMBER 7, 1998

TENNESSEE 37
ALABAMA-BIRMINGHAM 13

HAPPY HOMECOMING WIN

TENNESSEE jumped to a 10-0 first-quarter lead and moved on from there to a 37-13 Homecoming victory in the first meeting ever between the two schools on a clear, cool day at General Neyland's Stadium. The Vols became the first Tennessee team to reach 8-0 since 1966.

Tee Martin scored on a 1-yard run and threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to Cedrick Wilson. The two Travises, Henry and Stephens, scored on runs of 18 and 12, respectively, and Jeff Hall booted three field goals to complete the scoring.

It was a day for the linebackers as Al Wilson had 11 tackles, Raynoch Thompson 10 and Eric Westmoreland added eight. Westmoreland also added two tackles for loss (-16). ■

GAME NOTES

- The Vols have now won 15 straight Homecoming games, last loss coming in 1983.
- Henry topped the 100-yard mark (104) for the second time in his career, the first coming against Alabama.
- The Vols had a 97-yard TD march, longest of the season, in 10 plays to their first score.
- The Vols did not punt. The last time that happened was in the 1996 Kentucky game.
- Shaun Ellis found a fumble and rumbled 65 yards toward the south goal.
- Martin now has no interceptions in his last 80 passing attempts dating back to the second quarter of the Georgia game.
- UT has won their last 18 home games against non-conference foes.
- The Vols had seven lost yardage tackles. Joining Westmoreland on tackles for losses were Ron Green (-1), Corey Terry (-2), Ellis (-3), Thompson (-3) and Dominique Stevenson (1).
- Darwin Walker, Jeff Coleman and Terry caused fumbles and Steve Johnson joined Ellis with a fumble recovery.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 2/3, UAB NR/NR.

Linebacker Raynoch Thompson made 10 stops against the Blazers as Tennessee rolled to its best start in 42 years.

GAME NINE NOVEMBER 14, 1998
TENNESSEE 28 ARKANSAS 24

LATE TD WINS IT

TENNESSEE overcame a 14-point third quarter deficit and scored the winning TD with 28 seconds left to edge Arkansas 28-24 on a rainy afternoon at Neyland Stadium.

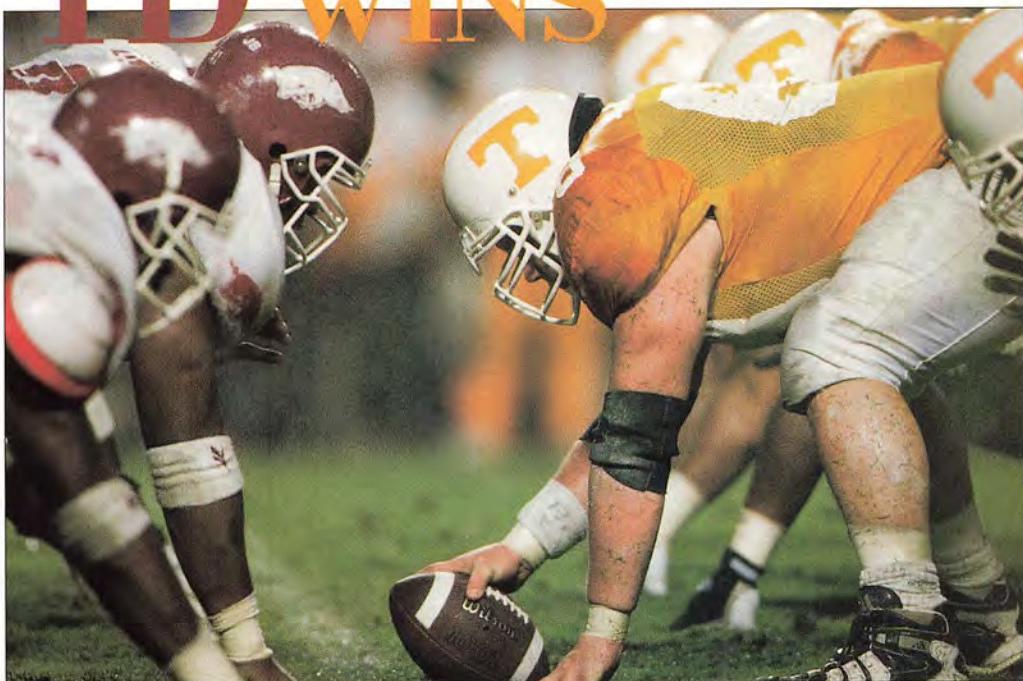

Travis Henry scored the winning touchdown after the Vols gained possession on a Razorback fumble at the UA 43. Henry, who gained 197 yards on 32 carries for the day, carried five times for 43 yards on the last drive. Tee Martin scored one TD and threw a TD pass to Peerless Price. Jeff Hall added two field goals.

The Vols got a safety when Arkansas kicked the ball through the end zone after a bad snap from center.

Tennessee linebackers combined for 29 hits, with Raynoch Thompson in on 11 with three lost yardage tackles and a sack. Al Wilson and Eric Westmoreland were in on nine hits each. ■

GAME NOTES

- Henry became the third back to rush for more than 100 yards this season and now has three 100-yard games in his past four outings.
- With 59 yards receiving, Price moved to fourth on UT's career list with 1,960 yards, passing Larry Seivers (1973-76), who had 1,924.
- Deon Grant blocked a field goal, the second block for the Vols this season.
- The Vols have now won 13 straight games against the SEC West.
- Vol defenders had 12 lost-yardage tackles and a sack for their day's work.
- Billy Ratliff recovered the fumble which set the game-winning drive in motion. Ratliff also added two lost-yardage tackles (-8).
- Tennessee scored the last 18 points of the game after trailing 24-10 with 11:43 left in the third quarter.
- Corey Terry had a sack for minus-12.
- Wilson added a sack and a lost-yardage tackles. Westmoreland added two lost yardage tackles.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 1/1, UA 10/9.

Tennessee's offensive line surged down the field in the waning seconds, setting up the winning score to keep the Vols undefeated.

GAME TEN NOVEMBER 21, 1998
TENNESSEE 59 KENTUCKY 21

RUN DECISIVE

Cedrick Wilson had a career-high 100 receiving yards as the Vols exploded for a season-high 59 points against the Wildcats.

TRAILING 7-6 late in the first quarter, Tennessee scored the game's next 32 points to take a 59-21 decision over Kentucky.

Shawn Bryson scored twice on runs of one-yard and 58 yards and added a two-point conversion on a pass from Tee Martin. Travis Henry, Travis Stephens and Phillip Crosby scored on short runs and T. Martin added another on a 33-yard run and a 55-yard TD pass to Cedrick Wilson. Jeff Hall became the SEC's leading scorer with 354 career points, with three field goals and six extra points on the day.

The Vols' defense was led by Eric Westmoreland, who had nine hits and three tackles for loss. Tad Golden, making his first career start, had eight hits. In all, Vol defenders had five tackles for loss and six sacks. Fred Weary caused a fumble. ♦

- Tennessee has scored 50 points against the Wildcats in each of the past three years, 56-10 in 1996, 59-31 in 1997 and 59-21 today.
- Bryson's TD run was a career-long run.
- C. Wilson had his first 100-yard day as a Vol, eclipsing his previous high a week ago against Arkansas.
- Price became the fourth Vol to collect 2,000 receiving yards in his career. His 2,020 yards on 134 catches rank him third on UT's career receptions list, fourth on the career yardage list.
- Tennessee set a single-season attendance record by drawing 641,482 fans in six games, an average of 106,914.
- The Vols are 47-5 over their last 52 games and leads the series overall, 62-23-9.
- The Vol seniors compiled a 24-1 home record.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 1/2, UK NR/25.

TENNESSEE SCORED

in every quarter to take a 41-0 victory over homestanding Vanderbilt and win the SEC East outright.

The Vols jumped to a 20-0 half-time lead and never looked back in moving to 11-0 on the season, 8-0 in the conference.

Tee Martin threw a 67-yard pass to Peerless Price and scored one TD on a one-yard run. Travis Henry scored twice on runs of 12 yards and one yard. Travis Stephens added a one-yard TD run. Chris Ramseur scored on a 12-yard fumble recovery after a solid hit by fellow linebacker Eric Westmoreland. Jeff Hall added two field goals and four extra points. Deon Grant, Derrick Edmonds, Dwayne Goodrich and Fred White had interceptions. Darwin Walker added a fumble recovery. ■

GAME NOTES

- Hall is now sixth on the NCAA career scoring list with 364 points
- The Vols are 48-5 in their last 53 games and have won 19 consecutive regular-season games.
- The Vols are 19-4 in their last 23 SEC road games.
- UT leads the series 61-26-5 (30-7-4 at Nashville) and has not lost to the Commodores since 1982.
- Price caught seven passes for 181 yards today, the yardage being a career high. He now has 141 catches for his career for 2,201 yards. His 18 career touchdowns complete the trifecta of his assault on the record book. He is third in all categories. His season marks include 55 catches (sixth on Vol records), 823 yards (eighth overall) and nine scores (tied with many for second).
- The Vols' last 41-point win was against Arkansas in 1996, a 55-14 count. The Vols' last shutout was in the 1995 Southern Mississippi game by a 42-0 count. The last shutout over Vanderbilt was a 65-0 win on this same field in 1994.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 1/2, VU NR/NR.

VOLS RALLY TO WIN CROWN

THE VOLS OVERCAME an interception return and a punt return for touchdowns, rallying for two fourth quarter scores to win the SEC title, 24-14.

Trailing 14-10 with 8:43 to go in the game, the Vols' Tee Martin hit Peerless Price for a 41-yard scoring strike. After the kickoff, Tennessee's Corey Terry forced Bulldog quarterback Wayne Madkin to fumble where Eric Westmoreland recovered at the MSU 26. T. Martin immediately took to the air finding a wide-open Cedrick Wilson for the 26-yard touchdown toss to seal the win.

The Vol defense held MSU to 149 yards in total offense (65 rushing, 84 passing) and did not allow a score for the second straight game. Terry finished with four tackles and a sack to go with the caused fumble. Billy Ratliff had the other Vol sack. Al Wilson and Deon Grant each had an interception. ■

GAME NOTES

- Price was named the game's MVP.
- The two times the Vols have played in the Championship game have produced the Dome's two largest crowds. The record is 74,896 set in 1997.
- The Vols set SEC Championship records for time of possession (36:06), total offensive plays (81) and yards rushing (151).
- Tennessee's defense tied a Championship game record for fewest first downs allowed (9).
- Grant's interception was his fifth of the season to lead the Vol secondary.
- With the Bulldogs rushing for only 65 yards, it marked the eighth time this season that the Vol defense held an opponent under 100 yards.
- The win gave Tennessee 13 SEC titles, ranking only second to Alabama.
- The 12 wins marks the first time a Vol football team has ever won 12 games in a season.
- Rankings (AP/ESPN): UT 1/2, MSU 23/22.

Two late touchdowns, backed by 127 yards rushing by Travis Henry, gave the Vols their second consecutive SEC title.

UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

The University of Tennessee, the state's oldest and largest university, is one of the leading public institutions of higher education in the United States.

UT offers undergraduate, graduate, and professional studies; conducts a vigorous research program; and shares expertise and resources with Tennessee communities, the state, and the nation through its programs of public service.

The University's 15 colleges and schools offer 250 degree programs to 25,000 students, who come from every county in Tennessee, every state in the nation, and 100 foreign countries. About 80 percent of students are full-time. Fifty-one percent are female; 49 percent are male. Eighty percent are Tennesseans.

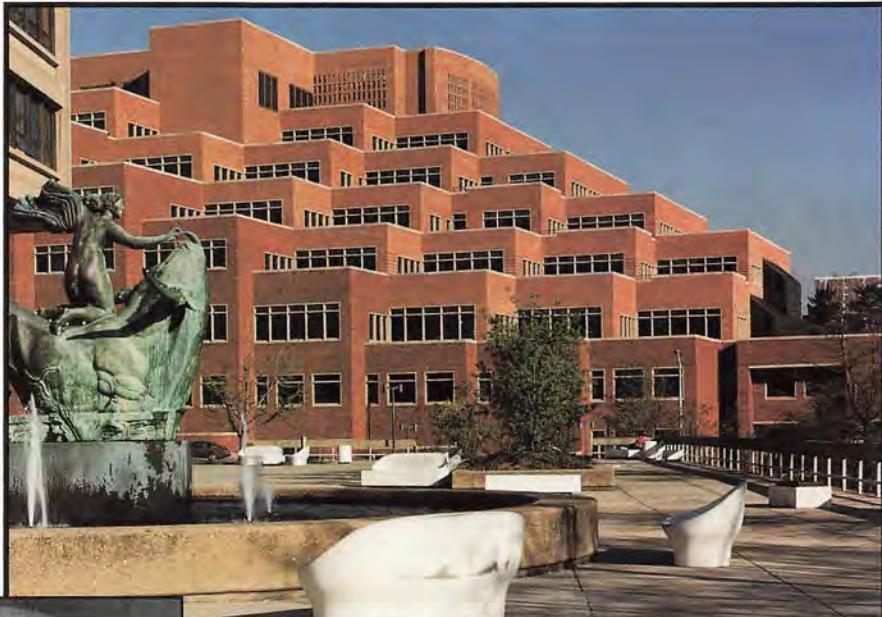

UT offers the largest concentration of doctoral programs in Tennessee and is the only campus that offers courses in disciplines such as architecture, nuclear engineering, and veterinary medicine. UT is the only public university in Tennessee with the Carnegie Research I classification.

The faculty, which numbers more than 1,200, effectively blends teaching, research and service in educating students. The faculty and staff of Tennessee work constantly to enhance the quality of students' educational experiences, using information from student tests and surveys to improve teaching and student services.

The campus has Centers of Excellence in hazardous waste management, materials processing, and veterinary medicine, as well as the Science Alliance. The Alliance, the largest of Tennessee's Centers of Excellence, boasts a Distinguished Scientist Program that attracts eminent scientists to joint appointments at UT and ORNL and strengthens cooperative instructional and research programs between the two.

The campus has 65 endowed professorships and chairs, including 16 Chairs of Excellence. The Chairs of Excellence are cooperatively funded by the state and the University and filled by nationally known teacher/scholars.

The University libraries have more than two million volumes. The campus computing infrastructure is undergoing a major upgrade, and 26 new computer labs have been established this year.

Extracurricular activities abound at UT. Students can choose from more than 300 special interest organizations that include residence hall associations, sororities, fraternities, and recreational, political, religious, and service groups. Cultural activities are numerous, and there are extensive intercollegiate and intramural sports programs.

The Tennessee main campus and adjacent agriculture campus total 500 acres with about 200 buildings. The two newest building additions to the campus landscape are the College of Law building and the Science and Engineering Building.

UT's predecessor, Blount College, was founded in Knoxville in 1794, two years before Tennessee became a state. In 1828, it was renamed East Tennessee College and moved to its current location on the Hill. In 1840, the school became East Tennessee University and in 1879 the University of Tennessee. *

VOLUNTEER ATHLETICS

Tennesseans beam with pride concerning the nationally famous sports program at their state university in Knoxville. And well they should when considering the score of achievements that have distinguished the University's athletic history.

But a stroke of good luck that befell the University more than 70 years ago — a quirk of fate, if you will — provided the foundation that allowed Tennessee to take its place in the national spotlight.

By pure happenstance, the United States Army assigned to the ROTC program at the University a young West Point graduate who would shape the face of college athletics down South for generations to come.

Square-shouldered and purposeful, befitting a product of the U.S. Military Academy, Robert R. Neyland was a dynamic individual who blended intellect, character and ambition. The masterminds of the Army could easily have shipped his papers to any one of the other colleges around the country that provided ROTC training.

But it was the University of Tennessee's great fortune that the decision was made to dispatch him to Knoxville. Neyland, an outstanding multiple-sports star at West Point, was as much at home in the boxing ring or on the baseball diamond as he was on the football field. But the University needed some coaching assistance with its football squad, and Neyland offered to lend a hand as his ROTC schedule permitted.

DOUG DICKEY

University officials were so impressed by the young lieutenant's obvious leadership qualities that a year later, in 1926, Neyland was named head coach of the Volunteers. The man most responsible for his appointment was Dean N.W. Dougherty, then chairman of the school's athletics board and himself a legendary football player who would later be voted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

Dougherty did make one demand of his first year coach: Even the score with Vanderbilt, he instructed his new football skipper. Neyland not only overtook Vanderbilt; he put together a football organization that made Tennessee the scourge of the Southern gridirons.

Tennessee won national championships in 1939 and 1951, made holiday bowl visits a routine part of its December itinerary, and attracted a following that is as avid and loyal as any in the nation. Every time the gates swing open at Neyland Stadium, some 102,000 patrons walk in.

During the last 30-plus years in particular, first under the direction of Bob Woodruff and now with Doug Dickey as director of athletics, Tennessee has produced an assortment of championships. The 1967, '69, '85, '89, '90, '97 and '98 SEC Championships, and 25 bowl appearances, reflect the solid status of the football program, which provides the funding for the whole ball of wax, directly and indirectly. Other Vol teams that have won SEC titles and earned national rankings included basketball, tennis, swimming, track, cross country, baseball and golf.

An ambitious building program instituted largely under Dickey's stewardship of the program has brought UT facilities to a level that could be described as the highest in the nation. ■

TENNESSEE HEAD COACH PHILLIP FULMER

Unwilling to write off 1998 as a rebuilding year, Phillip Fulmer patched some huge holes in the Tennessee lineup and directed the Vols to an undefeated season, the school's first unblemished campaign since 1956.

Fulmer, who began the year with the best coaching record in the nation, emerged with his first-place standing enhanced by a 12-0 mark that provided a second straight Southeastern Conference championship.

The Vols, ranked first in both the writers and coaches polls, will seek the national championship when they take on Florida State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Jan. 4 in Tempe.

A team with a patented ability to come through in clutch situations, the Vols closed out their perfect year against old foe Vanderbilt in Nashville Nov. 28. They then marched into the postseason with a come-from-behind 24-

When Fulmer became eligible for NCAA

Osborne. With Osborne's retirement after the 1997 season, Fulmer moved into first place. He widened the margin over his closest pursuer with the Vols' 1998 all-winning performance.

Most sports pundits wrote off Tennessee's chances for a stellar season when they looked over the depletion-riddled Vol roster last summer. A "rebuilding" project appeared in order with the loss of the All-America quarterback, an All-America defensive end, the team's most accomplished wide receiver and the bulk of the defensive unit.

But Fulmer, exhibiting his trademark patience, saw the reconstruction as an opportunity to expose younger members of the team to the battlefield experience for which they were being trained. Now Tennessee's string of quality recruiting classes would be brought to the test.

— by a whisker. As the young players gained experience and Tee Martin settled in comfortably at quarterback, the Vols' confidence mounted. When the final victory was notched, Fulmer attributed his team's success to the squad's disciplined approach to its work.

"They listened to their coaches, never took anything for granted and determined to find a way to win, even in some games where the situation looked bleak in the closing moments," said Fulmer.

Fulmer's brilliant coaching record included these other accomplishments:

- A total of 63 academic All-SEC honorees the past four years, including 18 in 1998.
- The No. 1 ranking in the AP poll for the remainder of the season starting with the balloting of Nov. 7, as well as the top spot in the coaches poll in the final voting before the bowl games.
- The first Tennessee team ever to post 12 victories in a single season, a record in 1998 that included a Southeastern Conference championship game and an opportunity for a 13th victory in the Fiesta Bowl.

- A record of 44-5 from 1995 through 1998, the most victories over a four-year span in the school's history.

- Four consecutive seasons of 10 victories or more from 1995 through 1998.

- A total of 27 All-SEC players the past four years, including eight in 1998.

- A winning percentage that is the highest for any head coach in Vol football annals, putting Fulmer ahead of John Barnhill, who had held the top spot until the 1998 season.

- Reaching the 50-victory mark earlier in his career than any coach in Southeastern Conference history.

- Outstanding performances against traditional foes that have seen UT compile victory strings that have reached seven against Georgia, four against Alabama, six against South Carolina, 14 against Kentucky and 16 against Vanderbilt.

remarkable because of the rugged gauntlet of opponents faced by the Vols. Tennessee's schedule is ranked among the toughest in the nation in a variety of ratings. In addition to the demanding SEC slate, the Vols stray far from home to meet such traditional national powerhouses as Notre Dame, UCLA and Syracuse.

Notching a second straight SEC title carries special meaning for Fulmer, the 48-year-old native of Winchester, Tenn., who played in the offensive line for the Vols and then came back as an assistant coach before being promoted to head coach in 1992. "Winning championships is always a goal when you're coaching football," Fulmer said.

Fulmer's Tennessee teams have been uniformly explosive and balanced on offense and stingy on defense. They reflect the coach's dedication to solid fundamentals, including that hallowed Tennessee tradition, the kicking game. Fulmer's sound coaching formula has produced fan-pleasing spectacles that resulted in a soldout Neyland Stadium for every game in 1998. A school record crowd of 107,653 attended the Sept. 19 match with Florida.

Fulmer is married to the former Vicki Morey and has four children: Phillip Jr., Courtney, Brittany and Allison. ♦

PRIDE OF THE SOUTHLAND BAND

The University of Tennessee band was organized immediately after the Civil War when the University reopened. Since that time, the enrollment in the band program has grown to more than 300 students (in all bands) from all colleges of the University.

Director of Bands, Gary Sousa, heads up a program which has maintained a long-standing reputation as one of the nation's finest musical organizations.

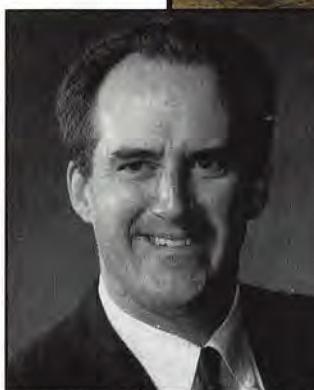

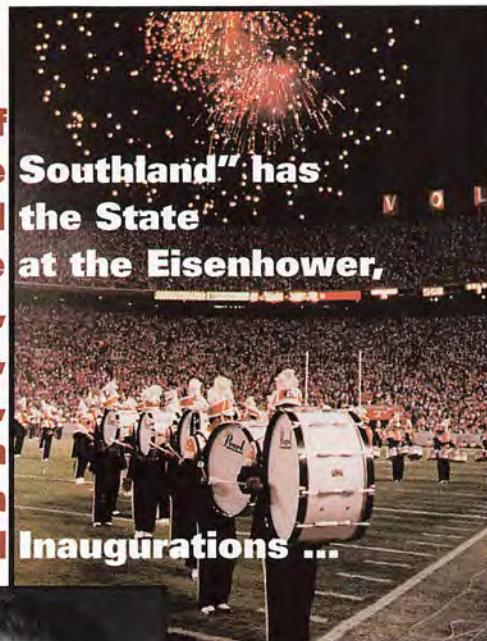

The band staff includes Gary Schallert, Associate Director and Drill Designer, and John Fannin and Tim Wallace, Arrangers. Drum Major for the 1998 season is Fuller Lyon and Head Majorette is Jennifer Whitehead.

The band program is divided into several different units. The most famous of these, "The Pride of the Southland Band," appears at all home football games and three out-of-town games before more than 850,000 spectators, plus millions on television.

The "Pride of the Southland" has represented the State of Tennessee at the Eisenhower, Johnson, Nixon, Carter, Reagan, Bush and Clinton Presidential Inaugurations and has appeared at the Rose Bowl, Astro Bluebonnet Bowl, Citrus Bowl, Gator Bowl, Hall of Fame Bowl, Liberty Bowl, Peach Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Orange Bowl and the Sugar Bowl.

When the UT Marching Band takes the field, the crowd reaction truly indicates that it is not only the Pride of all Tennesseans, but the "Pride of the Southland."

SMOKEY

After a student poll sponsored by the Pep Club revealed a desire to select a live mascot for the University, the Pep Club held a contest in 1953 to select a coon hound, a native breed of the state, as the mascot to represent the school. Announcements of the contest in local newspapers read, "This can't be an ordinary hound. He must be a 'Houn' Dawg' in the best sense of the word."

The late Rev. W.C. Brooks entered his prize-winning blue tick coon hound, "Brooks' Blue Smokey," in the contest. At halftime of the Mississippi State game that season, the dogs were lined up on the old cheerleaders' ramp at Shields-Watkins Field. Each dog was introduced over the loudspeaker and the student body cheered for their favorite, with Smokey being the last hound introduced. When his name was called, he barked. The students cheered and Smokey threw his head back and barked again. This kept going until the stadium was in an uproar and UT had found its mascot.

Rev. Brooks supplied UT with the line of canines until his death in 1986 when his wife, Mildred, took over the caretaking role. She did so until 1994, when her brother and sister-in-law, Earl and Martha Hudson of Knoxville, took over responsibility for Smokey VII and eventually Smokey VIII, with Smokey IX now in the wings. Mrs. Brooks died in July 1997. The present Smokey,

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Arizona knows the value of a specialist.
That's why they came to SRP for energy savings advice.

As facilities supervisor for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Arizona, Jeff Christ runs a tight ship. To run it even tighter, he came to SRP. We suggested an SRP Business Energy Audit. The result was more than $13,000 a year in savings. And those savings are in addition to rates that are among the lowest in the Southwest. It's all part of SRP Energy Solutions for Business. Services that help businesses save money and run more efficiently. To find out how our specialists can help your bottom line, call (602) 236-8833.

...and thanks to my supporting cast, CTX!

If it weren't for CTX, I wouldn't be here today.

They're fabulous. And so different from other companies—offering all the products, support and service I need to turn in a great performance.

CTX makes all its own desktops, notebooks and displays. So prices are lower and quality is higher. And since availability's not a problem, I get whatever I want, whenever I want. Just like I always do.

But where CTX steals the show is service and support. Sales people are helpful and super friendly. And their tech support experts always have the answers. There's also a toll-free help line and an informative, user-friendly website.

So call CTX at 800-888-2120. With 12 years in the business and nearly a billion dollars in sales, they're a great supporting cast. And a very hard act to follow.

The Symbol: Seminoles

Florida State played two football games in 1947 before students demanded the school acquire a symbol. While details conflict, most believe the account of a poll of the student body is accurate. The Florida Flambeau reported that Seminoles had won by 110 votes over Statesmen. The rest of the top contenders, in order, were Rebels, Tarpons, Fighting Warriors, and Crackers.

DIRECTOR, THE MARCHING CHIEFS

Chief Osceola and Renegade

Perhaps the most spectacular tradition in all of college football occurs in Doak Campbell Stadium, when Chief Osceola charges down the field riding an Appaloosa horse named Renegade and plants a flaming spear at the 50-yard line to begin every home game. The tradition was born on Sept. 16, 1978, against Oklahoma State, when a student, wearing Native American clothing, led the team from the tunnel riding a horse. Since the beginning of this FSU tradition, there have been three different horses and nine different riders that have actually appeared at a game.

Chiefs band would chant the melody of a popular FSU cheer called "Mas-sacre." In a sense, "Mas-sacre" was the long version of FSU's current war chant. During a thrilling game with Auburn in 1984, the Marching Chiefs began to perform the dormant cheer. Some students behind the band joined in and continued the war chant portion after the band had ceased. The chant continued among the student body during the 1985 season, and by the 1986 season it was a stadium-wide phenomenon. Of course, the Marching Chiefs refined the chant, and put their own special brand of accompaniment to the war chant, for the sound we hear today.

The Marching Chiefs

The world-renowned Florida State University Marching Chiefs consists of 420 students from virtually all disciplines and majors offered at FSU. The band adds the color and pageantry that make a Seminole football game such an event. FSU's marching band started nearly 60 years ago with 15-20 members from the Florida State College for Women. In 1953, then-director Dr. Manley Whitcomb hired Charles Carter as the Chiefs' arranger. More than 40 years later, Dr. Carter is still arranging the spirited sounds of the Marching Chiefs. ■

FLORIDA STATE HEAD COACH BOBBY BOWDEN

Bobby Bowden is a great many things to the game of college football. His remarkable success, engaging personality and love of people have made him the game's top ambassador. His unprecedented 11 straight finishes among the Associated Press Top Four and record 12 consecutive years of winning 10 or more games make him college football's most successful coach. His ability to be one of the most competitive coaches ever in the game, and also one of the most well thought of, makes him truly unique.

Certainly his legions of All-Americans, phenomenal success and coast-to-coast popularity attest to one fact: Bobby Bowden is a legend in the world of college football.

This season he has taken one of the youngest teams in FSU history and has them in yet another major bowl with a chance to extend two of college football's most remarkable records.

But Bobby Bowden is a man so closely tied with the phenomenal success of his program that he, as much as Renegade and the war chant, is Florida State football. Gracious in both victory and defeat, Bowden is a man at peace with himself, a man with rock-solid character and firm coaching principles that date back more than 45 years. It's not enough that his coaching numbers have reached legendary proportions. Bowden also gives Florida State University a proud moral leader, a family man of the first order, a caring disciplinarian, and a calming voice in the face of the turbulence surrounding college football.

Perhaps the best tribute to the man is that he is not afraid to change with the times, adapting brilliantly to new ways of winning games, as well as dealing with young student-has won 129 games over the last 12 seasons, and has won at least 10 games in each of the last 12 years.

In the fickle world of sports, some forget what it is all about. Sure, Bobby Bowden is proud of his national championship, his place among the all-time greats, and a chance at a second national title. But as Bowden well understands at this stage of his career, there are things more important in life. That's what makes him "our" Bobby Bowden.

One of Bowden's greatest coaching achievements revolves around bowl games and his team's success in the postseason. Bowden guided the Seminoles to an unheard of record 11 consecutive bowl wins, which ended at the 1997 Sugar Bowl. He also set an NCAA record with his 14 straight bowls without a loss. His 16-4-1 record and .780 bowl winning percentage rank first all-time. Only Joe Paterno (18) has won more bowl games.

What Bobby Bowden means to Florida State University off the playing field cannot be measured. Respect, sincerity, class, honesty, charisma, charm and humor. Those are the words that describe and define this man even better than wins, losses, or coaching records.

Bowden's record at Florida State is 219-52-4. That includes a 116-16-2 record in Tallahassee and 103-35-2 mark away from home. He has built those numbers against some of the nation's toughest schedules, earning respect for his team, attracting top players to his program and establishing his reputation as a competitor in the process.

No team in college football history can match the run. ■ athletes. From a sense of discipline and control, to a bold switch to the Fast Break offense, Bowden constantly finds ways to make his program even better.

Like other coaches before him, Bowden has created something of a monster that sits squarely on his shoulders. He has coached his Florida State teams so very close to perfection that the fans expect nothing less. He

SEMINOLE ATHLETICS

In just over 50 years as a coeducational institution, Seminole athletes have established a mark of excellence both in the athletic arena and in the classroom. As FSU celebrates the 30th anniversary of women's intercollegiate athletics in 1998, new facilities for soccer and softball as well as lofty goals throughout the athletics program should assure that Florida State will enter the next century as one of the top overall programs in the country.

From its nationally renowned football program to women's soccer — its newest sport — Florida State has made a commitment to compete not only for Atlantic Coast Conference championships, but on the national level.

FSU's football program has become the most consistently successful in the history of college football and it is the winningest program in the decade of the '90s. Heading into the bowl season, the Seminoles are in position to extend two of the most remarkable records in the history of college football. No other program has ever won 10 or more games in 11 consecutive seasons or finished among the Associated Press' top four for 12 straight years.

As a program, Florida State was represented in NCAA postseason competition in eight sports in 1997-98, and the Lady Seminole volleyball team has already earned an NCAA Tournament berth this fall.

Steve Robinson led the men's basketball team to the NCAA Tournament in just his first year last year, and Sue Semrau turned the women's basketball program completely around in just over a year on the job.

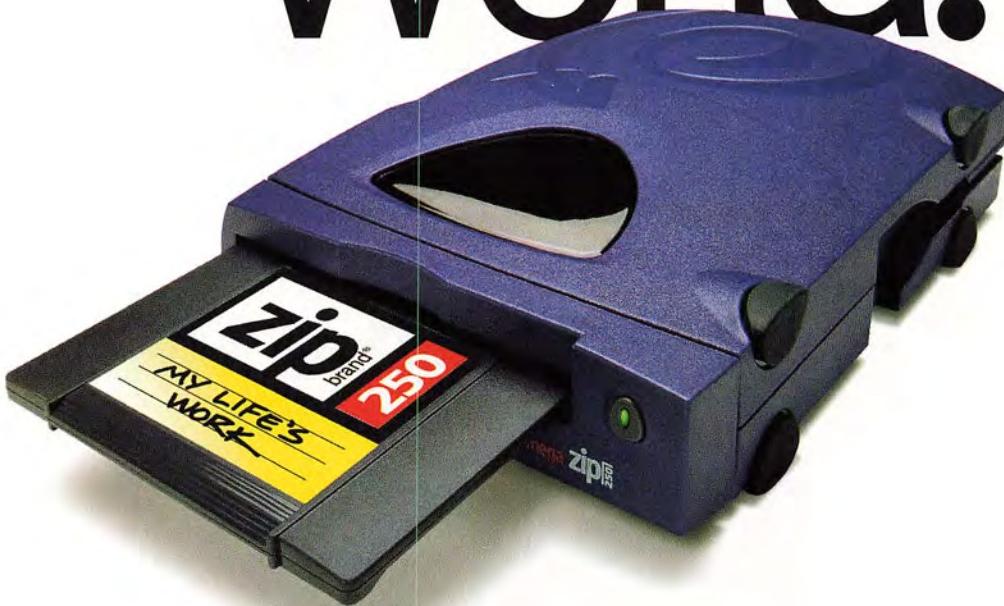

FSU's overall success last year included: the swimming and diving team's Top 15 finish at the NCAA Championships; the men's tennis program's fifth straight NCAA appearance and the women's third consecutive; a win by the men's golf team at the prestigious U.S. Collegiate Championship; continued success on a regional basis by FSU's track and field, cross country and soccer teams; the top-notch softball program's 12th trip to the NCAA Regionals and a 16th College World Series appearance by a very young FSU baseball team.

Providing quality facilities for student-athletes continues to be a priority at Florida State. The expansion and renovation of Doak Campbell Stadium has made the 80,000-seat facility one of the best in the country. The 12-court, 1,000-seat Scott Speicher Tennis Center hosted the NCAA Women's Championships in 1996, and soccer and softball move into new facilities this year that are already being recognized as some of the best in the country.

With Florida State's commitment to excellence and dedication to serving the needs of its student-athletes both academically and athletically, FSU has secured its place among the nation's elite. ♦

THE ROAD TO SEARS NATIONAL CHAMPION FOOTBALL TROPHY LEADS TO TEMPE

From the opening of the season to key regular season match-ups, to the January 4th National Championship Game at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, the Sears Trophy has remained the most sought-after award of college football teams across the country.

Awarded to the No. 1 ranked Division I college football team in the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Coaches Poll since 1993, the Sears Trophy has taken on added significance this year, as it will be presented on-field to the winner of the National Championship Game.

While the Bowl Championship Series and National Championship Game are new to college football this season, the Sears Trophy has been associated with collegiate football supremacy the past five seasons. Prior to being presented to the winner of the match-up between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams, the Sears Trophy was awarded to the No. 1 ranked college football team in the final USA Today/ESPN Top 25 Coaches Poll. The poll, which now plays a key role in determining who plays in the national championship game, is based upon votes from a 62-member panel of the AFCA.

The Sears Trophy tours across the country during each college football season and is displayed on the sidelines at premier games. It is then presented for permanent display to the winning team in January.

Stunning to look at, the Sears Trophy is hand-crafted by Waterford® Crystal and insured for $30,000. The crystal football that sits atop the Sears Trophy takes an artisan at Waterford three months to create.

The Sears Trophy is part of the Sears Collegiate Champions program — a comprehensive trophy and academic scholarship program which recognizes both women's and men's sports equally.

Sears, Roebuck and Co. and the AFCA also present a $20,000 academic scholarship to the school that wins the Sears Trophy each year. The scholarship is earmarked for an outstanding freshman student who does not participate in intercollegiate athletics. In total, more than 2,200 trophies and more than a quarter of a million dollars in academic scholarships are awarded to NCAA Division I, II, III and NAIA institutions each year.

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

As illustrated by the success of its alumni in their careers and in graduate school, Florida State University is setting the standard for the nation in both academics and athletics. Located on the oldest continuous site of higher education in Florida and building rapidly on the framework of a highly regarded liberal arts college for women, the University has emerged over the past 50 years as an institution of national and international esteem — and a community of special warmth and engaging diversity.

The Carnegie Foundation's recognition of FSU as a Research I institution places it in the top three percent of American universities and colleges. FSU is one of only seven institutions to earn the distinction without a medical school, reflecting a broad base of strength in research and graduate studies.

While programs like the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory — the world's preeminent facility — bring recognition to the sciences, FSU has long been known for its strength in the arts. Programs in music, theater, dance and film are all ranked among the nation's elite.

A senior member of the 10-member State University System (SUS), FSU was founded as an institution of higher learning in 1851 by legislative act and began in Tallahassee with its first students in 1857.

Today, FSU's operating budget is $480.4 million. Faculty and administrators generate more than $90 million annually in external funding to supplement state-sponsored research.

Three direct-support organizations serve to bolster the University: FSU Foundation, which raises millions in private gifts to support academics, Seminole Boosters and FSU Alumni Association.

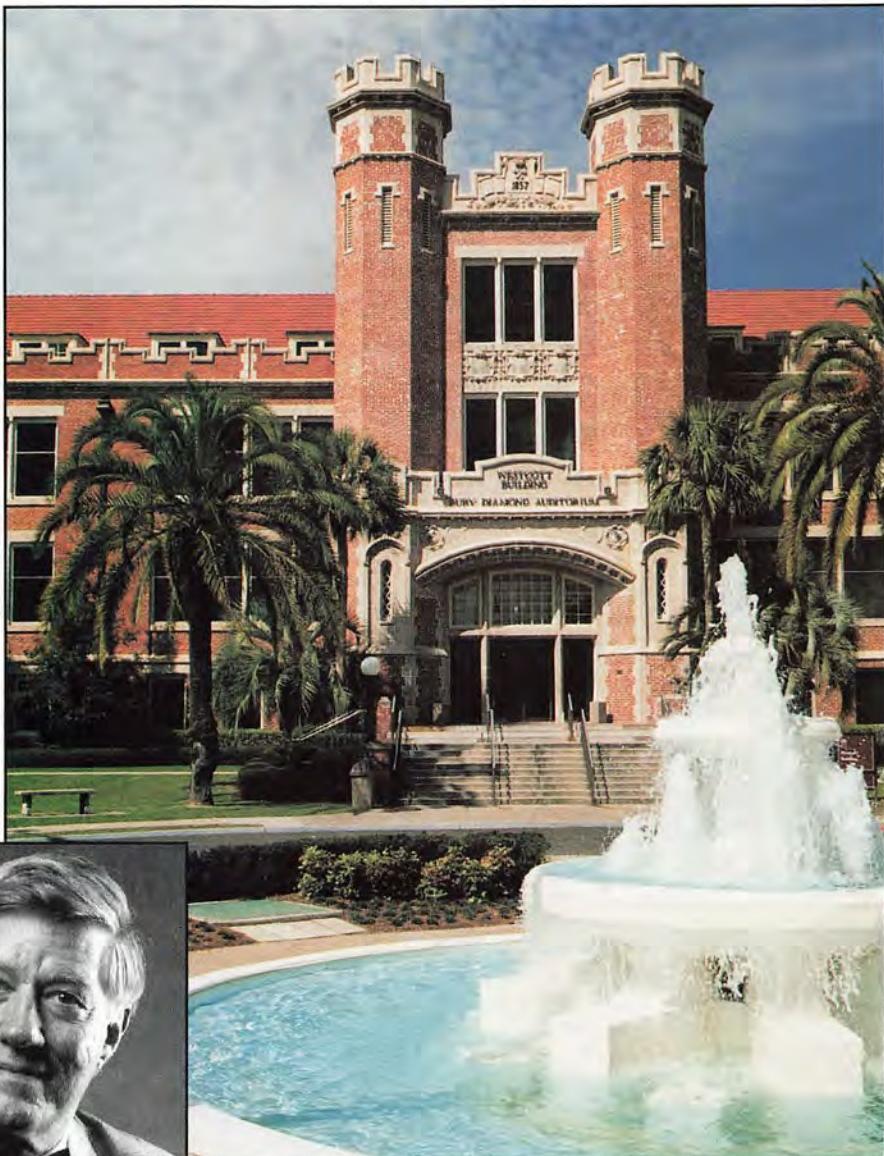

The main campus is spread over 455 acres in Tallahassee; FSU, which had one of the smallest campuses in the SUS, has been actively acquiring land in the 1990s after years of being landlocked at 347 acres. FSU owns 1,308 acres in Leon, Bay, Franklin and Sarasota counties, but reaches far beyond those boundaries with acclaimed international studies.

With 1,731 members, the highly regarded FSU faculty has included nine National Academy of Sciences elected members, nine American Academy of Arts and Sciences fellows and five Nobel laureates. It is backed by 3,002 administrative/professional and support staff.

FSU, a residential campus, places a high priority on its 30,519 students and their needs. In all areas of its mission — excellence in teaching, research and public service — Florida State University is advancing boldly toward the 21st century. *

GAME ONE AUGUST 31, 1998

FLORIDA STATE 23 TEXAS A&M 14

MEADOWLANDS OF OPPORTUNITY

FLORIDA STATE SPORTS INFORMATION

Backup quarterback Marcus Outzen (opposite) played a late-season role in Florida State's run for the national title, while running back Travis Minor (top) was a workhorse in the opener against Texas A&M, rushing a school-record 34 times to pace the Seminoles to victory.

TRAVIS MINOR rushed for 146 yards and 26-year-old sophomore quarterback Chris Weinke threw for 207 yards in his first start to lead Florida State to a 23-14 season-opening win over Texas A&M at the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands in East Rutherford, N.J.

Minor carried the ball a school-record 34 times against the Aggies for a 4.3 yard average. Weinke completed 21-of-36 pass attempts, including a nine-yard touchdown strike to Peter Warrick.

GAME NOTES

- Minor outgained the entire A&M offense during his third career 100-yard rushing effort.
- FSU started just five seniors.
- FSU's second Kickoff Classic appearance. The first time they played (1993), the 'Noles went on to win the National Championship.

The Seminole defense was outstanding throughout the game limiting the Aggies to just 33 rushing yards and 133 yards of total offense.

FSU opened the scoring, taking advantage of an A&M fumble at their 39. Minor finished the short drive with a three-yard TD plunge with 2:33 left in the quarter. A little under four minutes later Sebastian Janikowski's 33-yard field goal capped another short drive following an A&M fumble.

Texas A&M scored with 12:42 left in the first half on a six-play, 58-yard drive to cut the Seminole lead to 10-7. The Aggies then took a 14-10 lead into the locker room at halftime after a stunning 21-yard return of a Chris Weinke fumble with just :29 left in the 2nd quarter.

The Seminoles extended the lead with 10 points in the third quarter on a Janikowski 28-yard field goal with 6:43 left and a nine-yard Weinke-to-Peter Warrick connection with just five seconds left in the third quarter.

FSU tacked on another Janikowski field goal from 22 yards out in the fourth to preserve the 23-14 win. ■

NC STATE 24 FLORIDA STATE 7

TOBACCO WOES

IT LOOKED LIKE the Seminoles' day when Chris Weinke hit wide receiver Peter Warrick with a 74-yard touchdown bomb on FSU's first play from scrimmage. But that would be the only scoring for the Seminoles all day as Florida State lost to an ACC foe for only the second time ever, suffering a 24-7 thumping by North Carolina State in Raleigh, N.C.

Weinke would throw a school-record six interceptions in the game before finishing with just nine completions in 32 attempts for 243 yards. Travis Minor just missed a 100-yard effort on the ground for the Seminoles, finishing with 99 yards on 18 carries.

It was NC State who posted the big numbers, with quarterback Jamie Barnette passing for 287 yards on 17 completions in 32 attempts. Torry Holt led the Wolfpack receivers with 135 yards on nine catches and one touchdown.

Down 7-0 with 1:41 left in the first quarter, NC State looked like they were in trouble with FSU on the five poised for a second TD, but an interception squashed the scoring opportunity and set the Wolfpack off on an impressive 10-play, 99-yard drive that left NCSU down one at 7-6. Two minutes later, Holt made the home crowd believers with a 68-yard punt return that gave them a 13-7 lead that held through halftime.

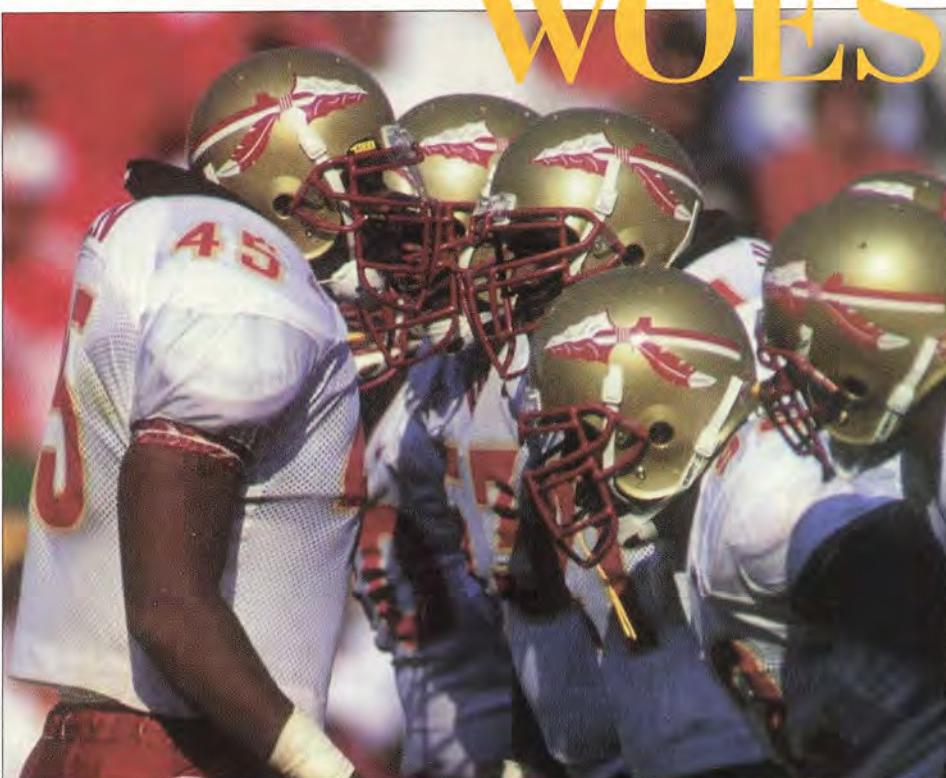

With NC State's defense taking advantage of FSU's miscues, the Wolfpack would keep the Seminoles off the scoreboard the entire second half while scoring 11 insurance points to finish off their dramatic upset.

Florida State drove the ball inside NC State's 35-yard-line three times in the fourth quarter alone before turnovers killed potential scoring drives.

The loss left FSU 47-2 against the ACC since joining the league in 1992. ■

GAME NOTES

- Only the second loss in FSU history against an ACC foe.
- First Seminole loss against a non-ranked opponent since 1989.
- Corey Simon sacked NC State's quarterback 1 1/2 times and had eight tackles.
- Marcus Outzen completed his first career pass.
- Mario Edwards snagged his first career interception.

Lamont Green and the FSU defense could not keep the Wolfpack at bay during NC State's 24-7 victory.

FLORIDA STATE 62 DUKE 13

GIVIN' THE DEVILS THEIR DOOM

CHRIS WEINKE

bounced back from his six-interception day a week earlier with a three touchdown outing, completing 11 of 19 passes for 241 yards and no interceptions. The FSU defense limited Duke to just 165 total yards as the Seminoles opened up their 1998 home campaign with a 62-13 rout of the Blue Devils in front of 80,032 in Doak Campbell Stadium in Tallahassee.

Florida State took control of the game with a 24-point outburst in the second quarter. Sebastian Janikowski put the Seminoles on the board with a 38-yard field goal, then Weinke and Warrick connected on a 30-yard score to give FSU a 10-7 lead.

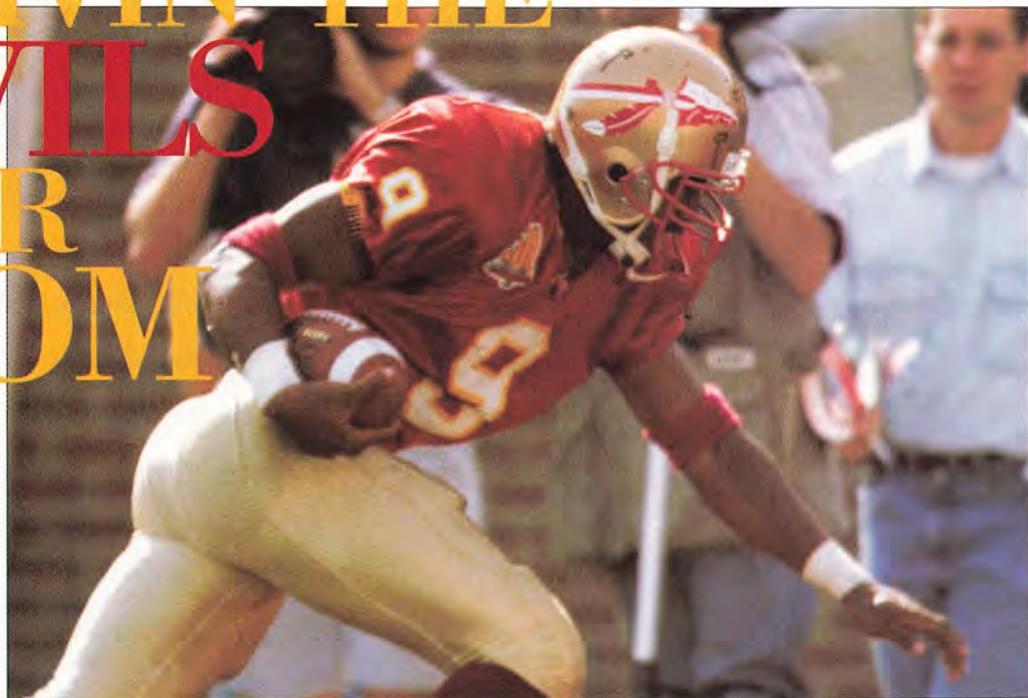

After Duke's Sims Lenhardt booted a 51-yard field goal to tie the contest at 10, Laveranues Coles took the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown to give FSU the lead for good. Minor's 17-yard TD reception from Weinke gave the Tribe a 24-10 lead at intermission.

Florida State added 28 more points in the third quarter to take a 52-10 lead after three periods. Minor scored on an eight-yard run, Warrick caught a 24-yard TD pass from Weinke and William McCray and Jeff Chaney scored on runs from one and two yards out, respectively.

Lenhardt added a 43-yard field goal early in the final period for Duke. Janikowski hit a 40-yard field goal and Chaney added a six-yard scamper to close out the scoring. ■

GAME NOTES

- Coles' kickoff return for a touchdown was the first for a Seminole since Shannon Baker in 1992.
- Billy Rhodes moved from FB to DT for the game to add depth when Larry Smith was out with injury.
- Game marked the first time in 61 AP polls that FSU was not ranked among the Top 10.

GAME FOUR SEPTEMBER 26, 1998

CALIFORNIA CREAMIN'

JEFF CHANEY came off the bench to rush for 89 yards and a touchdown and the Florida State defense limited Southern California to just 23 yards through the air as the Seminoles downed the Trojans 30-10 before 79,815 at Doak Campbell Stadium.

Chaney replaced starting tailback Travis Minor, who went down with an ankle injury in the first quarter. His 89 yards came on 19 carries as FSU used a ball-control attack which held the ball almost twice as long as USC.

The game was played despite the threat of Hurricane Georges, which sat idly in the Gulf of Mexico. While the hurricane did not make landfall near Tallahassee, the Seminole defense was a force, holding the Trojans to just 189 total yards and eight first downs. USC completed just one pass for five yards in the first three quarters and did not break out of single digits in passing yards until less than two minutes remained in the game.

Sebastian Janikowski got Florida State on the board first with a 37-yard field goal to cap a seven-play, 65-yard drive in the first quarter. The Trojans countered with a 49-yard Adam Abrams field goal five minutes later to tie the score 3-3 at the end of the first period.

FSU went into the half with a 13-3 advantage after scoring 10 unanswered points in the second quarter. A seven-yard touchdown run by Chaney and a 36-yard Janikowski field goal five seconds before the half gave the Tribe the margin.

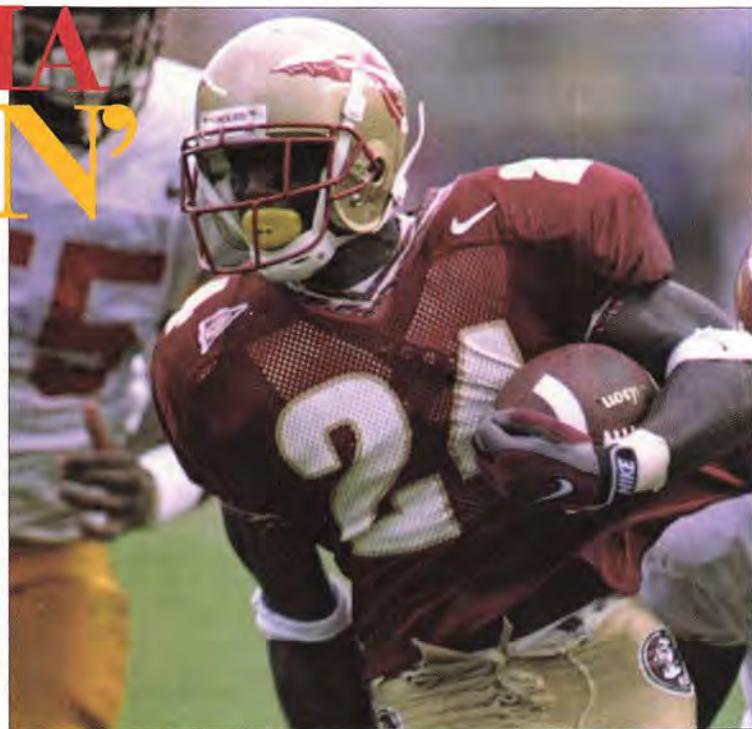

The Seminoles stretched the lead to 20-3 on a Chris Weinke to Peter Warrick five-yard scoring pass late in the third quarter. USC closed to within 20-10 at the end of the period when Chad Morton scored from seven yards out.

Florida State put the game away in the fourth quarter with a 26-yard field goal by Janikowski and a 35-yard TD pass from Weinke to Ron Dugans.

Weinke finished with 226 yards passing while Warrick had six catches for 112 yards. The FSU defense finished with four sacks and held touted Trojan receiver R. Jay Soward to one catch for five yards. *

GAME NOTES

- Minor injured his ankle in the first half and missed the majority of the next three games.
- Pac-10 member USC was one of five different conference schools on the Seminoles' 1998 schedule and the first Pac-10 team ever to play in Tallahassee.
- FSU's defense recorded 12 tackles for loss and two sacks.

Backup tailback Jeff Chaney filled in for injured starter Travis Minor, scoring one TD as the Seminoles shut down visiting Southern Cal, 30-10.

FLORIDA STATE 24 MARYLAND 10

SEBASTIAN OF ACCURACY

SOPHOMORE JEFF CHANEY, filling in for an injured Travis Minor at tailback, rushed for a career-high 133 yards on 30 carries and Sebastian Janikowski tied an FSU record with five field goals as the Seminoles defeated Maryland, 24-10, in College Park.

Quarterback Chris Weinke completed 16 of 32 passes for 261 yards and one touchdown to help open things up for Chaney in his first start. FSU's defense held the Terrapins to just 64 yards through the air and 197 yards total offense.

The Seminoles orchestrated a six-play, 69-yard drive on their first series, which used 2:30. The drive was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Weinke to Laveranues Coles, who would finish the day with four catches for 74 yards and a touchdown.

Janikowski rounded out the scoring in the first half with three field goals. The sophomore connected from 27, 47 and 48 yards to give the Seminoles a 16-10 halftime advantage. He also added a 23-yard field goal in the third quarter, before tying Bill Capace's record of five field goals in a single game with a 36-yarder with 11:01 left in the fourth quarter.

The defense stifled Maryland's two quarterback attack, holding them scoreless in the second half and allowing just 65 yards over the last 30 minutes. The Terps rotated quarterbacks Randall Jones and Ken Mastrole, who combined to complete just 9 of 23 passes.

The Seminole defense added a safety in the third quarter on a Roland Seymour tackle of Jones in the end zone, which gave the Seminoles an 18-10 advantage.

The victory improved the Seminoles to 4-1 on the season and 9-0 against the University of Maryland. ■

GAME NOTES

- Janikowski's five FGs tied FSU's single-game record.
- Chaney's 133 yards marked his first 100-yard rushing day.
- Weinke threw a TD pass for the fifth consecutive game.
- Seven different Seminoles carried the football.
- Chaney and Minor are the first FSU backfield duo to break the century mark in the same season since 1995.

FLORIDA STATE 26 MIAMI 14

PETER THE GREAT

JUNIOR WIDE RECEIVER Peter Warrick caught seven passes for 190 yards and Chris Weinke completed 17-of-32 passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns in a convincing 26-14 victory over rival Miami at the Orange Bowl. Weinke's scoring tosses were the first touchdown passes by an FSU quarterback in the Orange Bowl since Brad Johnson threw one in 1990.

The Seminole defense totalled seven sacks, including six of Hurricane starter Scott Covington, while holding Miami to just 69 rushing yards.

The Seminoles opened the scoring with 6:27 left in the first quarter when Warrick out-jumped a Miami defender for a spectacular catch and a 62-yard touchdown. The Hurricanes tied the game late in the second quarter on a nine-yard pass on fourth down from Covington to tight end Daniel Franks.

FSU rebounded to take the lead before the half when Weinke found sophomore Marvin Minnis in the end zone from 23 yards out. It was Minnis's first touchdown of the season and gave the Seminoles a 14-7 halftime lead.

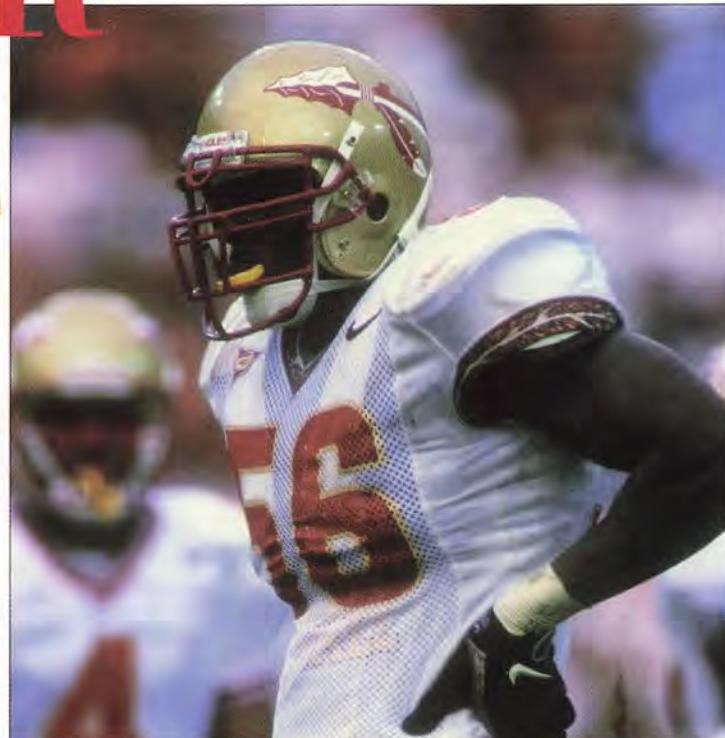

After a defensive stop to start the third quarter, FSU drove the ball 37 yards on seven plays to set up a 27-yard field goal by Sebastian Janikowski, giving the Seminoles a 17-7 advantage.

FSU added another touchdown in the third quarter on a William McCray three-yard plunge. The defense added a safety on a Roland Seymour sack of Kenny Kelly for a 26-14 victory.

The Seminoles' offense racked up 411 yards of total offense, while Weinke recorded his first career 300-yard passing game. Running back Jeff Chaney subbed for an injured Travis Minor and finished with 71 yards on 22 carries. The win was FSU's fourth straight over the Hurricanes. ■

GAME NOTES

- Weinke's first TD pass was the first for an FSU QB in the Orange Bowl since Brad Johnson in 1990.
- Keith Cottrell booted a career-long 69-yard punt.
- Tommy Polley had his first career interception.
- Seven sacks for the FSU defense were the most this season.
- FSU recorded a safety for the second consecutive game.
- FSU's win over Miami was their fourth straight over their rival.

FLORIDA STATE 48 CLEMSON 0

PAPER TIGERS

FLORIDA STATE put together its most impressive performance of the season, recording a 48-0 home shutout of Clemson, outgaining the Tigers 455 to 129 in total yardage and recording a 28-5 first-down advantage.

FSU's first score came off a Clemson special teams miscue. After the Seminole defense forced a three-and-out on the first series of the game, Travis Zachery fumbled the punt and Mario Edwards pounced on it at the Clemson 40. On the very next play, with 13:56 showing on the first-quarter clock, quarterback Chris Weinke found Laveranues Coles on a 40-yard touchdown strike.

Weinke hit on another long scoring pass, this time a 48-yarder to Peter Warrick, to give the Tribe a 14-0 lead with 12:13 remaining in the second quarter. With the defense holding the Clemson offense in check, Weinke found wide receiver Ron Dugans for a 12-yard touchdown with 5:35 left in the half. Sebastian Janikowski boomed a season-long 53-yard field goal at the 1:45 mark to give Florida State a 24-0 halftime lead.

Tailback Jeff Chaney broke free for a 41-yard scoring run with 11:40 left in the third quarter as the Tribe opened up a 31-0 margin.

Clemson had their best chance to get on the scoreboard when Antonio Dingle forced and recovered a Weinke fumble at the Seminole 11. But the FSU defense preserved the shutout as Brandon Streeter's pass fell incomplete on fourth-and-six at the seven.

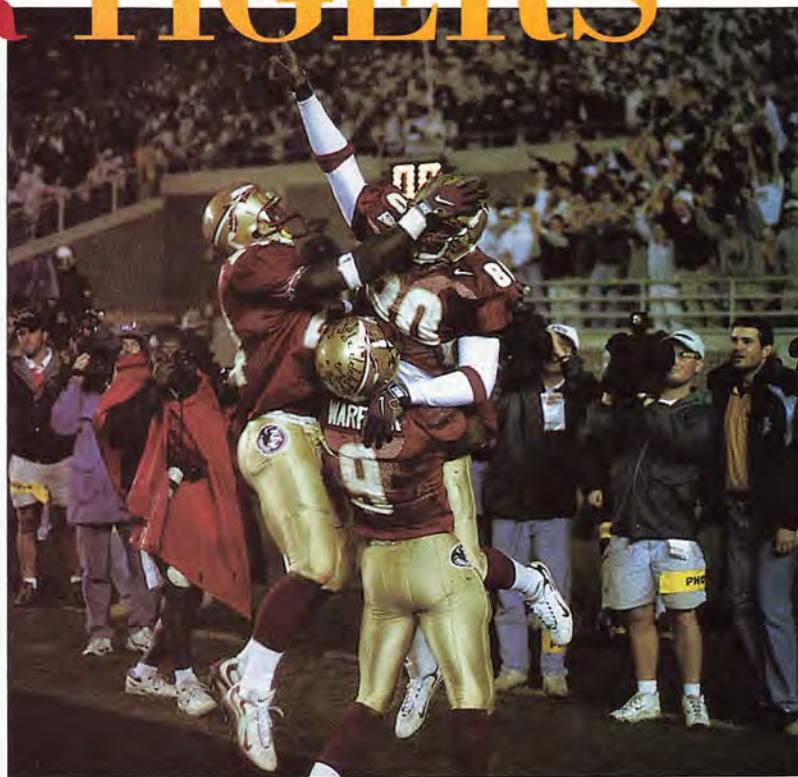

It was 41-0 at the end of the quarter after a 42-yard Janikowski field goal and Weinke's fourth touchdown pass — a 15-yard strike to a wide open Snoop Minnis. Back-up quarterback Marcus Outzen provided the final score on a two-yard touchdown run.

Weinke finished the day with his second career 300-yard game, going 18-of-35 for 302 yards and four touchdowns. With the 48-0 final, Clemson has been held without a touchdown in their last four visits to Doak Campbell Stadium. ■

FSU had plenty to celebrate following Ron Dugans' 12-yard touchdown catch as the Tribe trounced Clemson, 48-0

GAME NOTES

- FSU held Clemson without a touchdown for the fourth straight meeting in Doak Campbell. It was the seventh shutout for FSU's defense in 52 ACC games and the third against the Tigers.
- Six different Seminoles scored touchdowns.
- Weinke recorded his second 300-yard passing game and threw for four TDs.
- Dugans picked up a career-high six receptions.

GAME EIGHT OCTOBER 24, 1998
FLORIDA STATE 34 GEORGIA TECH 7

RAMBLIN' WRECKING CREW

PETER WARRICK scored three touchdowns and FSU's defense dominated after Georgia Tech's first drive as Florida State won a pivotal ACC game, 34-7, in Atlanta. The win gave FSU a share of the conference lead and the inside track on the ACC championship.

Georgia Tech was impressive on their first possession, mounting an 18-play, 80-yard scoring drive that ate up more than nine minutes. Phillip Rogers dove over the top for the touchdown from two yards out to give the fired up Yellow Jackets a 7-0 lead at 5:33.

But the FSU offense answered with a 12-play, 82-yard drive. Chris Weinke hit Warrick on a 44-yard TD pass to even the score at 7-7. Remarkably, each team had the ball only once in the first quarter.

FSU's offense went scoreless in the second quarter, with penalties and sacks stopping Seminole drives. However, FSU's defense clamped down on Joe Hamilton and the YellowJacket attack. After its initial drive, Tech could manage just 119 yards over the final three quarters.

Sebastian Janikowski gave the Tribe a 10-7 lead on a 43-yard field goal with 10:10 left in the third quarter, which held until a fourth-quarter explosion by FSU.

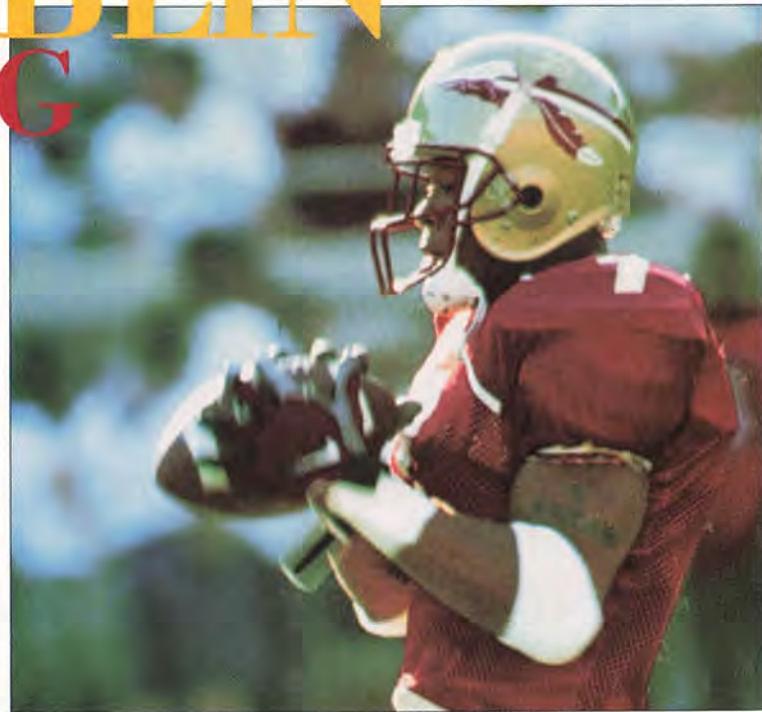

With 13:41 left, Weinke found Warrick in the end zone from eight yards out to push the score to 17-7. After a Janikowski field goal at the 8:49 mark, Warrick found the end zone for the third time. The junior wideout took a reverse around left end, put a move on a Yellow Jacket defender that left him on the ground, and carried it in for the score. The TD put the Seminoles up 27-7 with 5:31 remaining.

Laveranues Coles got some work at tailback and responded with a two-play, 78-yard drive of his own with the touchdown coming on a 60-yard jaunt.

Warrick was named player of the game with three touchdowns and six catches for 82 yards and three runs for 21 yards. The FSU defense limited Hamilton, the ACC's leading passer, to eight-of-14 passing and only 56 yards. *

GAME NOTES

- The FSU defense held the ACC's leading passer, Joe Hamilton, to 8-of-14 passing and 56 yards.
- Peter Warrick had a career-high three touchdowns, including one on a reverse.
- Weinke became the 12th quarterback in Seminole history to pass for 2,000 yards in a season.

Laveranues Coles moved to tailback from his normal wideout spot and stung the Yellow Jackets with a 60-yard touchdown run.

WHEN THINGS ARE AT THEIR WORST, YOU'LL FIND AMERICANS AT THEIR BEST.

Heroes aren't born, they're made. Every day in the National Guard, Americans are going beyond the call — training as citizen-soldiers to be at their best when America needs them the most. Every National Guard mission starts at home where members are your friends, neighbors and co-workers. In your community, they respond to natural disasters and local emergencies.

They even play a direct role in helping America's kids stay in school, out of trouble and drug-free.

But the Guard's work at home is only half the story. Since the days of the Colonial minutemen, the National Guard has worked to protect our nation. Today, that tradition continues with the National Guard as a full partner with America's active military forces.

In today's efficient military, the citizen-soldiers and airmen of the National Guard are more important than ever. Just ask one of the Guard members currently in Bosnia, or those who served in Haiti and Desert Storm — chances are some of these members are right in your community. They are the most visible example of how Guard units are woven into our nation's military capability.

Those who volunteer for the National Guard are trained, equipped and tested to be their best. The biggest test, however, is nowhere near the training ground. It's in a world where danger and disaster are ever-present. A world where the men and women of the National Guard are putting their talents on the line every day.

GAME NINE OCTOBER 31, 1998

FLORIDA STATE 39
NORTH CAROLINA 13

MINOR GAINS

QUARTERBACK Chris Weinke passed for a career-high 338 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Seminoles to a 39-13 victory over North Carolina in Doak Campbell Stadium.

Travis Minor made his first start since the USC game on September 26, due to an ankle injury and rushed for 76 yards on 24 carries and two touchdowns. Weinke completed 15-of-27 pass attempts without an interception and increased his FSU record of consecutive pass attempts without an interception to 202.

Kicker Sebastian Janikowski was perfect on four field goal attempts, including a pair of 42-yarders, and was responsible for 15 points against the Tar Heels. Janikowski booted a 42 and a 28-yard field goal in the first quarter to put the Seminoles ahead, 6-0. Minor scored his first TD from the one-yard line in the second quarter to give FSU a 13-0 advantage.

North Carolina kicker Josh McGee and Janikowski traded field goals and the Seminoles headed into halftime with a 16-3 lead.

Minor ran down the sideline for a 16-yard touchdown just minutes into the third quarter as FSU increased its lead to 23-3. The Tar Heels battled back with a 22-yard field goal by McGee and a seven-yard TD catch by Kory Bailey from Ronald Curry to cut the FSU lead to 10.

But Peter Warrick and Laveranues Coles ripped the UNC defense in the fourth quarter with 56-yard and 49-yard TD catches, respectively. Janikowski's second 42-yard field closed out the FSU and sealed the 39-13 win.

Linebacker Tommy Polley led the Seminoles with 10 tackles, including two for loss, while defensive tackle Corey Simon contributed 1 1/2 sacks and a tackle for loss. ■

GAME NOTES

- Peter Warrick and Laveranues Coles each had more than 100 yards receiving, marking the first time all season that two FSU receivers went over the century mark.
- Sebastian Janikowski hit all four of his field goal attempts and fell one shy of equalling his school mark for three-pointers in a game.
- By finishing with 250 total yards, North Carolina became just the third team to gain more than 200 yards against the FSU defense.

Quarterback Chris Weinke threw for 338 yards and a pair of touchdowns. It was his third 300-yard passing game in the last four contests.

FLORIDA STATE 45 VIRGINIA 14

SECOND-HALF SOIREE

FLORIDA STATE was forced to use second-team quarterback Marcus Outzen the entire second half, but the youngster responded, pulling off a stunning 45-14 win over Virginia in Doak Campbell Stadium. Starting quarterback Chris Weinke left the game late in the second quarter after a jarring sack which herniated a disc and knocked him out for the season. FSU's lead was only 21-14 at the half, but the defense held Virginia scoreless while the 'Noles outscored the Cavs 24-0 in the second half.

On FSU's second possession of the game Weinke hit Peter Warrick with a 79-yard scoring bomb that gave the Seminoles a 7-0 lead. Just a minute later, the Cavaliers tied the score on an Anthony Southern two-yard touchdown run. FSU bounced right back, however, driving 80 yards on its next possession that resulted in Lamarr Glenn's two-yard TD plunge and a 14-7 lead.

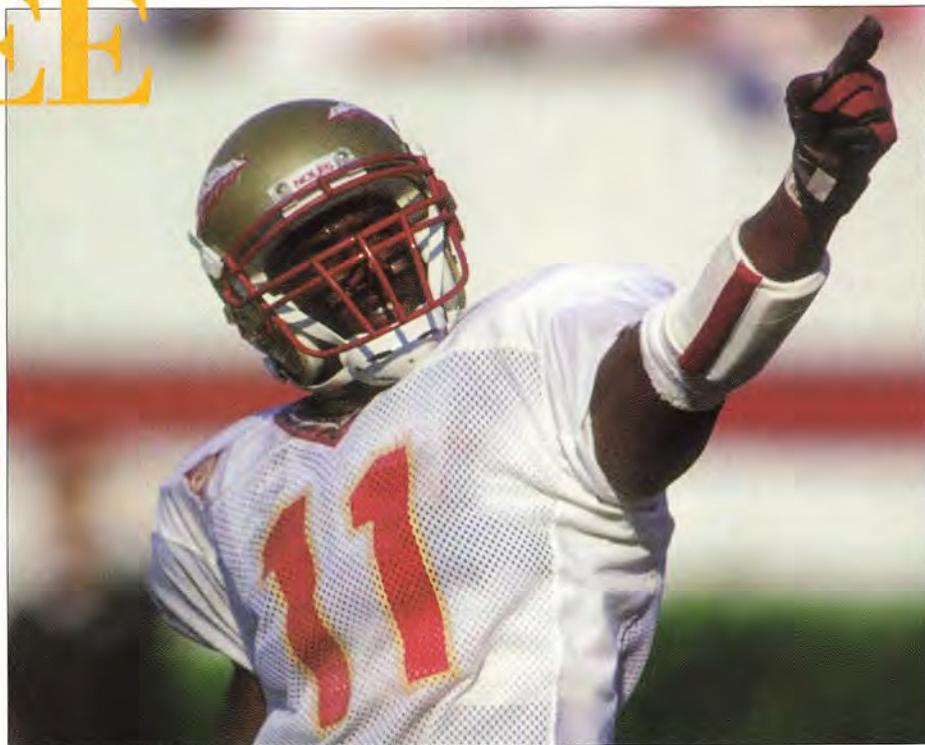

In the very next series, free safety Dexter Jackson intercepted an Aaron Brooks' pass to set up a one-yard quarterback sneak by Weinke early in the second quarter giving FSU a 21-7 advantage. The Cavaliers battled back to within a touchdown as Thomas Jones caught an eight-yard pass from Brooks with 6:47 left in the half.

Florida State shut out the Cavaliers in the second half, holding Virginia to just 64 yards of total offense after the break.

The Seminoles ran for three more touchdowns under Outzen's leadership. Minor dove for a one-yard score as he rushed for his fifth career 100-yard game. Jeff Chaney and Raymont Skaggs each added a touchdown for the Seminoles in the fourth quarter, while kicker Sebastian Janikowski booted a 22-yard field goal. Outzen finished the game 5 of 6 passing for 67 yards with one interception. ■

GAME NOTES

- Minor's 130-yard rushing day was his second 100-yard game of the season and the fifth of his career.
- FSU held Virginia to just 64 second-half yards and did not allow the Cavs to cross midfield after halftime.
- Janikowski's 22-yard field goal tied FSU and ACC single-season records for field goals. It was his 23rd of the year.

GAME ELEVEN NOVEMBER 14, 1998
FLORIDA STATE 24 WAKE FOREST 7

COMING OUTZEN PARTY

MARCUS OUTZEN stepped in and made his debut as FSU's starting quarterback on a cold, rainy night in Winston-Salem, N.C., and led the Seminoles to a hard-fought 24-7 win over a determined Demon Deacon team. The win clinched a share of a seventh straight ACC title for the Seminoles.

Outzen completed 11 of 19 passes, including nine of his last 10, for 164 yards to lead FSU to the win. Travis Minor gained 102 yards on 19 carries, but the offense could generate just 347 yards of total offense.

FSU's defense maintained their dominating form holding Wake Forest to just 179 yards of total offense, which included -30 yards rushing. Cornerback Mario Edwards set an FSU record and tied an ACC mark with four interceptions in the game.

Outzen opened the scoring in the second quarter diving over from the 1-yard line, capping a five-play, 59-yard drive with 8:36 left in the first half. Sebastian Janikowski gave the Tribe a 10-0 lead at the half with a 32-yard field goal with 1:32 left in the first half.

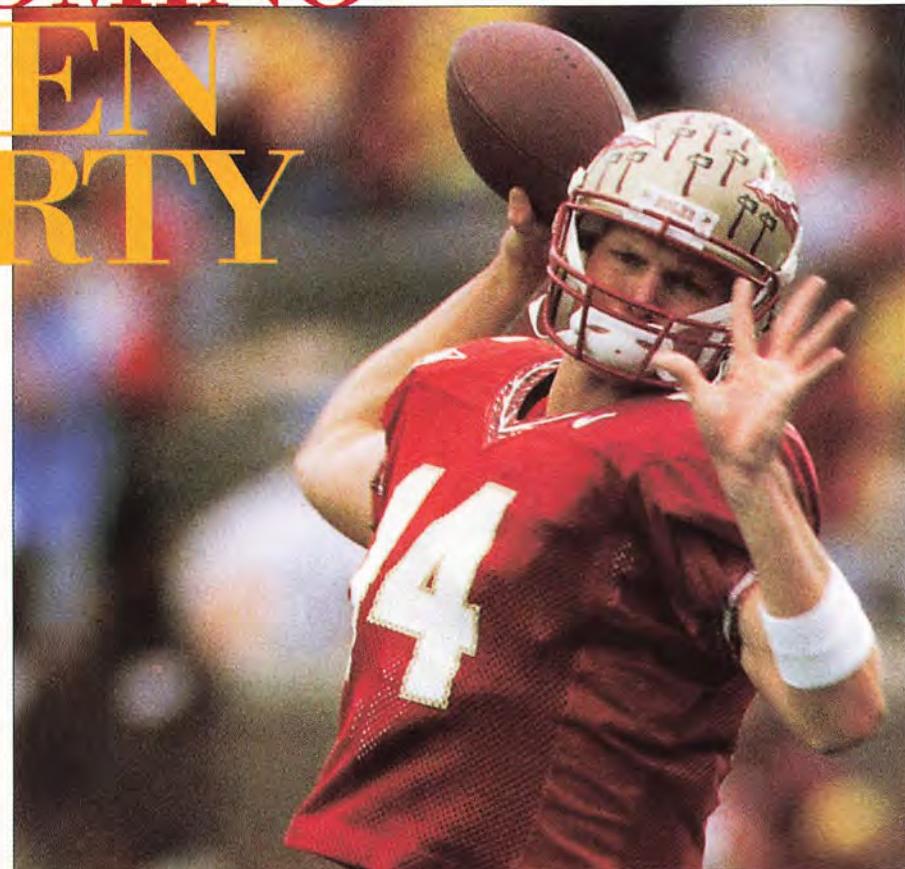

Wake's only touchdown came on a 56-yard bomb when two Seminole defenders collided in the third quarter.

Minor capped a 10-play, 71-yard drive with a touchdown plunge from the 1 with 4:22 left in the third quarter, and ran in from 22 yards out in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring. ■

GAME NOTES

- Wake Forest was one of only six FSU opponents to score points in the second half of the game.
- Minor rushed for over 100 yards for the second straight game.
- Mario Edwards set an FSU record with four interceptions against the Deacons.
- FSU's win assured the Seminoles of at least a tie for their seventh ACC championship.

Marcus Outzen made his first-ever start for the Seminoles against Wake Forest, completing 11 of 19 passes for 164 yards.

GAME TWELVE NOVEMBER 21, 1998
FLORIDA STATE 23 FLORIDA 12

GATOR BASTE

WIDE RECEIVER Peter Warrick caught one touchdown pass and threw for another, and Florida State's defense did not allow Florida to convert a single third down all game as the fifth-ranked Seminoles defeated the fourth-ranked Gators, 23-12. The victory extended FSU's home unbeaten streak to 40 games and kept UF coach Steve Spurrier winless at Doak Campbell Stadium for his coaching career.

Marcus Outzen, starting just his second game at quarterback, completed 13 of 22 passes for 167 yards, including the 32-yarder to Warrick that gave FSU a 13-12 with 3:29 left in the third quarter — a lead they would never relinquish. Travis Minor led a potent FSU ground game with 127 yards on 30 carries.

Florida's only points came in the first half on a 50-yard TD bomb, a safety and a 22-yard field goal following the safety.

FSU's defense held UF scoreless in the second half and allowed the Gators just 204 yards of total offense, the lowest output for the Gators in eight years. Quarterback Doug Johnson was just 13 of 36 in the air and threw three interceptions.

Sebastian Janikowski drilled two field goals in the first half to offset Florida's 12 points and keep the Seminoles close, as they only trailed 12-6 at halftime.

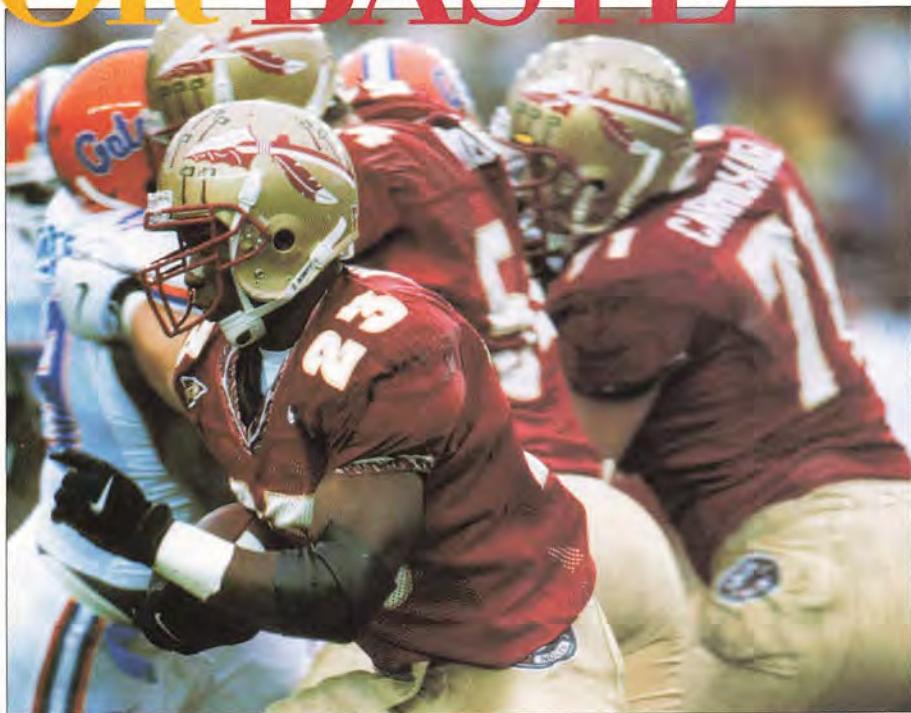

FSU's lead came on their first possession of the second half when Outzen's pass deflected off a Florida defender and into the hands of Warrick, who raced the remaining 32 yards into the end zone.

The Seminoles grabbed momentum for good early in the fourth quarter. Travis Minor's 46-yard touchdown run was called back for holding, but on the next play Warrick took a reverse and threw a 46-yard touchdown strike to Ron Dugans to give the Seminoles a 20-12 lead with 13:30 to go.

Janikowski sealed the win with a 41-yard field goal with 4:31 remaining. The win gave the Seminoles an 11-1 regular season record and gave FSU a 9-3-1 record over Florida since 1987. ■

GAME NOTES

- FSU's defense held Florida to a total of 14 yards on the ground and without a third-down conversion (0 for 13).
- Marcus Outzen's 32-yard TD pass was the first of his career.
- The win gave the Tribe a 40-game home unbeaten streak.
- Peter Warrick's 119 receiving yards gave him seven 100-yard games on the season.

1999 TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL ‘TWO’ THE VICTORS ...

IN ADDITION to a national championship, the winner of the 1999 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Football Classic will lay claim to some of the most impressive hardware in all of sports. Both Tennessee and Florida State are reserving room on their charter flights home for the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl game trophy and the Sears National Champion Football Trophy, which will be among the spoils for the winner of this season's Bowl Championship Series January 4 title at the Fiesta Bowl.

Combined, the two awards measure nearly five feet in height, and weigh in at more than 100 pounds. Materials used in crafting these impressive trophies include Waterford Crystal, bronze, aluminum, ironwood and poplar. While the trophies' combined value is more than $35,000, the worth to their eventual owners is closer to priceless.

While the Fiesta Bowl Trophy has been presented since the 1982 Fiesta Bowl, the Sears Trophy joined the scene as the symbol of college football supremacy earlier this decade, and was first awarded to college football's national champion Florida State following the 1993 season. The two trophies have been presented to the same team only once, with top-ranked University of Nebraska claiming the Sears Trophy and Fiesta Bowl Trophy by virtue of the Cornhuskers' national championship-sealing win over the second-ranked University of Florida in the 1996 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

A total of 13 different schools have won the Fiesta Bowl Trophy, while only three different schools have been awarded the Sears Trophy. After winning the inaugural Fiesta Bowl Trophy in 1982, Penn State University has gone on to win the award a total of four times over the next 17 Fiesta Bowls. While several other schools have been repeat winners at the Fiesta Bowl, Penn State (1982, '87, '92, '97) is joined by only Florida State University (1988, '90) as teams to have won multiple Fiesta Bowl Trophies.

Florida State University won the inaugural Sears Trophy following the 1993 season, followed by consecutive trophy awards to the University of Nebraska following the 1994 and 1995 seasons. The University of Florida reclaimed the Sears Trophy for the Sunshine State following the 1996 season, only to have the prestigious award return to the University of Nebraska last season.

Bronze artist and Arizona native Dora Perry created the Fiesta Bowl trophy in the fall of 1981, starting with a wax rendition of the current trophy design. From this original design, Perry created a plaster cast that has been used in forming the bronze trophy each year. The base of the trophy is a large piece of ironwood, a native wood of Arizona. In all, the completed trophy stands approximately 18 inches tall and weighs nearly 60 pounds.

The Sears Trophy takes several craftsmen a period of months to produce. The process begins in Waterford, Ireland with the three-month project of crafting the Waterford Crystal ball that sits atop the Sears Trophy.

Louisville, Ky woodworker Tom Tucker then creates the poplar wood base for the trophy, finishing it with several coats of high gloss automotive lacquer. Two other trophy companies are called upon to create the plaques on the front and back of the trophy and the wood, glass and aluminum "tee" which supports the crystal football. The finished product is awarded to the No. 1-ranked team in the final American Football Coaches Poll.

After logging more than 15,000 miles and appearing in front of more than 500,000 fans at eight 1998 regular season college football games, the Sears Trophy is being readied one last time for its history-making appearance at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. As part of the new BCS format, the Sears Trophy will join the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Trophy when both awards are presented onfield to the winning team immediately following the BCS National Championship Game.

Even after the grueling regular season and a hard-fought battle on January 4, neither team's players should mind beginning their off-season weight lifting program by hoisting the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Trophy and the Sears National Champion Football Trophy in the exclamation that "We're Number One!" *

When all the ballots were delivered

The entire crowd of 83,687 in Austin rose to their feet as No. 34, in the burnt orange shirt with the white number, broke a tackle and headed down the left sideline. He would finally be brought down, but well into the end zone. The crowd roared, having witnessed the fall of a record many thought would never be broken. It was fitting that Ricky Williams's run to immortality would come in Austin, where he chose the quest for fame over the fortune in the NFL.

On that memorable touchdown run, Williams not only broke away from the Texas A&M defense but also from every other running back who ever played college football. The number 34, already made legendary at Texas by Earl Campbell, became even more so. That 60-yard touchdown run put Williams ahead of Tony Dorsett's 6,082 yards, the old NCAA career rushing record. He would rush for 259 yards on the day, to finish with 6,279 overall. The Longhorns' dramatic 26-24 win in the showdown with A&M put a nice finishing touch on an 8-3 season.

Even though Williams had a successful 1997, 1,878 rushing yards, and won the Dr Pepper Doak Walker Award, the season was nightmarish for the 4-7 Longhorns. Williams decided that wasn't the way he wanted to go out. The naming of Mack Brown as head coach cemented his decision to stay.

From Week One, against New Mexico State (36 carries, 215 yards), Williams was the focus of every defensive game plan.

He went over 100 yards in nine of 11 games, over 200 yards five times — to tie Marcus Allen with 11 career 200-yard games — and became the first player to record back-to-back 300-yard games, including a career-high 350 yards against Iowa State. Williams added 27 touchdowns, twice scoring six TDs in a game.

"If he doesn't win the Heisman Trophy, I don't know who the heck should," said Nebraska defensive coordinator Charlie McBride. "At times, it was a man against boys. He's the real deal."

The only team able to deal with the dreadlocked powerhouse from San Diego was Kansas State. The Wildcats

ON THE RECORD

Texas's record-setting running back Ricky Williams was a runaway winner in the 1998 Heisman Trophy race.

STEPHEN DUNN/ALLSPORT

held Williams to a mere 43 yards on 25 carries. Kansas State, which was vying for the national championship, was led by an offensive machine and Heisman Trophy candidate of its own, quarterback Michael Bishop.

Bishop threw for 2,844 yards, with 23 touchdowns and only four interceptions. He also ran for 748 yards and 14 scores. Bishop played his best in the biggest games. Against Nebraska, he threw for 306 yards and two TDs, and rushed for 140 yards and two more scores as KSU broke a 30-year jinx against the Huskers, winning 40-30.

Against Texas A&M in the Big 12 title game, Bishop completed 19 of 28 passes for 341 yards and two scores.

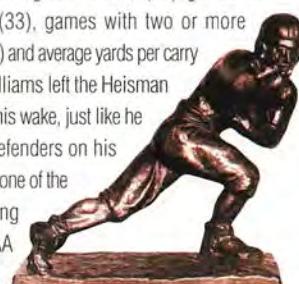

He also ran for 101 yards and a touchdown. But his fumble late in regulation led to the tying score, as A&M won in double-overtime, 36-33.

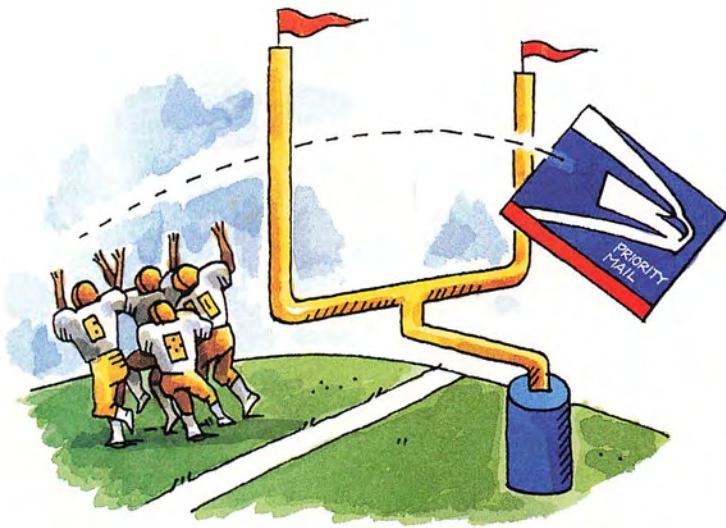

Earlier that same day, UCLA's Cade McNown added to his Heisman-caliber credentials, but saw his team's national title hopes vanish in similar heartbreaking fashion. McNown threw for a school-record 513 yards and five touchdowns in the Bruins' 49-45 loss in Miami.

Overall, McNown threw for 3,130 yards and 18 touchdowns. Like Bishop, he had one of his biggest games against Williams and Texas — 20 of 30 for 339 yards, three TDs. But he saved his best for the state of Oregon, throwing for 377 yards and four TDs against Oregon State and 395 yards and three scores against Oregon. McNown finished as the Pac-10's career total offense leader, won the Johnny Unitas Award, presented to the top senior quarterback, and was a Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist.

Kentucky junior Tim Couch led the resurgence of football in Kentucky, throwing for 3,938 yards and 34 touchdowns and completing over 73 percent of his passes (365 of 497). He threw for at least 300 yards in every game and over 400 yards four times. Three times he came within 10 yards of the 500-yard mark. Couch set SEC season records for completions and yards. Against Arkansas, he set single-game records for attempts (67), completions (47) and yards (499).

When all the ballots were delivered, there was no doubt about the Heisman Trophy winner. Williams had not only passed Dorsett but also set NCAA records for all-purpose yards (7,206), touchdowns (75), rushing touchdowns (72), games with a touchdown (33), games with two or more touchdowns (21) and average yards per carry (6.2). Ricky Williams left the Heisman competition in his wake, just like he did so many defenders on his way to breaking one of the longest-standing records in NCAA history.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Kansas State quarterback Michael Bishop flashed a winning smile as the Wildcats defeated Syracuse, 35-18, in the 1998 Fiesta Bowl.

TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL XXVII

Kansas State 35, Syracuse 18

December 31, 1997

Attendance: 69,367

Offensive Player of the Game: Michael Bishop, Kansas State

Defensive Player of the Game: Travis Ochs, Kansas State

Sportsmanship Award: Jason Walters, Syracuse

Head Coaches: Bill Snyder, Kansas State, Paul Pasqualoni, Syracuse

Weather: Clear, warm

Payout Per Team: $8,500,000

AMID A SEA OF FANS DRESSED IN PURPLE,

Kansas State recorded what many believe was the biggest win in the school's history, as Michael Bishop passed and rushed the Wildcats to a 35-18 victory over Syracuse in Tostitos Fiesta Bowl XXVII.

During the only Fiesta Bowl game played on New Year's Eve, Bishop supplied his own fireworks with 317 yards and four touchdowns through the air and 73 yards and one touchdown on the ground. The win culminated an 11-1 season for Kansas State, the first 11-win season in the school's history, with its only loss coming to eventual national champion Nebraska.

Another key to Kansas State's victory was wide receiver Darnell McDonald, who established Fiesta Bowl records for most receiving yards (206) and longest reception (77 yards for a touchdown), while also tying the Fiesta Bowl record with three touchdown receptions.

Syracuse, behind one of the nation's most exciting players in quarterback Donovan McNabb, moved the ball on offense but had a hard time putting the ball in the end zone when it got into Kansas State territory. The Orangemen were held to three short field goals by Nathan Trout and had a key turnover late in the game.

Trailing 28-18, Syracuse had the ball at the Kansas State 17-yard line. McNabb took the snap and ran to the left side where he looked to have a clear path to the end zone. But, as he turned the corner, the ball hit off his hip, and Defensive Player of the Game Travis Ochs recovered for Kansas State.

The Wildcats took advantage of the turnover, as they marched down the field and scored on a 41-yard touchdown pass from Bishop to McDonald that put the game out of reach. ■

Penn State 14, Miami 10

January 2, 1987

Attendance: 73,098

Offensive Player of the Game: D.J. Dozier, Penn State

HEAD COACH JIMMY JOHNSON brought his powerful Miami Hurricanes to Tempe to oppose legendary Penn State Coach Joe Paterno and the Nittany Lions on Jan. 2, a day set aside by NBC to spotlight the top college football game of the year.

Dubbed the "Battle for Number 1," top-ranked Miami and second-ranked Penn State dueled to the final nine seconds of the game when Penn State's Pete Gifopoulos intercepted a Vinny Testaverde pass to preserve the Nittany Lions' victory and the national championship.

With the victory, Penn State claimed its second national title in five years. The Nittany Lions intercepted Heisman Trophy winner Testaverde five times, but none was bigger than the fourth-and-goal play with just nine ticks left on the clock.

The Hurricanes began the potential go-ahead drive at their own 23 with 3:09 remaining. Testaverde threw two incomplete passes before hitting Brian Blades with a crucial 31-yard pickup on a fourth-down play.

With the completion to Blades, Testaverde had connected on six straight completions to take the ball to PSU's six-yard line. Gifopoulos picked off the pass three plays later at the one and returned it to the 11, where players and fans ran onto the field.

Miami scored first in the second quarter on Melvin Bratton's one-yard dive. After the kickoff, Penn State quarterback John Shaffer drove his team 74 yards, capping the drive with a four-yard touchdown run to even the score at halftime.

The stalemate continued into the second half until Miami took an early lead on Mark Seelig's 38-yard field goal. An interception by PSU's Shane Conlan, the defensive player of the game, set up a six-yard touchdown run by D.J. Dozier, the offensive player of the game, to put the Lions ahead, 14-10, which would end up being the final margin of victory. *

Penn State signal caller John Shaffer was effective when it mattered most, scoring on a four-yard touchdown run to help lead the Nittany Lions to a 14-10 Fiesta Bowl victory and the national title.

THE FIESTA BOWL was back in the spotlight. Top-ranked Notre Dame and No. 3 West Virginia met in the Fiesta Bowl's second game in three years that decided college football's national champion.

The Fighting Irish exploded to a 23-6 halftime lead over the Mountaineers and never looked back, recording a 34-21 victory to claim the national championship.

Notre Dame jumped out to a 16-0 lead and didn't allow West Virginia to come closer than 13 points the rest of the game, as the Irish captured their 11th national title.

Billy Hackett began the game's scoring by kicking a 45-yard field goal on Notre Dame's first possession. The Irish scored on a one-yard run by Anthony Johnson and added a five-yard run by Rodney Culver to take the 16-0 lead.

The Mountaineers got on the scoreboard midway through the second quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Charlie Baumann. But the "Rocket," Raghib Ismail, caught a 29-yard TD pass from Tony Rice to increase the Irish lead to 23-3. Baumann kicked a 32-yarder as the half ended.

The Mountaineers scored 15 second-half points, but Notre Dame scored 11 points of their own to claim the victory. The Irish racked up 455 total yards to West Virginia's 282. ■

IT WAS THE PERFECT MATCHUP.

No. 1 Nebraska against No. 2 Florida.

Both teams were undefeated and untied, only the fifth time in college football history that had happened in a bowl game.

It was January 2, prime time, under the lights and the entire world watching.

And with the blink of an eye, Nebraska flexed its muscles, showed its big-game experience and rolled over Florida, 62-24, to claim its second consecutive national championship.

The Cornhuskers did it on both sides of the football. Offensively, they rushed for an NCAA bowl record 524 yards. Defensively, they recorded seven sacks, forced four turnovers, had a safety and returned an interception for a touchdown.

Tommie Frazier and the Cornhuskers were too much for Florida to handle as Nebraska overwhelmed the Gators, 62-24, for a convincing national championship victory.

In a game with several stars, it was Nebraska's Tommie Frazier who owned the spotlight. Frazier threw for a touchdown and ran for two scores, including one of the most exciting runs in college football history, a 75-yard tackle-breaking dazzler.

He finished with 199 yards rushing, the most by any quarterback in bowl game history.

Lawrence Phillips also had a huge game, rushing for 165 yards and two touchdowns. ■

KEN AKERS

Nebraska's stingy defense was a big red machine in 1996, limiting Florida's high-powered offense to a Fiesta Bowl record-low 12 yards rushing during the Huskers' 62-24 victory.

SUN DEVIL STADIUM

"Home of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl"

SINCE 1971, Sun Devil Stadium has been the site of the Fiesta Bowl. Just like the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Football Classic itself, the stadium has grown and has had the opportunity to host many of professional and college football's greatest moments.

The facility has played host to three Fiesta Bowl national championship games, and was the site of Super Bowl XXX in January 1996.

The most recent additions to Sun Devil Stadium were completed in 1989. A three-tiered press box with luxury sky boxes was completed in August 1989. Sun Devil Stadium's current capacity, 73,471, makes it the largest on-campus stadium in the Pac-10 Conference.

Sun Devil Stadium was ideally placed between two small mountains — the Tempe Buttes — which have comfortably accommodated the stadium's growth. Originally built in 1958, additions to the stadium began in 1976, increasing the capacity to 57,222. In 1977, the capacity was increased to 70,491.

During the 1977 stadium expansion, design features enabled the building to be modernized without light supports, sound system supports or construction pillars in the viewing line of the spectators.

In 1988, the expansion added a loge seating section that completed the oval of the stadium and added nearly 1,700 seats. Also added to the south end of the stadium was a state-of-the-art scoreboard and four-color video replay board.

Following the 1992 Fiesta Bowl, Arizona State University lowered the stadium's playing surface approximately four feet and widened the field considerably to enhance player safety and for the benefit of sideline media members. An underground system of pipes was also added to aid in the irrigation and drainage of the playing surface. ♦

COLLEGE FOOTBALL ENTERS A NEW ERA THE MAIN EVENT

A YEAR AGO, undefeated Michigan edged Washington State in the Rose Bowl and, a day later, undefeated Nebraska shellacked Tennessee in the Orange Bowl. When the final polls were tallied up, the Associated Press media poll proclaimed Michigan No. 1, while the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll tabbed Nebraska as the top team in the land.

The question remained, "Who's No. 1?"

In an effort to better determine college football's national champion, the Bowl Championship Series was developed. It is an unprecedented alliance among major bowl games and conferences that seeks to determine an undisputed national championship on the field, while at the same time preserving the color, pageantry and tradition of the bowl games that uniquely distinguish college football from its professional counterpart. The Bowl Championship Series differs from its predecessor, the Bowl Alliance, in that, for the first time, it guarantees a matchup between college football's two top teams in a true National Championship game. The inclusion of the Rose Bowl and Big Ten and Pac-10 Conferences saw to that.

The Bowl Championship Series, or BCS as it has come to be called, consists of four bowls — the Rose, FedEx Orange, Nokia Sugar and Tostitos Fiesta Bowls. Those four bowls will rotate the National Championship Game, with the Fiesta serving as host in this inaugural season. Six conference champions have automatic berths in the BCS bowls — the Big Ten, Pac-10, Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big 12 and Southeastern Conferences. Two at-large berths remain. Champions from other conferences, such as the Western Athletic or Conference USA, or any Division I-A independent will automatically be accorded an at-large berth if they finish in the top six in the BCS rankings.

"Any team in the country can play its way in," said BCS coordinator Roy Kramer.

"It doesn't matter if you are in a conference or an independent, it's possible for a team to play its way into one of the games."

Any remaining BCS bowl at-large spots will be filled by teams that meet one of the following requirements:

- (1) won at least eight games,
- (2) ranked among the top 12 teams in the final BCS regular season ranking, or
- (3) ranked no lower in the final BCS regular season ranking than the lowest ranking BCS automatic qualifying conference champion.

And just what are these BCS rankings that are so important in determining who plays in the BCS bowls? Well, they are the old polls and more, much more.

The BCS rankings consist of four major components:

- (1) the Associated Press media poll and USA Today/ESPN coaches' polls, averaged together to get a single ranking,
- (2) the Jeff Sagarin USA Today, Seattle Times and New York Times computer rankings, averaged together to get a single ranking,

"We believe this is a much improved system over simply using the polls."

This year, painted fans should know for sure that their school is the national champion.

- (3) a strength of schedule component,
- (4) a team's won-loss record.

"We believe this is a much improved system over simply using the polls," said Kramer. "In years where there might be more than two teams undefeated or several teams that have similar records, this system will help evaluate and distinguish between those teams."

The BCS also will mark the return of regional consideration regarding bowl team selection in a move that will retain some of the traditions built up by the bowls over the years. Specifically, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions are not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl and the ACC or Big East champion in the Orange Bowl. If a BCS bowl loses a host team to the National Championship Game, then that bowl shall have first choice in selecting a replacement team from the available pool of teams, although it cannot select the host team of another BCS bowl.

For example, if the SEC champion is No. 1 in the BCS poll and the Pac-10 champion is No. 2 in the BCS poll, then the Sugar Bowl gets first choice in selecting a replacement team, while the Rose Bowl gets second choice. If a Pac-10 team is No. 1 in the BCS and a Big Ten team is No. 2 in the BCS, then the Rose Bowl would have the first and second choices in selecting a replacement team from the available pool of teams.

The Tostitos Fiesta Bowl kicks off the Bowl Championship Series rotation this year, with the Rose Bowl slated to host the National Championship Game in 2002 following the 2001 regular season. *

ROAD TO TEMPEDon't Worry, Be Happy

John Cooper wasn't pleased that his top-ranked Buckeyes had to travel to Morgantown to open the season at No. 11 West Virginia, but he was in a different mood after Ohio State's 34-17 victory.

"I'm a happy football coach," he said. "We walked into a great, hostile crowd and won the game."

Joe Germaine passed for 301 yards and two touchdowns and Michael Wiley ran for 140 yards and a score for the Buckeyes, who amassed 549 total yards. Ohio State led, 20-10 at halftime, then put the game away in the third quarter with a 96-yard drive capped by Germaine's 36-yard touchdown pass to David Boston.

Maize and (Feeling) Blue

Jarius Jackson threw two touchdown passes in the third quarter and Autry Denson ran for two scores in the fourth quarter as No. 22 Notre Dame stunned defending-national champion Michigan, 36-20, in South Bend. The Irish trailed at halftime, 13-6, but reeled off 30 consecutive points to turn the game into a rout. Denson finished with 162 yards rushing on 24 carries as Notre Dame amassed 280 yards on the ground. En route to its national title in 1997, Michigan permitted just 89 yards rushing per game.

A day after the rout, the fifth-ranked Wolverines were still stunned.

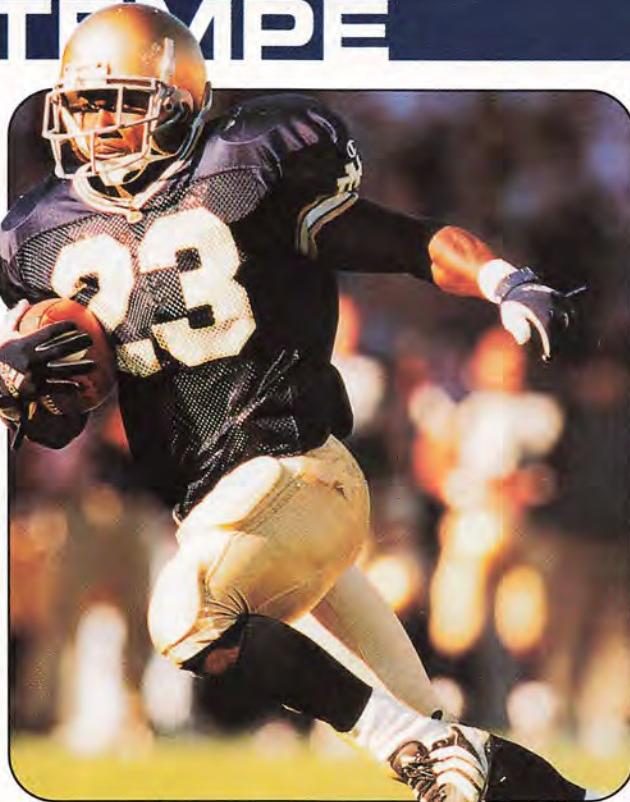

"I didn't like the tape any more than I liked the game," head coach Lloyd Carr said.

It's Tee Time

Quarterback Tee Martin, Peyton Manning's backup the last two seasons, made a successful debut as a starter, and Jeff Hall kicked a 27-yard field goal as time ran out to give 10th-ranked Tennessee a 34-33 victory over No. 17 Syracuse. Martin completed just nine of 26 passes for 143 yards, but had scoring strikes of 12 and seven yards to Peerless Price, and ran one yard for a touchdown. He also had a 55-yard run to set up one of his touchdown passes.

ROAD TO TEMPESeminole Cut Off at the Pass

North Carolina State stunned No. 2 Florida State, 24-7, on the strength of six pass interceptions by its defense.

The Wolfpack, which had to rally to beat Ohio University a week earlier, spotted the Seminoles a 7-0 lead when Chris Weinke tossed a 74-yard touchdown pass to Peter Warrick just 20 seconds into the game. But North Carolina State did not permit Florida State to score again, and took the lead for good at 13-7 on Torry Holt's 68-yard punt return for a touchdown with 3:14 left in the first quarter. Holt also caught a 63-yard touchdown pass from Jamie Barnette 5:29 into the final period. Weinke, the 26-year-old quarterback making his second collegiate start, completed only nine of 32 passes. His six interceptions set a school record.

Extraordinary Joe

No. 9 Penn State routed Bowling Green, 48-3, to give Head coach Joe Paterno his 300th career coaching victory.

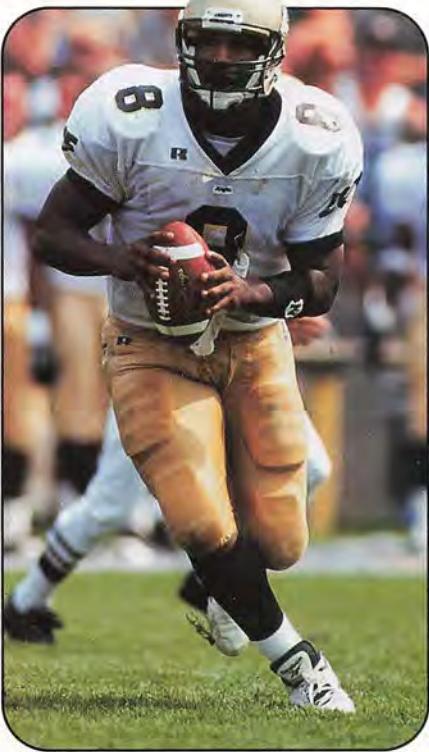

The Nittany Lions built a 21-0 lead midway through the first quarter and never were challenged. Cordell Mitchell ran 77 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play, and finished with 104 yards and two touchdowns on only six carries.

Paterno joined Bear Bryant, Pop Warner and Amos Alonzo Stagg as the only major-college coaches with 300 victories (Grambling's Eddie Robinson holds the NCAA record with 408).

Penn State's coach was surprised at how emotional he was over the milestone. "I'm so overwhelmed, I really can't tell you how welled up I am with the memories," Paterno said.

Ready-Freddie

Redshirt freshman wide receiver Freddie Mitchell threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to cap the opening drive of the game, and sixth-ranked UCLA blasted No. 23 Texas for the second consecutive season, 49-31. Mitchell also caught four game (240).

"I've coached a lot of years and had a lot of great backs," Tigers coach Larry Smith said, "but I've never seen a performance like that."

Around College Football

Fifth-ranked Kansas State followed its 66-0 victory over Indiana State in the season opener with a 73-7 rout of Northern Illinois. Michael Bishop ran for two touchdowns and passed for two for the Wildcats, who amassed 59 points in the first half ... Michigan State bounced back from its disastrous 0-2 start to wallop 10th-ranked Notre Dame, 45-23. Bill Burke threw three touchdown passes as the Spartans built a 42-3 halftime lead ... Michigan and Arizona State, preseason choices to contend for the national title, each fell to 0-2. The defending national champion Wolverines lost back-to-back games to start the season for only the second time in 40 years when they were stunned, 38-28, by 19th-ranked Syracuse before more than 111,000 fans in Ann Arbor. Orangemen quarterback Donovan McNabb passed for three touchdowns and ran for another as his team built a 38-7 lead through three quarters. Arizona State traveled to Provo and was ambushed by BYU, 26-6. The 14th-ranked Sun Devils trailed, 26-0, before scoring a touchdown late in the game ... Quarterback Daunte Culpepper accounted for all seven touchdowns in Central Florida's 48-0 shutout of Eastern Illinois. Culpepper, who compasses for 108 yards, including a 79-yard touchdown, ran 30 yards on a reverse, and returned punts and kickoffs for 95 yards in his first college game.

The Bruins won their school-record 11th consecutive game. They began the streak with a 66-3 rout of the Longhorns last year in Texas.

Go West

Devin West rushed for 319 yards to lead 25th-ranked Missouri past Kansas, 41-23. The Jayhawks limited Corby Jones, the Tigers' explosive option quarterback, to 139 yards rushing and passing. But they could not contain West, who had 10 rushes of 10 yards or more.

West carried the ball 33 times and scored on touchdown runs of three and 45 yards. He easily surpassed Missouri's 57-year-old school record for yards in a pleted 28 of 33 passes for 406 yards, threw for four touchdowns and ran for three more.

WEEK 3 ROAD TO TEMPE

Hall's Fame

Sixth-ranked Tennessee knocked off second-rated Florida 20-17 on Jeff Hall's 41-yard field goal in overtime. It was the second consecutive game that Hall won for the Volunteers. Tennessee edged Syracuse 33-30 in its opener two weeks earlier on Hall's 27-yard field goal as time expired.

The Gators tied this game at 17 on Jesse Palmer's 70-yard touchdown pass to Travis McGriff with 5:18 left in the third quarter. After a scoreless fourth period, the Volunteers got the ball first in overtime and settled for Hall's field goal. When Florida's Collins Cooper missed a 32-yard try on the next possession, Tennessee had its first victory over the Gators in six years.

GEORGIA SPORTS INFORMATION

Life of Wiley

Michael Wiley rushed for a career-high 209 yards and two touchdowns, and top-ranked Ohio State turned a 14-13 halftime deficit into a 35-14 victory over No. 21 Missouri.

Wiley carried the ball 24 times and helped the Buckeyes amass a whopping 320 yards on the ground. Joe Montgomery added 78 yards on 11 carries, and put Ohio State ahead for good with a six-yard touchdown run with 6:01 left in the third quarter. Wiley's 11-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter broke open the game.

The Buckeyes gained 531 yards in all, and limited Missouri's option attack to 211 yards. Ohio State head coach John Cooper was pleased with his team's defensive performance. He called it a "good old, rock 'em, sock 'em football game."

Letdown

Twentieth-ranked North Carolina State, sky-high after its upset of then-No. 2 Florida State in Week 2, promptly fell behind unranked Baylor 26-0 by halftime, then had a valiant comeback fall short, 33-30.

The Wolfpack, which overcame a 17-point deficit to beat Ohio in the opening week, pulled within three points on Ray Robinson's 34-yard run 2:47 into the final quarter. But their last chance to tie ended in the final seconds when Baylor's James Calvin blocked Kent Passingham's 39-yard field-goal attempt.

Performance of a Champ

Two-way star Champ Bailey played a key role on both sides of the ball to lead 12th-ranked Georgia to a 16-9 decision over Wyoming.

On offense, Bailey caught six passes for 100 yards, including a 51-yard touchdown from freshman Quincy Carter to give the Bulldogs a 16-3 lead just 2:22 before halftime. On defense, he ended the Cowboys' opening possession of the second half with a one-handed interception in Georgia territory. The Bulldogs improved to 3-0 for the second consecutive year.

Around College Football

Jermaine Lewis tied a school record by rushing for four touchdowns in fourth-ranked UCLA's 42-24 victory over Houston. But the Bruins' 12th consecutive victory was tempered by an injury to explosive freshman wide receiver Freddie Mitchell, who broke his leg returning a kickoff and was lost for the season ... Cornerback Toure Butler returned a fumble 35 yards for a touchdown and returned a kickoff 98 yards for another score to carry ninth-ranked Washington past BYU, 20-10 ... Chris Weinke, who was intercepted six times in Florida State's loss to North Carolina State in Week 2, bounced back to lead the No. 11 Seminoles to a 62-13 rout of Duke. Weinke completed 11 of 19 passes for 241 yards and three touchdowns and was not intercepted ... No. 22 Oregon scored on three plays of more than 55 yards in the first quarter and went on to blast San Jose State 58-3. The Ducks averaged more than 46 points and 500 total yards while winning their first three games ... Defending national champion Michigan, 0-2 after suffering upsets in its first two games, took out its frustrations on Eastern Michigan with a 59-20 pounding.

— Jim Gigliotti

Champ Bailey broke Wyoming's Cowboys on both offense and defense to keep Georgia's three-game win streak alive.

ROAD TO TEMPERush to Judgement

Second-ranked Nebraska manhandled ninth-rated Washington 55-7 behind a devastating running attack that produced 434 yards.

Running back DeAngelo Evans, playing his first game since 1996 because of injuries, rushed for 146 yards and three touchdowns on only 13 carries, and quarterback Bobby Newcombe added three rushing touchdowns for the Cornhuskers.

Newcombe capped the game's opening possession with a three-yard touchdown run just 4:23 into the first quarter. Evans raced 60 yards for another touchdown less than two minutes later, and the rout was on. Nebraska ran the ball on 68 of its 77 plays from scrimmage, and averaged 6.4 yards per carry en route to its 18th consecutive victory.

Defense States Its Case

At the same time Nebraska was beating Washington, the Pac-10 suffered another interconference setback when 10th-ranked Florida State beat No. 18 USC, 30-10.

Chris Weinke threw two touchdown passes and Sebastian Janikowski kicked three field goals, but it was the Seminoles' defense that really made the difference. The Trojans managed only eight first downs and 189 total yards — a large chunk of it on a 73-yard run by Frank Strong that led to their lone touchdown in the third quarter — while maintaining possession for just 20 minutes.

Florida State harassed USC quarterbacks Mike Van Raaphorst and Carson Palmer into only three completions in 19 attempts for 23 yards.

Hog Heaven

Unranked Arkansas served notice that it was back on the national scene with a 42-6 thumping of No. 22 Alabama at Fayetteville. The Razorbacks raised their record to 3-0 with the victory.

Quarterback Clint Stoerner threw three touchdown passes, and Arkansas' suffocating defense allowed the Crimson Tide only seven first downs and 152 total yards. Stoerner's 21-yard touchdown pass to Michael Snowden 1:23 into the second quarter gave the Razorbacks the lead for good at 7-3. The two teamed again on a 36-yard touchdown with 5:44 left in the third quarter to break open the game at 21-6.

tucky 51-35 in a wild shootout that featured more than 1,000 yards total offense.

The Gators won when their two-quarterback system of Doug Johnson and Jesse Palmer combined to pass for 452 yards and seven touchdowns. That offset a 406-yard, three touchdown performance by the Wildcats' Tim Couch. Kentucky scored on pass plays of 97 and 74 yards and a kickoff return of 100 yards, but Florida's quarterbacks proved to be the difference in the first half. Johnson threw three touchdown passes and Palmer had two as the Gators built a 35-14 lead in the second quarter and held on to win.

Top-ranked Ohio State had a bye week; No. 3 UCLA ended up with a bye week when the threat of Hurricane Georges postponed its game at Miami ... Fifth-rated Kansas State routed another opponent, blasting Northeast Louisiana 62-7. Michael Bishop passed for 441 yards and four touchdowns ... Twentieth-rated Oregon raised its record to 4-0 with a 63-28 victory over Stanford. Reuben Droughns rushed for 214 yards and three touchdowns and Akili Smith passed for four touchdowns for the Ducks, who have not scored more points in a game in 82 years ... Jim Sanson's 17-yard field goal with 57 seconds left rallied 23rd-ranked Notre Dame to a 31-30 victory over Purdue. The Irish, who trailed by as many as 14 points in the first half, scored 10 points in the final 3:36 to win ... Ricky Williams rushed for 318 yards and six touchdowns in Texas' 59-21 rout of Rice. Williams ran his totals to 567 yards and 11 touchdowns in victories over the Owls the last two seasons.

Buckeyes Get Defensive

No. 1 Ohio State scored two touchdowns on defense and erased the sting of a loss to Penn State last season by beating the Nittany Lions, 28-9.

"This game was taken a little bit personally," OSU linebacker Jerry Rudzinski said. "We wanted to redeem ourselves from that embarrassment last year."

Penn State took over the top spot in the polls a year ago with a 31-27 victory in State College. This time, however, the Buckeyes won easily in Columbus.

Rudzinski gave his team the lead for good when he recovered a fumble in the end zone 3:55 before halftime. It was 14-3 at the intermission, and Ohio State put the game away when Joe Cooper recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 21-3 lead early in the third quarter. That was more than enough against a Nittany Lions' offense that managed only 181 total yards.

One Giant Leap

Fourteenth-ranked Arizona won a thrilling 31-28 decision over No. 20 Washington when quarterback Ortege Jenkins ran nine yards for a touchdown with four seconds left.

Jenkins, who alternates at quarterback with Keith Smith, won the game in spectacular fashion by vaulting over three defenders and landing on his feet in the end zone.

The victory was the Wildcats' fifth without a loss this season and ninth in a row over the last two years. The Huskies lost their second straight after cracking the top 10, and fell out of the rankings.

Quincy's Show

Quincy Carter completed his first 15 passes en route to a 27-of-34, 318-yard performance that carried 12th-rated Georgia to a 28-27 upset victory at No. 6 LSU.

The freshman quarterback threw two touchdown passes, the latter a 17-yard strike to Tony Small to break a 21-21 tie midway through the third quarter. That enabled the Bulldogs to withstand two field goals by Christian Chauvin in the fourth quarter.

Georgia won its fourth consecutive game and handed the Tigers their first loss after three victories.

The Ayes of Texas

If you asked Texas fans who deserves the Heisman Trophy, you'd find little dissension that it's Ricky Williams, especially after the Longhorns' senior tailback ran wild for the second consecutive week.

Williams, who rushed for 318 yards against Rice in Week 4, bettered that with a school-record 350 yards in a 54-33 victory over Iowa State.

Williams also scored five times, giving him 11 touchdowns in two weeks and 65 touchdowns in his career. That broke the NCAA record for career touchdowns and most points by a non-kicker.

Around College Football

Second-ranked Nebraska and No. 8 Florida survived close calls away from home. The Cornhuskers hung on to beat Oklahoma State, 24-17, when they stopped Cowboys running back Nathan Simmons less than a yard short of the goal line on the game's final play. The Gators edged Alabama, 16-10 ... Unranked North Carolina State, which beat Florida State earlier in the season, pulled off another upset, routing No. 11 Syracuse, 38-17, on Thursday night ... Ron Dayne rushed for 130 yards and a touchdown in No. 13 Wisconsin's 24-20 victory over Indiana. Dayne became the sixth player in major-college history to eclipse 4,000 yards rushing for his career ... No. 15 Colorado raised its record to 5-0 by holding off Oklahoma, 27-25. The Sooners scored a pair of touchdowns in the final 9:16 but could not overcome a 15-point deficit ... Dante Hall rushed for 177 yards and three touchdowns, including the game winner with 3:24 remaining, in Texas A&M's 24-21 victory over Kansas. The Aggies won their fourth straight after losing to Florida State in the Kickoff Classic ... Purdue quarterback Drew Brees completed 31 of 36 passes for 522 yards and six touchdowns in the Boilermakers' 56-21 rout of Minnesota.

Revenge was sweet for Jerry Rudzinski and his Buckeye defense mates.

Nebraska Falls

Eighteenth-ranked Texas A&M built a 28-7 lead, then held off Nebraska down the stretch to upset the second-ranked Cornhuskers, 28-21, in College Station.

The Aggies' victory snapped Nebraska's 19-game winning streak and its 40-game conference winning streak dating back to 1992. Dante Hall rushed for 113 yards and one touchdown and Ja'Mar Toombs added 110 yards and a touchdown for Texas A&M, which outgained the Cornhuskers' potent ground attack, 259-141. Toombs' three-yard touchdown run on the first play of the fourth quarter increased the Aggies' lead to 21 points. That was enough despite two touchdowns from Nebraska in a 2:39 span of the final quarter. Sedrick Curry ended the Cornhuskers' last chance with an interception in the final minute.

Lightning in the Desert

Third-ranked UCLA's 52-28 victory at No. 10 Arizona, coupled with Nebraska's loss to Texas A&M, left the Bruins with the nation's longest winning streak at 14.

The Wildcats led, 28-24, late in the third quarter before UCLA turned the game around with stunning rapidity. First, quarterback Cade McNown ran three yards for a touchdown to give the Bruins the lead for good 20 seconds before the end of the third period. Then, UCLA turned the game into a rout by scoring three touchdowns on its next four plays from scrimmage: McNown's 64-yard touchdown pass to Danny Farmer and touchdown runs of 54 and 20 yards by Keith Brown.

The Bruins played without starting running back Jermaine Lewis, who was suspended for one game, but still rushed for 297 yards and five touchdowns.

Mighty Ducks

Oregon tuned up for its Week 7 battle at UCLA by routing defending Pac-10 champion Washington State, 51-29. The 15th-ranked Ducks improved to 5-0, their best start in 34 years.

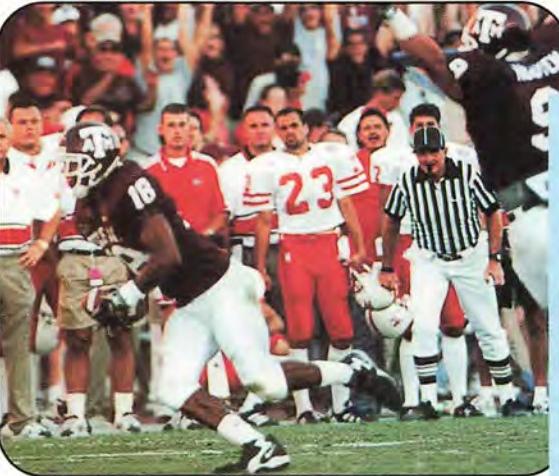

Reuben Droughns rushed for 217 yards and scored four touchdowns, and Akili Smith passed for 280 yards and three scores for Oregon, which showcased its formidable offense by amassing 527 total yards.

Through five games, the Ducks were averaging 50.6 points and 539.8 yards per game. Both figures were second in the nation.

when Tennessee beat Georgia and Florida upended LSU.

The fourth-ranked Volunteers handed the seventh-rated Bulldogs a 22-3 defeat in Athens. Tee Martin threw three-yard touchdown passes on consecutive possessions to open the second half and break open a game that was 9-3 at the intermission.

The good news for the sixth-ranked Gators was their 22-10 victory over No. 11 LSU. The bad news was injuries to quarterback Jesse Palmer and leading rusher Terry Jackson. Palmer, who was named the starter after Florida jettisoned its two-quarterback platoon, broke his collarbone in the second quarter.

Around College Football

No. 1 Ohio State had no trouble again, routing Illinois, 41-0, behind quarterback Joe Germaine, who passed for 307 yards and three touchdowns ... Fifth-ranked Kansas State, however, survived its toughest test of the season, edging No. 14 Colorado, 16-9. The Wildcats equalled a school record with their 13th consecutive victory, while the Buffaloes dropped their first game after starting the season 5-0 ... Peter Warrick caught seven passes for 190 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown, to lead eighth-ranked Florida State past Miami, 26-14. The Seminoles beat the Hurricanes for the fourth consecutive year ... No. 12 Wisconsin remained undefeated by beating Purdue, 31-24, despite a prolific performance by Drew Brees. The Boilermakers' quarterback completed an NCAA-record-tying 55 passes in a record 83 attempts for 494 yards ... Devin West carried 40 times for 252 yards and two touchdowns to key 21st-ranked Missouri's 35-19 victory over Iowa State ... North Carolina State's up-and-down season was down again after the 23rd-ranked Wolfpack, on the heels of its upset of Syracuse, fell to Georgia Tech, 47-24.

WEEK

The Wild West

Chris Sailer's 24-yard field goal in overtime enabled second-ranked UCLA to outlast 11th-ranked Oregon 41-38 and extend the nation's longest winning streak to 15 games.

The roller-coaster game featured 48 first downs, 985 total yards, and numerous momentum changes. The Bruins led 24-7 in the second quarter, fell behind 31-24 in the fourth, then appeared to have won the game 38-31 on Cade McNown's 60-yard touchdown pass to Danny Farmer with 2:36 left. But the Ducks converted a critical fourth-and-16 on their next possession and tied the game on Akili Smith's two-yard touchdown pass to Damon Griffin with 22 seconds left. UCLA still had a chance to win in regulation when McNown completed a desperation 53-yard heave to backup quarterback Drew Bennett with seven seconds remaining, but Sailer missed a 21-yard field-goal attempt.

In overtime, linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo sacked Smith twice to take Oregon out of field-goal range. The Bruins then kept the ball on the ground to Sailer's winning kick.

The Bishop's Life

Michael Bishop passed for three touchdowns and ran for two, and fourth-ranked Kansas State set a school record with its 14th consecutive victory, a 52-20 rout at Oklahoma State.

Bishop capped the Wildcats' first touchdown drive with a 12-yard run 4:17 into the game, then added touchdown passes of 59 and 81 yards to Aaron Lockett and 46 yards to Frank Murphy before halftime as Kansas State built a 28-6 lead and never was threatened.

The senior quarterback accounted for 376 of the Wildcats' 437 total yards. Though he completed only eight of 23 attempts, he passed for 287 yards. He also led all rushers in the game with 89 yards on 14 carries.

Great Dayne

Ninth-ranked Wisconsin improved to 7-0 with a methodical 37-3 rout at Illinois.

The Badgers kept the ball on the ground for 274 of their 380 total yards, relying mostly on running back Ron Dayne. The 260-pound junior rushed for 190 yards on 39 carries and scored on touchdown runs of eight, one and three yards.

The Big Badger Ron Dayne carried Wisconsin to its seventh straight win.

Dayne, who had already shattered Wisconsin's career rushing record and moved into the Big Ten's career top 10, established another school record with 45 career touchdowns.

The Badgers won seven consecutive games to start the season for the first time in 86 years.

Cavaliers Stung

Joe Hamilton threw three touchdown passes to Dez White, including the winning 54-yarder in the fourth quarter, to rally 25th-ranked Georgia Tech past seventh-rated Virginia 41-38.

The previously undefeated Cavaliers, who amassed sizeable advantages in first downs (27-13), total yards (600-370), and time of possession (37:45-22:15), built a 38-17 lead late in the third quarter. But the Yellow Jackets utilized a fumble return for a touchdown, a field goal, and Hamilton's 35-yard touchdown pass to White to pull within 38-33 with 8:13 to go in the game. The winning touchdown came with 4:40 left.

White caught six passes for a school-record 243 yards for Georgia Tech, which moved into first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Around College Football

Top-ranked Ohio State had little trouble dispatching Minnesota 45-15 at home. Joe Germaine passed for 339 yards and two touchdowns, both to David Boston ... Fifth-rated Florida raised its record to 6-1 and extended its home winning streak to 26 games with a 24-3 thumping of Auburn ... Nebraska, which fell from second to eighth in the polls after losing to Texas A&M in Week 6, bounced back to clobber Kansas 41-0 ... The Cornhuskers' maligned rushing attack exploded for 466 yards ... Winless Temple, a five-touchdown underdog, derailed unbeaten and 14th-ranked Virginia Tech 28-24. The Owls rallied from a 17-0 first-half deficit ... Arkansas raised its record to 6-0 for the first time in a decade by beating South Carolina, 41-28. The Razorbacks moved up as high as 12th in the USA Today/ESPN poll ... Washington beat California 21-13 in large part to Joe Jarzynka's 91-yard punt return for a touchdown. Jarzynka got a little help from the video screen at Husky Stadium.

"I looked at the big screen to see how close behind they were," he said. "I said, 'Man, I can't believe how far back they are.'"

Pollsitter

The week's biggest upset came off the field, where UCLA, second to Ohio State in the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls, leap-frogged the Buckeyes to the top spot in the initial Bowl Championship Series rankings.

Otherwise, it was business-as-usual for the nation's highest-rated teams: No top-10 team in either the writers' or coaches' polls lost in Week 8. The Bruins made a pair of goal-line stands to stave off California, 26-14, in Berkeley, while Ohio State's Joe Germaine and David Boston keyed the Buckeyes' 36-10 rout at Northwestern. Germaine passed for more than 300 yards (342) for the fifth consecutive game, while Boston caught two touchdown passes to surpass Cris Carter as the school's all-time leader in that category.

Seven-Year Itch

Florida State became the front runner for its seventh consecutive ACC title and debuted at No. 5 in the BCS poll by beating Georgia Tech, the lone remaining unbeaten team in conference play, 34-7. The 20th-ranked Yellow Jackets had scored more than 40 points in five consecutive games until running into the nation's top-ranked defense. The Seminoles allowed only 199 total yards and broke open a close game with 24 points in the fourth quarter. Florida State wide receiver Peter Warrick caught two touchdown passes and ran 16 yards on a reverse for another score.

Hurricane Watch

Miami burst back onto the national scene by stunning 13th-ranked West Virginia 34-31 with a late touchdown pass. The visiting Hurricane, who trailed by as many as 11 points in the first half, still faced a four-point deficit before taking over at West Virginia's 46-yard line with 3:15 left in the game. James Jackson's 41-yard run set up Scott Covington's three-yard touchdown pass to Daryl Jones with 1:37 remaining for the victory.

Dejà Vu

Seventh-ranked Nebraska and 19th-rated Missouri met again after since their dramatic overtime game last season, and the result was the same: a narrow victory for the Cornhuskers. A year ago, undefeated Nebraska averted an upset with a dramatic last-second touchdown catch by Shevin Wiggins that forced overtime. This time, Wiggins returned a punt 53 yards late in the third quarter to set up Monte Christo's tying one-yard touchdown run. Christo, a backup quarterback, ran three yards for the winning touchdown 4:33 into the fourth quarter.

Still, Nebraska's 20th consecutive victory over Missouri wasn't decided until the final play. The Tigers recovered Christo's fumble at the Cornhuskers' 45 late in the game and marched to the 22 before linebacker Eric Johnson sacked Tigers quarterback Corby Jones on the game's final play.

UCLA Escapes Defeat ...

Second-ranked UCLA survived a close call at home against last-place Stanford, winning 28-24.

The Bruins trailed 24-14 early in the fourth quarter, rallied to take the lead on touchdown runs by Keith Brown and DeShaun Foster, then hung on for the victory when cornerback Marques Anderson stripped the ball from Cardinal receiver Jeff Allen as he was about to score the go-ahead touchdown in the closing minutes. Bruins safety Larry Atkins recovered the fumble in the end zone.

Despite winning their 17th consecutive game, UCLA fell to third in the Bowl Championship Series poll released two days later.

... Nebraska Doesn't

Seventh-ranked Nebraska was not as fortunate, falling to Texas 20-16 when Major Applewhite threw a two-yard touchdown pass to Wayne McGarity with 2:47 remaining.

The loss ended the Cornhuskers' hopes of playing in the national championship game and snapped their 47-game home winning streak that dated to 1991.

The Longhorns, who also ended Nebraska's quest for the national title with a victory in the 1996 Big 12 championship game the last time the teams played, won their fifth consecutive game after beginning the season 1-2. Texas won just four games all of 1997.

Ricky Williams rushed for 150 yards on 37 carries for the Longhorns.

Gator Bait

Sixth-rated Florida used its usual assortment of odd formations and trick plays to beat No. 11 Georgia, 38-7.

Quarterback Doug Johnson passed for 298 yards and two touchdowns and even caught a touchdown pass as the Gators avenged last season's loss to the Bulldogs.

Johnson's touchdown pass came on an apparent end-around turned double-reverse. But, instead of running, receiver Travis McGriff threw across the field to Johnson for the eight-yard touchdown that gave Florida a 31-7 lead 6:26 into the final quarter.

Germaine Argument

While Williams and UCLA's Cade McNown, among others, have been the frontrunners for the Heisman Trophy, Ohio State quarterback Joe Germaine quietly continued his pitch with another excellent performance in the top-ranked Buckeyes' 38-7 rout of Indiana.

Germaine completed 31 of 45 passes for 351 yards and three touchdowns against the Hoosiers. It was his school-record fourth consecutive 300-yard passing game, his fifth overall this season. David Boston, Germaine's favorite target, caught two touchdown passes and returned a punt 70 yards for another score.

The Buckeyes, whose smallest margin of victory was a 17-point win over then-No. 11 West Virginia in the season opener, retained their top spot in the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls, and moved to No. 1 in the BCS poll.

WEEK 10 ROAD TO TEMPE

Ohio State Bullied

Renaldo Hill's goal-line interception with 1:12 remaining secured Michigan State's stunning 28-24 upset of top-ranked Ohio State in Columbus.

"We came in here with the attitude that we were the squirts in the neighborhood who had to pick a fight with the bully," Spartans head coach Nick Saban said.

For much of the game, it didn't look like it would be much of a fight, however. The heavily favored Buckeyes built a 17-3 lead in the first quarter and still led 24-9 midway through the third period before Michigan State rallied. Sedrick Irvin's three-yard touchdown run 40 seconds into the fourth quarter gave the Spartans their first lead, and Hill's fourth-down interception cut off Ohio State's last-gasp effort, which reached Michigan State's 15-yard line.

Paul Edinger kicked five field goals for the 5-4 Spartans, who became the first unranked team to beat a No. 1 squad since Michigan State's 1990 team knocked off Michigan.

Tennessee Waltzes

Ohio State's loss left Tennessee, UCLA and Kansas State jockeying for position atop the latest BCS poll.

The Volunteers became the third team to occupy the No. 1 spot in as many weeks after an easy 37-13 victory over Alabama-Birmingham. Tee Martin passed for 274 yards and a touchdown and ran for a touchdown for Tennessee, which led by as many as 31 points and never was challenged.

UCLA, however, was challenged again: The Bruins rallied in the second half for the fourth time in five weeks to beat Oregon State, 41-34. Cade McNown's 61-yard touchdown pass to Brad Melsby won it with 21 seconds left.

Kansas State shared the top spot in the Associated Press poll after its 49-6 rout of Baylor, though strength-of-schedule was the major reason the Wildcats were third in the BCS poll. The bad news for Kansas State is that the road was about to get tougher, with games against Nebraska and Missouri looming on the horizon.

Luck of the Irish

Thirteenth-ranked Notre Dame, which was blown out by Michigan State in Week 2, slowly ascended in the polls after a string of close victories, the latest a 31-26 heart stopper over Boston College.

The Irish, who built their lead on two touchdown runs from Autry Denson and two touchdown passes from Jarious Jackson, had to stave off the Eagles with a goal-line stand in the final minute.

Boston College had first-and-goal at the four-yard line, then handed the ball four consecutive times to running back Mike Cloud. He gained three yards on his first two carries, then was stopped at the one-yard line on third down by Notre Dame linebacker Jimmy Friday. Safety Deke Cooper stopped Cloud on fourth down with six seconds left.

Famous Amos

Amos Zereoue rushed for 189 yards and two touchdowns to help West Virginia knock 15th-ranked Syracuse out of first place in the Big East with a 35-28 victory.

PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHIC SERVICES, INC.

The Irish kept their bowl hopes alive with a most memorable goal-line stand in the last seconds of their Boston College brawl.

Zereoue had been slowed by injuries when the Mountaineers lost to the Orangemen the last two years. But he carried 31 times in this game and scored on a 30-yard run in the second quarter and a four-yard run that tied the game at 28-28 late in the third quarter. Marc Bulger's 43-yard touchdown pass to David Saunders won it with 3:04 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Around College Football

Fifth-ranked Florida State routed No. 12 Virginia 45-14 and moved up to fourth in the latest BCS poll. But the Seminoles' victory was tempered by a season-ending neck injury to quarterback Chris Weinke. Weinke, who went 218 consecutive passes without an interception after throwing six in Florida State's lone loss to North Carolina State in Week 3, was injured on a sack late in the second quarter ... Eleventh-rated Arkansas remained undefeated and tuned up for its showdown with Tennessee in Week 11 by routing Ole Miss, 34-0 ... No. 22 Michigan also posted a shutout, stopping ninth-ranked Penn State 27-0 for its seventh consecutive victory ... No. 20 Texas survived with a 37-34 decision over Oklahoma State when Kris Stockton kicked a 29-yard field goal with three seconds left. Major Applewhite completed 29 of 40 passes for 408 yards and three touchdowns for the Longhorns.

A Long Time Coming

Thirty years after it last beat Nebraska, second-ranked Kansas State toppled the 11th-ranked Cornhuskers 40-30 in a wild game in Manhattan.

Wildcats quarterback Michael Bishop atoned for three fumbles and an interception by rushing for 140 yards and two touchdowns and passing for 306 yards and two touchdowns, including the game-winning 11-yarder to Darnell McDonald in the fourth quarter. The score put Kansas State ahead 34-30 with 5:25 left, and the Wildcats secured the victory when linebacker Jeff Kelly returned a fumble 23 yards for a touchdown with three seconds remaining. Kansas State improved to 10-0 but remained third in the BCS poll.

Reversal of Fortune

Tennessee's perfect season appeared on the verge of ruin until a stunning turnover opened the door for a 28-24 comeback victory over Arkansas that kept the Volunteers atop the BCS poll.

The nation's top-ranked team, which trailed the unbeaten and No. 10 Razorbacks by as much as 18 points in the first half, still trailed 24-22 late in the game. Arkansas needed a first down to run out the clock when quarterback Clint Stoerner, who passed for 274 yards and three touchdowns, stumbled pulling away from center. When he tried to brace his fall, the ball popped loose and Tennessee's Billy Ratliff recovered at Arkansas's 43-yard line with 1:43 to play. Travis Henry, who rushed for 197 yards, then carried five consecutive times, the last a one-yard run with 28 seconds left that gave the Volunteers the victory.

Michigan Badgers Wisconsin

No. 15 Michigan ended eighth-ranked Wisconsin's unbeaten season with an easy 27-10 victory at Ann Arbor. The Badgers scored first on Mike Samuel's 80-yard touchdown pass to Chris Chambers 11:22 into the game, but were dominated after that.

The Wolverines countered with touchdowns on each of their next two possessions to take control, and kept Wisconsin from threatening by limiting the Badgers to only nine first downs and 190 total yards, just 58 from their vaunted running game. Michigan, which began the season 0-2, won its eighth consecutive game and moved within a victory over Ohio State of going to the Rose Bowl. Wisconsin's Rose Bowl hopes rested on a victory over Penn State coupled with a Buckeyes win over the Wolverines.

And Then There Were Four

While Tennessee, UCLA and Kansas State jockeyed for position at the top of the polls, Arkansas' and Wisconsin's losses left unheralded Tulane as the only other unbeaten Division I-A team. The Green Wave improved to 9-0 with a 49-35 victory over Army.

Quarterback Shaun King passed for 332 yards, rushed for 135 yards, and accounted for six touchdowns (three rushing and three passing) for Tulane, which piled up 581 of the game's 1,116 total yards. The Green Wave clinched at least a tie for their first conference title in 49 years.

Around College Football

Third-ranked UCLA didn't need any late heroics this time, and clinched the Pac-10 title with a 36-24 victory over Washington. Ryan Roques had a key 77-yard punt return for a touchdown for the Bruins, who remained No. 2 in the BCS standings ... Sixth-rated Texas A&M won its 10th consecutive game, edging No. 13 Missouri when Russell Bynum kicked a 39-yard field goal with 1:30 remaining ... Ninth-ranked Arizona improved to 10-1 by building a 27-10 lead over California, then holding off the Bears, 27-23 ... Donovan McNabb threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Stephen Brominski with no time left as Syracuse kept its Big East title hopes alive with a dramatic 28-26 victory over 16th-rated Virginia Tech ... Texas Tech's Ricky Williams edged Texas' Ricky Williams 148-141 in yards rushing, but the Red Raiders upset the 18th-ranked Longhorns, 42-25 ... Kentucky's Tim Couch completed 44 of 53 passes for 492 yards and five touchdowns in the Wildcats' 55-17 victory over Vanderbilt ... Louisville's Chris Redman was 44 of 56 for 592 yards and six touchdowns in his team's 63-45 victory over East Carolina.

WEEK 12 ROAD TO TEMPE

Block Party

Seventh-ranked Ohio State made the key plays on special teams, blocking a punt and nearly blocking another, to key a 31-16 victory over No. 11 Michigan.

The Buckeyes' victory just about assured them of playing in a Bowl Championship Series game. The Wolverines' loss was their first in 17 conference games and kept them from their second consecutive Rose Bowl berth.

Ohio State had won just once in its last 10 games against Michigan, but took the lead just 2:40 into the game when Michael Wiley raced 53 yards for a touchdown. Moments later, Wolverines punter Jason Vinson mishandled a snap from center deep in Michigan territory. Under pressure, he managed a short kick that reached only the 16-yard line, setting up Joe Germaine's 16-yard touchdown pass to Dee Miller for a 14-0 lead with 9:44 still left in the first quarter. Late in the first half, a blocked punt led to Germaine's 30-yard touchdown pass to David Boston, and the Buckeyes' 21-3 advantage was not seriously threatened. Boston had 10 receptions for 217 yards. Germaine passed for 330 yards.

Second Chance

Thirteenth-ranked Wisconsin, which had an opportunity to clinch a Rose Bowl berth in Week 11 but lost at Michigan, took advantage of the Wolverines' loss to Ohio State and was headed to Pasadena after a 24-3 thumping of No. 16 Penn State. Nick Davis' 82-yard punt return late in the first quarter provided all the points the Badgers would need, though quarterback Mike Samuel added a touchdown run and a touchdown pass to secure the victory. Wisconsin, Ohio State, and Michigan all finished Big Ten play with 7-1 records, but conference tiebreakers sent the Badgers to the Rose Bowl for the first time since the 1993 season.

There's No Place Like Home

Fifth-ranked Florida State beat fourth-rated Florida, 23-12, to keep its national championship hopes alive before a record crowd at Doak Campbell Stadium.

The Seminoles, who have not lost in their last 40 home games, trailed 12-6 until wide receiver Peter Warrick took over in the second half. Warrick caught a 32-yard touchdown pass 3:29 into the third quarter to give his team the lead for the first time, then took a handoff on a reverse and threw a 46-yard touchdown pass to Ron Dugans early in the fourth quarter. Florida State's defense did the rest, limiting the Gators' high-powered offense to only 12 first downs and 204 total yards, well below their season average of nearly 500 total yards.

Great Eight

Freshman DeShaun Foster scored four touchdowns to lead

Purdue QB Drew Brees completed his run on four Big Ten passing records this week.

third-ranked UCLA past crosstown-rival USC for the eighth consecutive year, 34-17. The Bruins won their 20th consecutive game, maintained their No. 2 ranking in the BCS poll, and remained in line for a berth in the national championship game.

Foster rushed for 109 yards on 15 carries, the biggest a 65-yard touchdown run just 55 seconds after the Trojans narrowed the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter.

The Trojans outgained the Bruins, 387-373, but stymied themselves with seven turnovers, including five lost fumbles.

Around College Football

No. 1 Tennessee remained undefeated with an easy 59-21 victory over Kentucky. Shawn Bryson's 58-yard touchdown run highlighted a 28-point second quarter as the Volunteers opened up a 38-7 halftime lead ... It was not as easy for No. 2 Kansas State, which edged No. 19 Missouri, 31-25. Frank Murphy recovered his own fumble in the end zone for the clinching touchdown midway through the fourth quarter ... No. 9 Arkansas could not bounce back from its loss to Tennessee in Week 11.

The Razorbacks suffered another heartbreaking defeat when Brian Hazelwood kicked a 27-yard field goal with seven seconds left to give Mississippi State a 22-21 victory ...

Jarius Jackson passed for 276 yards, rushed for 80, and brought No. 10 Notre Dame back from a 14-point second-half deficit to a 39-36 victory over LSU. But Jackson sprained his knee when taking a safety in the closing seconds and was expected to miss the Irish's season finale at USC ... In traditional rivalries, Oregon State upset No. 15 Oregon, 44-41, in two overtimes, Alabama beat Auburn, 31-17, in the Iron Bowl, Washington beat Washington State, 16-9, for the Apple Cup, Stanford beat California, 10-3, in the Big Game, and Purdue blasted Indiana, 52-7, to take the Old Oaken Bucket. Boilermaker quarterback Drew Brees completed his run on Big Ten passing records, setting season marks for attempts (516), completions (336), yardage (3,753) and touchdowns (36).

ROAD TO 13 TEMPE

Record Run

Ricky Williams became the NCAA Division 1-A career rushing leader when he gained 259 yards in Texas' 26-24 upset of sixth-ranked Texas A&M on Friday.

Williams finished the game at 6,279 yards. He broke Tony Dorsett's mark of 6,082 yards on a 60-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter. It was his 10th career touchdown of 50 yards or more. The run also helped the Longhorns build a 23-7 lead in the fourth quarter. Still, Texas had to scramble for the victory. After the Aggies scored 17 points in a span of 6:09 of the final period to take a 24-23 lead with 2:20 left, Texas drove to Kris Stockton's 25-yard field goal with five seconds remaining to win it.

ALLSPORT USA

Ricky Williams rushes to the No. 1 place on the record charts.

Shootout in the Desert

Trung Canidate rushed for a school-record 288 yards on only 18 carries to help seventh-ranked Arizona outlast Arizona State, 50-42, in a wild game in Tucson on Friday.

The Wildcats finished their best regular season ever at 11-1, with the lone loss coming to third-ranked UCLA. They positioned themselves for their first Rose Bowl berth if the Pac-10 champion Bruins qualified for the national championship game in the Fiesta Bowl.

Canidate had touchdown runs of 80, 66 and 48 yards in a game that featured numerous big plays and 1,169 total yards. His last touchdown came with 4:02 to play and gave Arizona a 50-35 lead. Ryan Kealy, who completed 33 of 56 passes for 511 yards, pulled Arizona State within eight points with his fourth touchdown pass, a 23-yard strike to Lenzie Jackson with 1:52 to go. But the Sun Devils' last chance ended when Kelvin Hunter knocked down Kealy's pass in the end zone on the final play.

Big East Coast

Quarterback Donovan McNabb ran for three touchdowns and passed for two to lead No. 21 Syracuse to a surprisingly easy 66-13 victory over 19th-ranked Miami in a showdown for the Big East championship and a BCS berth.

The Orangemen scored on Dee Brown's 23-yard touchdown run just 1:32 into the game, built a 24-7 lead in the first quarter, and never were threatened. Any comeback hopes the Hurricanes had were dashed when McNabb scored on three touchdown runs (one yard, 51 yards, and one yard) in the second quarter for a 45-7 lead at the intermission.

Surprise Entrant

James Johnson scored on two short touchdown runs to lead surprising Mississippi State to a 28-6 victory over Mississippi on Thanksgiving Day. The 25th-ranked Bulldogs, who have not won a Southeastern Conference title in 57 years, won the SEC Western Division and qualified for the conference title game against No. 1 Tennessee.

Johnson entered the game slowed by a groin injury and left midway through the second quarter with a separated shoulder. But his touchdown runs of two yards and one yard staked Mississippi State to a 14-3 lead. He injured his shoulder diving for the latter score, which capped a 98-yard drive and came 7:36 before halftime.

The Rebels did not pose much of a threat after that. With starting quarterback Romaro Miller out with a broken collarbone, running back Deuce McAllister carried on 40 of Mississippi's 73 plays from scrimmage. He accounted for 177 of the Rebels' 265 total yards but could not reach the end zone.

Around College Football

Top-ranked Tennessee tuned up for the SEC championship game with a 41-0 rout of Vanderbilt ... Ninth-ranked Notre Dame, hampered by the absence of injured quarterback Jarious Jackson, suffered a crushing 10-0 defeat to unranked USC. The Irish had their eight-game winning streak snapped and fell out of contention for a BCS berth ... Eleventh-ranked Tulane concluded an 11-0 regular season — its first unbeaten and untied season since 1931 — with a 63-30 rout of Louisiana Tech on Thanksgiving Day. Toney Converse rushed for 182 yards and four touchdowns and Shaun King passed for 330 yards and three touchdowns for the Green Wave, which earned a Liberty Bowl berth ... Clint Stoerner passed for 334 yards and Chrys Chukwuma rushed for 166 yards in 13th-ranked Arkansas' 41-14 rout of LSU. The Tigers, who were 3-0 and ranked in the top 10 earlier in the season, lost for the seventh time in eight games and finished a disappointing 4-7 ... No. 16 Virginia erased a 29-7 half-time deficit and stunned No. 20 Virginia Tech, 36-32 ... Brad Chambers kicked a 35-yard field goal with two seconds left to lift 17th-ranked Georgia Tech past No. 12 Georgia, 21-19. The Yellow Jackets snapped a seven-year losing streak against the Bulldogs ... Pittsburgh native Marc Bulger threw six touchdown passes in West Virginia's 52-14 rout of Pitt.

WEEK ROAD TO 14 TEMPE

Volunteers, Seminoles Big Winners on Championship Saturday

Top-ranked Tennessee scored two touchdowns within 28 seconds of the fourth quarter to rally past No. 23 Mississippi State 24-14 and win its second consecutive Southeastern Conference championship.

The victory assured the Volunteers a chance to play for the National Championship against Florida State in the Fiesta Bowl January 4. The idle Seminoles, fourth in the Bowl Championship rankings entering the week, moved up to No. 2 after losses by Kansas State and UCLA.

"I have never accomplished so much doing nothing yesterday, just sitting on the couch," said FSU coach Bobby Bowden.

Getting the win wasn't easy for Tennessee, however. The Volunteers found themselves trailing 14-10 after the Bulldogs' Kevin Prentiss returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown with 8:43 left.

"The chance to play for a National Championship comes once in a lifetime," Tennessee wide receiver Peerless Price said. "We knew we had to pick it up."

So just five plays later, Price hauled in a 41-yard touchdown pass from Tee Martin, giving the Volunteers the lead for good with 6:15 remaining. After recovering a fumble on the next play from scrimmage, Tennessee put the game away on Martin's 26-yard touchdown pass to Cedrick Wilson at the 5:47 mark. Martin struggled much of the game, but passed for 103 of his 208 yards in the fourth quarter. The Volunteer's defense, meanwhile, limited Mississippi State to only nine first downs and 149 total yards, and did not permit a touchdown.

Defenseless

UCLA's national-title hopes were foiled when Miami's Edgerin James ran one-yard for a touchdown with 50 seconds left, giving the unranked Hurricanes an improbable 49-45 victory and snapping the Bruins' 20-game winning streak.

The Bruins, ranked third in the coaches' and writers' polls but second in the BCS rankings, appeared poised for a Fiesta Bowl berth when they took a 38-21 lead late in the third quarter. But UCLA's defense, which surrendered 689 total yards for the game and touchdowns on each of Miami's last four possessions, let the Bruins down. The Hurricanes also converted a pair of fumbles by UCLA wide receivers into fourth-quarter touchdowns, including the game-winner. James set a school record by rushing for 299 yards and three touchdowns on 39 carries. Miami had 371 yards in all on the ground, gaining a whopping 7.7 yards per carry. That helped offset a 513-yard, five-touchdown passing performance by the Bruins' Cade McNown. The senior quarterback completed 26 of 35 passes, and also ran one yard for a touchdown to give his team a 45-35 lead with 6:54 left.

The Hurricanes countered quickly, scoring three plays later on Scott Covington's 29-yard touchdown pass to Mondriel Fulcher. Covington then led Miami 74 yards in eight plays to the winning score.

The game marked the fourth time that the Hurricanes ended an opponent's winning streak of 20 or more games at the Orange Bowl. UCLA, which had not lost since its second game of the 1997 season, was headed to the Rose Bowl as the Pac-10 champions.

Tennessee and Peerless Price have no peer in the final BCS Poll.

Working Overtime

No. 2 Kansas State had its chance to secure a spot in the National Championship game when UCLA's loss was posted on the scoreboard early in the second quarter of the Big 12 title game. But the Jayhawks could not hang onto a 27-12, fourth-quarter lead over 10th-ranked Texas A&M and fell to the Aggies 36-33 in two overtimes.

Quarterback Brandon Stewart, starting in place of injured Randy McCown, rallied A&M by throwing touchdown passes of 15 yards to Leroy Hodge and nine yards to Sirr Parker. The latter, coupled with a two-point conversion pass to Parker, tied the score with 1:05 left.

Kansas State nearly pulled out a victory on the final play of regulation, but Everett Burnett was tackled on the Aggies' one-yard line after catching a desperation pass from Michael Bishop. In overtime, the teams exchanged field goals until Parker took a short pass from Stewart and turned it into the winning, 32-yard touchdown.

Stewart passed for 324 yards and three touchdowns despite hyperextending his knee in the first quarter. Bishop passed for 341 yards and rushed for 101 for the Jayhawks.

With the victory, Texas A&M earned a trip to the Sugar Bowl to play Ohio State. Kansas State, which had its 19-game winning streak snapped, fell to the Alamo Bowl to play Purdue.

Around College Football

Seventeenth-ranked Air Force captured the Western Athletic Conference championship with a 20-13 victory over BYU. The Falcons, who were held 170 yards below their season rushing average of 281 yards per game, erased a 13-7 deficit in the fourth quarter when Blane Morgan threw a 59-yard touchdown pass to Matt Farmer with 3:49 left. Air Force earned a berth in the Oahu Bowl against Oregon on Christmas Day...Army won its annual battle against Navy by coming from behind for a 34-30 victory at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium. It was the highest-scoring game in the 99-year history of the series. The Cadets trailed 30-19 in the final period, but utilized a halfback-option pass and Ty Amey's 70-yard touchdown run to rally to victory.

The game was marred by injuries to nine people who were celebrating Amey's touchdown with 7:33 left when a railing gave way. The game was delayed 31 minutes...Marshall won its second consecutive Mid-American Conference title by beating Toledo 23-17 on Friday night. Chad Pennington passed for 249 yards and a touchdown for the Herd, which scored 17 points in a span of 4:47 of the fourth quarter to win.

NCAA Gamebreaker '99*Maker:*By Jeof Vita

It's a brisk Saturday afternoon. Your alma mater is down by four points facing fourth and goal. The crowd is going crazy, the legendary Keith Jackson is calling every play, and you teeter nervously on the edge of your seat.

NCAA College football?

Well, sort of. Although with the way this game plays, it's hard to believe it's only a game!

The folks at 989 Studios continue to set the standard for College Football games with the release of NCAA Gamebreaker '99 for the Sony Playstation. This third edition of the highly successful videogame series brings all the flavor of college football to life with stunning graphics, fluid gameplay and rich detail that pulls you in from the opening kickoff to the final gun.

Gamebreaker features new 3D polygonal players scaled to reflect actual weight and height, as well as exact replicas of the football stadiums for all 112 NCAA Division I teams, complete with school colors, painted end zones and even rabid fans. The superior realism of Gamebreaker shines with every play, acted out by superb motion-capture technology. In fact, if you think you recognize a particular running style, or see a familiar end zone celebration, chances are, you have! Gamebreaker utilizes motion-capture animation of nine former college standouts who are now in the NFL. Among those whose style has been captured for the game are USC grad and New York Giants safety Jason Sehorn, Washington State alum and current San Diego Chargers quarterback Ryan Leaf, and Purdue grad and Tampa Bay Buccaneers fullback Mike Alstott.

While the graphics and sound are truly amazing, the strength of Gamebreaker '99 is in its ultra-realistic gameplay. Culled from actual playbooks of some of the finest college coaches, Gamebreaker '99 features over 2,200 plays from which to choose. If that isn't enough, you can create your own plays with the original play editor. Intuitive controlling gives you the ability to spend less time learning to play the game, and more time actually playing. With the "Total Control" feature, you handle everything from the snap to the end zone dance and every stiff-arm, dive, spin, juke and high-step in between. If the game is on the line, you can fall back on your team's "Gamebreaker," that one player who simply refuses to lose.

As in real college football, the Gamebreaker is the player who is a little tougher to take down or seems to make every key catch or break every tackle en route to the endzone.

To make NCAA Gamebreaker '99 as realistic as possible, 989 Sports has added a slew of new options for the true die-hard college football fans. With "Blue Chip Recruiting," gamers can sign top recruits and build championship contenders. Play a Bowl Season to compete for the Heisman Trophy, the only college football game that gives you this option. Feel the excitement build as the voice of college football, Keith Jackson takes you through every down, complete with the trademark, "Whoa, Nellie!"

Amazing graphics, great sound, excellent gameplay, and incomparable realism, NCAA Gamebreaker '99 has it all.

NCAA Football? Yes it is!

NOV. 6, 1997

The Arizona Sports Foundation announces that Tucson's bowl game will be called the Insight.com Bowl, after signing Insight Enterprises, Inc., as the title sponsor to a multi-year agreement. Formerly known as the Copper Bowl, the Insight.com Bowl becomes the first known sporting event named after a World Wide Web site.

DEC. 31, 1997

For the first time in the Fiesta Bowl's history, the game is held on New Year's Eve, creating an electrifying evening in downtown Tempe, with the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the Tempe Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Block Party being held at the same time. Kansas State quarterback Michael Bishop is the star of the game, while the B-52s highlight the Block Party, which attracts a record 175,000 people.

JAN. 14, 1998

Olympic gold medalist and long-time Fiesta Bowl volunteer Herman Frazier is elected as the bowl's 27th president, for the 1998-99 year. Frazier, who serves as the senior associate athletic director at Arizona State University, is also a vice president with the United States Olympic Committee.

SEPT. 24, 1998

The Arizona State University College of Business forecasts that the 1999 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and associated events will generate an economic impact approaching $120 million for the Arizona economy.

SEPT. 28, 1998

The Fiesta Bowl calendar of events, featuring 51 year-round spectator and participatory events, is branded as the Fiesta Bowl Festival.

JUNE 1, 1998

The Fiesta Bowl reaches an agreement with the Football Writers Association of America to host an annual Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Banquet in the Phoenix area beginning in January 1999. The banquet will recognize the nation's top coach, as selected by the FWAA, and Eddie Robinson, the winningest coach in college football history.

DEC. 6, 1998

The Tostitos Fiesta Bowl announces that it will host No. 1 Tennessee against No. 2 Florida State in college football's first unified national championship game. It marks the fourth national championship game in the 28-year history of the Fiesta Bowl. The game will be televised on Monday, January 4, 1999, in prime time on ABC as part of the Bowl Championship Series. ■

UT FANS

Pieces of historic Thompson-Boling Arena basketball court are now available to all UT fans. This is THE actual home court used by the Lady Vols and the Men's Basketball Team from 1989-1998. Hang a piece of the coaches' box, autographed by Coach Pat Summitt, in your den or office. For more details call for a brochure or check it out on the web at www.utcourt.com. Proceeds benefit the University of Tennessee Athletic Department.

ON TOP OF THE WORLD™

that one is truly challenged.

You can't run. No, wait, you can run. And you can run fast.

We proudly support all those who know how to handle adversity. Especially when it's 340. And in your face.
